The Future Of The Christian Sunday:

The Future of the Christian Sunday Christopher Kiesling, 1970 The Future of Christianity John Stenhouse, Brett Knowles, Antony Wood, 2004 This book written by a group of New Zealand scholars theologians historians and lawyers examines the question of New Zealand's Western culture and Christianity The contributors explore recent debates over secularisation exploring its merits and explanatory power while also showing its limitations The Lord's Day, or, Christian Sunday. Its Unity, History, Philosophy, and Perpetual Obligation. Sermons Morris Joseph Fuller, 2024-02-28 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 Liturgies of the Future Anscar J. Chupungco, 2006-05-05 In this book Anscar Chupungco carries forward the work begun in Cultural Adaptation of the Liturgy Now more than forty years after the Council the first stage of the liturgical renewal is complete the Roman liturgy has been restored to its classical shape But the challenge of the second stage lies before us the adaptation of the liturgy to various cultures and traditions This the unfinished agenda of the Council is the task of local churches Chupungco here calls them to take up that task to be faithful to sound tradition and to foster legitimate progress at the same time an art requiring expertise in the science of liturgy the virtue of flexibility and often a great faith in the wisdom of the Church After reviewing the mandate of the Council the author examines the future of the liturgy in three chapters the future shape of the eucharistic celebration the future shape of sacramental celebrations and the future shape of the liturgical year This hopeful and stimulating book will be of great assistance not only to teachers and students of the liturgy but also to those who daily confront the challenges of the future on a pastoral level The Future of the Christian Tradition Robert Joseph Miller, 2007 What is the future of the Christian tradition as it confronts the challenges and opportunities of the global age That question addressed by authors from around the globe leads in turn to more questions What elements of a traditional Christian faith can be carried forward in an authentic contemporary faith The Bible as Sacred Scripture Life after death Sin and guilt Reward and punishment How do we make an earth centered vision the heart of a faith for the second axial age And many more Contributors include John Shelby Spong Episcopal Bishop Emeritus of Newark New Jersey Robert W Funk Founder of the Jesus Seminar Eugenie Scott Director of the Center for Science Education Richard Holloway Bishop of Edinburgh Lloyd Geering Emeritus Professor of Victoria University of Wellington New Zealand Don Cupitt former Dean of Emmanuel College Cambridge England Anne Primavesi Fellow of the Centre for the Interdisciplinary Study of Religion Birkbeck College University of London and Fellows of the Jesus Seminar The Christian Future Eugen Rosenstock-Huessy, 2013-04-08 The Eugen Rosenstock Huessy Fund For four decades the Fund operated a publishing wing Argo Books which published many of Rosenstock Huessy's English language works and unpublished manuscripts as books The German Eugen Rosenstock Huessy Gesellschaft undertook similar efforts with the German language works the Dutch group Respondeo published a number of translations into Dutch The Fund recently decided to pass on responsibility for Rosenstock Huessy's works to another publisher and his English language works are now available on Amazon sold by Wipf and Stock of Eugene OR who also publish Jacques Ellul and William Stringfellow Training the Church of the future, Auburn seminary lectures on Christian nurture Francis Edward Clark, 1902 Christ and the Future in New Testament History E. Earle Ellis, 2014-04-09 Christology and eschatology form a double core conception in the New Testament that enables one to understand other themes radiating out from it The present volume addresses fifteen topics within this central core seven on the person of Jesus and eight on this age and the age to come The essays interact with and further discussion on disputed topics in contemporary New Testament Studies including the historical Jesus and the Gospels deity christology in the Synoptics and in the Pauline writings the meaning of resurrection in the teaching of Jesus the Sadducees and Qumran eschatology in Luke's writings and the structure of Pauline eschatology New Testament teaching on hell and other christological and eschatological motifs Three concluding pieces provide the historical and hermeneutical framework from which the theological studies proceed This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details Sixty Sermons: adapted to the Sundays and principal holydays of the Christian year John EDMUNDS (M.A.), 1864 Remembering for the Future J. Roth, E. Maxwell, 2017-02-13 Focused on The Holocaust in an Age of Genocide Remembering for the Future brings together the work of nearly 200 scholars from more than 30 countries and features cutting edge scholarship across a range of disciplines amounting to the most extensive and powerful reassessment of the Holocaust ever undertaken In addition to its international scope the project emphasizes that varied disciplinary perspectives are needed to analyze and to check the genocidal forces that have made the Twentieth century so deadly Historians and ethicists psychologists and literary scholars political scientists and theologians sociologists and philosophers all of these and more bring their expertise to bear on the Holocaust and genocide Their contributions show the new discoveries that are being made and the distinctive approaches that are being developed in the study of genocide focusing both on archival and oral evidence and on the religious and cultural representation of the Holocaust The Future of Protestant Religious Education in an Age of Globalization Hyun-Sook Kim, Richard R. Osmer, Friedrich Schweitzer, 2018 Global developments have come to shape our lives economically culturally and even religiously Young people growing up in a global age have to be prepared for living in this age Economic and technological demands are important but there also is a need for personal and social orientations that go beyond them This book provides both insights into the Protestant tradition in education as well as its meaning for the future of the church for society and for individual persons It follows an innovative approach by combining perspectives from three different contexts Germany with its important Protestant starting points in the Reformation the United States as a country which has been strongly influenced by Protestantism and South Korea with its comparatively young Protestant tradition The book is based on a combination of international points of view on transnational cooperation on comparative insights and on making constant reference to a global horizon Its presentations and ideas not only address globalization as a driving force behind many future developments but also demonstrate an exercise of global educational thinking Hyun Sook Kim is professor of Christian Education at the College of Theology Yonsei University Korea The Sunday at home (and overseas). , The Future of American Christianity Laurene Beth Bowers,2023-11-15 After decades of chasing revitalization programs and young pastors American congregations are still plummeting in membership Clergy are jumping ship New generations aren't interested Revitalization programs are a stop gap Author and pastor Laurene Bowers asserts that churches need to shift to new communities with a grassroots focus on love of neighbor developing relationships reforming belief and collaborating for justice The Future of American Christianity is against all odds a book of hopeful vision for the impact of Christian faith communities Sundays Two to Thirty-Four in Ordinary Time Adrien Nocent,2013 Adrien Nocent's The Liturgical Year was the first comprehensive commentary on the three year lectionary in its relation to the Sacramentary of Paul VI Now this extraordinary work of applied postconciliar liturgical scholarship has been revised and annotated by Paul Turner While taking care to keep Nocent's voice the revision provides a brief introduction placing the commentary in its historical context annotations that provide a bridge between Nocent's day and our own explanatory notes on history culture language and liturgy where needed gender inclusive language where appropriate liturgical texts that conform to The Roman Missal Third Edition As we celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of Vatican II's Sacrosanctum Concilium encounter again or for the first time the still fresh vibrant scholarship and pastoral wisdom of Adrien Nocent's The Liturgical Year back cover Nostalgia for the Future Luigi Nono,2018-10-23 Nostalgia for the Future is the first collection in English of the writings and interviews of Luigi Nono 1924 1990 One of the most prominent figures in the development of new music after World War II he is renowned for both his compositions and his utopian views His many essays and lectures reveal an artist at the center of the analytical theoretical critical and political debates of the time This selection of Nono's most significant essays articles and interviews covers his entire career 1948 1989 faithfully mirroring the interests orientations continuities and fractures of a complex and unique personality His writings illuminate his intensive involvements with theatre painting literature politics science and even mysticism Nono's words make vividly evident his restless quest for the transformative possibilities of a radical musical experience one that is at the same time profoundly engaged with its performers and spaces its audiences and its human and social motivations and ramifications Sermon Sketches for the Sundays of the Christian Year E. E. Bradford,1907 The Oxford History of Christian Worship Geoffrey Wainwright,2006 The Oxford History of Christian Worship is a comprehensive and authoritative history lavishly illustrated of the origins and development of Christian worship up to the present day Following contemporary methods in scholarship it attends to social and cultural contexts and examines the worship traditions from both Eastern and Western Christianity ancient and modern It offers a chronological account while encompassing spatial and confessional variations from Baptists in Britain to Roman Catholics in Mexico from Orthodox in Ethiopia to Pentecostals in the United States from Lutheran and Reformed in Europe to united churches in India and Australia The material details of Christian worship such as music architecture and the visual arts are considered within specific cultural contexts throughout the volume as well as studied thematically in individual chapters BOOK JACKET The Lectionary Commentary: Theological Exegesis for Sunday's Texts, The Second Readings: Roger E. Van Harn, 2005-09-09 Preaching pastors ministers and priests know how quickly Sundays come and go The Lectionary Commentary will not slow the pace of the weekly calendar but it will help assure that sermon preparation begins with a solid engagement with Scripture Designed to jump start the difficult task of sermon preparation this indispensable three volume work gathers exegetical essays on biblical texts from the Revised Common Lectionary Covering every Sunday of the three year liturgical cycle as well as Christmas Day Epiphany and Ascension Day the readings are arranged in canonical order so as to be of use to all preachers Seventy eight pastors priests and teachers from a variety of Christian traditions have contributed their insights to The Lectionary Commentary Designed to answer the question What does the preacher need to know about this text in order to preach a faithful sermon from it each of their essays closely considers its specific biblical text all the while remaining alert to the contemporary context in which the sermon will be spoken and heard The result is an invaluable resource that will aid in the difficult task of facilitating a meaningful encounter between Holy Scripture and our modern world This volume The Second Readings Acts and the Epistles provides exegetical commentary on the lectionary readings for the final selections from Act and for all of the New Testament Epistles from Romans to Revelation Also unique to this volume is an excellent essay by Colin E Gunton on preaching from the Letters Consulting Editors Richard A Burridge Thomas W Gillespie Colin E Gunton Robert W Jenson James F Kay Hughes Oliphant Old Fleming Rutledge Marguerite Shuster The Christian World Around the New Testament Richard Bauckham, 2017-10-20 Most of these thirty one essays by Richard Bauckham a well known New Testament scholar were first published between 1979 and 2015 in journals and multi authored volumes Two are previously unpublished and one has not been published in English before They range widely over early Christianity and early Christian literature in both the New Testament period and the early patristic period reflecting the author's conviction that the historical study of early Christianity should not isolate the New Testament literature from other early Christian sources such as the apostolic fathers and the Christian apocryphal literature Some of the essays develop further the themes of the author's books on aspects of the Gospels such as the intended audiences of the Gospels the way in which Gospel traditions were transmitted the role of the eyewitnesses in the origins of the Gospels the importance of Papias's evidence about Gospel traditions and the relationship between canonical and Gnostic Gospels Some of the essays relate to important persons such as Peter Barnabas Paul and James These include a full investigation of the evidence for the martyrdom of Peter and an attempt to locate the estate of Publius where Paul stayed on Malta There are studies of the Sabbath and the Lord's Day in both the New Testament and patristic periods There are studies that survey most of the main categories of apocryphal Christian literature including apocryphal Gospels and Acts and with a special focus on the non
