Discourse on Civility and Barbarity Timothy Fitzgerald, 2010-12-31 This book analyses the development of different meanings of the term religion in different contexts and in relation to other categories with shifting and unstable nuances such as the state politics economics and the secular It traces a major transformation of the category as a function of Euro American colonialism and capitalism from its traditional meaning of Christian Truth to the modern generic and pluralised category of religions and world religions Throughout the period under consideration discourses on religion have overlapped significantly with discourses on our civility as opposed to their barbarity underpinning the superior rationality of the literate male elite of western societies

Muslims as Actors Jacques Waardenburg, 2012-02-13 This book deals with Islamic studies and with the question how the scholarly study of religion can contribute to the study of Islam The author advocates studying Islamic phenomena as signs and symbols interpreted and applied in diverse ways in existing traditions He stresses the role of Muslims as actors in the ongoing debate about the articulation of Islamic ways of life and construction of Islam as a religion A careful study of this debate should steer clear of political religious and ideological interests Research in this area by Muslims and non Muslim scholars alike should address the question of what Muslims have made of their Islam in specific circumstances Current political contexts have created an unhealthy climate for pursuing an open approach to Islam based on reading observing listening and reflecting Yet precisely nowadays we need to look anew at ways of Muslim thinking and acting that refer to Islam and to avoid certain schemes of interpreting Muslim realities that are no longer adequate for present day Muslim life situations Muslim recourse to Islam can be studied as human constructions of value and meaning and relations between Muslims and others can be seen in terms of human interaction without blame always falling on Islam as such

That We May Be Mutually Encouraged Kathy Ehrensperger, 2004-04-15 There has been a revolutionary shift of thinking in Pauline Studies fundamentally changing the image of Paul Postmodern literary criticism of Paul's epistles and sociorhetorical criticism of his letters has created a New Perspective approach to Pauline studies At the same time feminist criticism of the Pauline corpus has been growing Unfortunately there has been hardly any interaction and exchange of research results between these different strands of scholarship The result of this is that in Pauline studies scholars are hardly aware of feminist perspectives Similarly feminist interpretations of Paul not fully conversant with the most recent strands of Pauline research are often based on traditional images of Paul Ehrensperger's analysis of feminist commentaries on Paul thus contains a rather negative depiction of theological thinking However both strands of research feminist and those of the New Perspective provide fresh and illuminating insights that emphasize similar aspects from different perspectives Ehrensperger advocates a closer interaction between these two schools of Pauline studies She analyzes Romans 14 15 exploring the results of recent research in both Pauline schools Pauline studies from the New Perspective emphasize the Jewish context and texture of Paul's thinking She sets these in dialogue with feminist theology which focuses on issues of identity diversity and relationality Her study results in a perspective on Paul which views him as a significant dialogue partner in the search for a theology beyond anti-Semitism and misogyny beyond force and domination Kathy Ehrensperger studied theology at the Universities of Basel and Berne and was a pastor for sixteen years in Switzerland She is currently a Lecturer in New Testament Studies at the University of Wales Lampeter

The Future of Political Theology Aakash Singh, Mika Luoma-aho, Dr Péter Losonczi, 2013-06-28 Recent shifts in the contemporary cultural political and religious landscape are engendering intensive attention concerning political theology New trends and traditional ideas equally colour these movements Given that a medley of recent books and articles have exhaustively treated both the history and the current resurgence of political theology we now find ourselves faced with the task of reinventing and redefining the future of political theology This book presents a rich overview of fresh contemporary theoretical approaches uniquely prioritizing the prospects of the future of political theology but also making room for significant interventions from philosophy and political theory Including prominent essays on Judaic Islamic Buddhist and Christian perspectives this book balances elements from post modern theology with more classical as well as anti post modern approaches

Postmodernism, Literature, and the Future of Theology David Jasper, 2009-06-16 These essays set out to consider the possible future of theology in the light of the so called postmodern condition They are necessarily deeply interdisciplinary since it is a characteristic of post Enlightenment thought to disintegrate the lines of definition which separate areas of reflection in the human sciences Theology we believe must be exposed to the consequences of what has happened in literature and critical theory if it is to have any future outside the protected and isolated environment of ecclesia and the communities of the faithful The authors represent a great diversity of opinion and discipline Not all of us would agree with one another and certainly there is no agreement as to what constitutes postmodernity Yet this very diversity forms the strength and importance of the book for there are no simple answers or straightforward definitions Theology must recognize the pluralism within which it now must carry out its task and which alone defines its future The keynote of the discussion is the tragic Tragedy takes us back to the Greeks and to Nietzsche Both feature centrally in this presentation It also suggests a future a return perhaps through literature to theology and not merely an end of the story as it has been traditionally sold

first published in 2000 The place of religion in universities and institutes of higher education has become increasingly topical and contested in recent years largely due to the growth of religious diversity on campus Issues such as shared worship spaces equal opportunities and the management of inter religious conflict concern university administrators and students alike Based on primary empirical research this book indicates the need for clear guidelines on these issues and provides the data to inform policy making Offering the first study of the practical and sociological implications of the multi faith campus this book provides a context for examining some of the dynamics of religious diversity in Britain more generally as well as providing a useful analysis for the wider international context Key themes covered include religion in institutions inter faith relations the changing roles of religious professionals secularisation and resacralisation and religion youth and identity

