The Autobiography of September Marx and Other Stories Jesse S. Mitchell, 2012-03-22 Enter the mind of September Marx where his inner monologue is both insightful and broad minded letting the failures of mankind be explained by a careful knowledge of psychology and forgiven by a depth of experience that allows the pain of the past to become the wisdom of the present September takes us through the Dhyanas of daily existence bridging the gap between the mystic and the mundane without arrogance and with a sense of the fragility of everyday deceptions which people use to hide unpleasant truths from themselves He sees a world of hidden dignity amidst our reality of degradation and squalor and a universe that is alive and breathing waiting to reveal its secrets to those who seek them in stillness

The Grateful Elephant and Other Stories
Translated from the Pāli Eugene Watson Burlingame, THESE stories are said to have been related by Gotama Buddha for the purpose of conveying to his hearers moral and religious lessons and the lessons of common sense Gotama Buddha was born nearly twenty five centuries ago in the city of Kapila in Northeast India Kapila was the principal city of the Sakya tribe and his father was king of the tribe Gotama was his family name Buddhameans Awakened or Enlightened that is to say awakened or enlightened to the cause and the cure of human suffering The Buddhist Scriptures tell us that when Gotama was born the angels rejoiced and sang An aged wise man inquired Why doth the company of angels rejoice They replied He that shall become Buddha is born in the village of the Sakyas for the welfare and happiness of mankind therefore are we joyful and exceeding glad The wise man hastened to the king s house and said Where is the child I too wish to see him They showed him the child When he saw the child he rejoiced and was exceeding glad And he took him in his arms and said Without an equal is he foremost among men Then because he was an old man and knew that he was soon to die he became sorrowful and wept tears Said the Sakyas Will any harm come to the child No replied the wise man this child shall one day become Buddha out of love and pity for mankind he shall set in motion the Wheel of Religion far and wide shall his religion be spread But as for me I have not long to live before these things shall come to pass death will be upon me Therefore am I stricken with woe overwhelmed with sorrow afflicted with grief Seven days after Gotama was born his mother died and he was brought up by his aunt and step mother When he was nineteen years old he married his own cousin For ten years he lived a life of ease in the enjoyment of all the comforts and luxuries which riches and high position could give him When he was twenty nine years old a change came over him The Whole Mess and Other Stories Jack Skillingstead,2023-11-07 What does it mean to be human in a universe of shifting sometimes terrifying realities Eighteen stories from Jack Skillingstead s second decade of publishing feature intense and surprising explorations of who we are who we wish to be and who we can t be In The Whole Mess a genius math professor solves a multiverse equation only to find himself pursued by ancient Masters across the many iterations of his could have been lives Straconia gives us a Kafkaesque world where all the lost things go including people who must first find themselves before they can find a way back home Tribute looks at a post NASA space race that goes nowhere until an unlikely pair of marooned astronauts find each other and the future Also included in this collection is The Writing Life a self reflection on memory ambition and imagination in the formation of one writer s journey Gallegher and Other Stories Richard Harding Davis,2025-08-23 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Exiles and Other Stories Richard Harding Davis,1916