The Garden of Reality Roland Faber, 2018-06-20 The Garden of Reality contemplates the relativity of religious truth religious pluralism transreligious discourse postmodern cosmology and multireligious mysticism Its transreligious approach aims at a future multireligious peaceful society in an ecological and cosmic context It proposes that the future of humanity is bound to conviviality with itself and the Earth that the deepest religious motivations of existing together are relative to one another and that transreligious relativity is essential to the conviction of religions that their motivations experiences and conceptualities are meaningful real and true By engaging diverse voices from poststructuralism to Sufism Dzogchen and philosophical Daoism from conceptual frameworks of Christianity and Hinduism to mystical and postmodern cosmology current cosmopolitanism and interreligious and interspiritual discourses but especially understudied contributions of process thought and the Bah religion this book suggests that multireligious conviviality must listen to the universal relevance of a multiplicity of minority voices Its polyphilic pluralism affirms the mutual immanence and co creative nature of religions and spiritualities with the universal in sistance of divine or ultimate reality in the cosmos Embracing a relativistic and evolutionary paradigm in an infinite cosmos of creative becoming religions must cope with events of novelty that disturb and connect transcend and contrast the continuum of their truth claims but must avoid conflict as religious diversity is enveloped by an ever folding landscape of ultimate reality The Comity and Grace of Method Thomas Ryba, George D.

Migration, Transnationalism, and Faith in Missiological Perspective Kirsteen Kim, Alexia Salvatierra, 2022-04-04 Los Angeles is a global crossroads of migrating communities that presents a case study of migration transnationalism and interfaith engagement with significant implications for thinking and practice in other global hubs This book weaves together contributions from internationally recognized scholars who were brought together for the 2020 Missiology Lectures at Fuller Theological Seminary They examine historical waves of migration European Protestant Asian Latino a and Muslim into Southern California and use sociological missiological and theological methods to understand the experience of migration and its effects both on those who move and those who are already there The result shows how migrants are inspired and sustained by faith and spiritual resources how migration challenges faith communities about their identity and attitudes to others how faith communities in turn impact the migration landscape through immigrant integration and public advocacy and how migration forges new transnational and global ways of being in community and innovative religious movements The contributors put forward a mission theology of migration and suggest mission practices in response to the suffering caused by forced migration and the injustices of immigration systems Religion in Multidisciplinary Perspective F. LeRon Shults, Robert Cummings Neville, 2022-01-01 Religion in Multidisciplinary Perspective provides the first comprehensive treatment of the work of Wesley J Wildman one of the most inventive thinkers in the field of religious studies Scholars with expertise in philosophical theological and scientific approaches to the study of religion offer critical and constructive engagements with Wildman s astonishingly creative and integrative oeuvre The essays address themes that will be of interest to those concerned with the current state of scholarship on religion from a variety of disciplines including philosophy theology ethics psychology sociology anthropology and others The volume concludes with a response by Wildman Book Review Digest ,2002 Philosophical Faith and the Future of Humanity Helmut Wautischer, Alan M. Olson, Gregory J. Walters, 2012-01-02 Karl Jaspers who died in 1969 had a profound impact on 20th century theology and philosophy His central thesis called for among other things a de centering of philosophy from its Eurocentric roots and a renewal of its dialogue with other traditions especially Asian ones This collection of essays includes unpublished work by Jaspers himself as well as testimonies to his life and career by colleagues associates and translators some of who knew Jaspers personally Readers will also find commentary and interpretation by researchers who have explored Jaspers work for decades and a biographical account of Jaspers student Leonard Ehrlich who handled much of Jaspers English translation The book interrogates Jaspers conceptions of philosophical faith his philosophy of communication and the prospects for world philosophy in the future Focusing on philosophical faith it assesses Jaspers interpretations of key philosophers such as Kant Hegel Schelling Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Rosenzweig as well as examining his personal relationships with Bultmann and Heidegger Contributors also look at Jaspers philosophies of religion and history his hypothesis of the axial age Achsenzeit and his contributions to metaphysics periechontology and economics Finally chapters cover Jaspers philosophy of communication and world history The latter are informed by a burgeoning interest in Kantian Freiheitphilosophie that influenced Jaspers as well as concerns over the future of humanity These concerns in part account for Jaspers growing popularity in the Middle East Eastern Europe Central South America and Asia Also included are lucid clarifications of the difference between religious and philosophical faith and the relevance of certainty trust and communication for a future of mankind Trained as a psychiatrist Jaspers practiced this profession before becoming a philosopher and thus had a keen insight into the workings of the human mind even as he challenged the philosophical establishment of his time It is perhaps this depth to his background that adds to the contemporary relevance of his work Ninian Smart on World Religions:
