morning till night get up before daybreak carry water light fires cook and wash Besides this the sisters did her every imaginable injury they mocked her and emptied her peas and lentils into the ashes so that she was forced to sit and pick them out again In the evening when she had worked till she was weary she had no bed to go to but had to sleep by the fireside in the ashes And as on that account she always looked dusty and dirty they called her Cinderella It happened that the father was once going to the fair and he asked his two step daughters what he should bring back for them Beautiful dresses said one Pearls and jewels said the second And thou Cinderella said he what wilt thou have Father break off for me the first branch which knocks against your hat on your way home So he bought beautiful dresses pearls and jewels for his two step daughters and on his way home as he was riding through a green thicket a hazel twig brushed against him and knocked off his hat Then he broke off the branch and took it with him When he reached home he gave his step daughters the things which they had wished for and to Cinderella he gave the branch from the hazel bush Cinderella thanked him went to her mother's grave and planted the branch on it and wept so much that the tears fell down on it and watered it And it grew however and became a handsome tree Thrice a day Cinderella went and sat beneath it and wept and prayed and a little white bird always came on the tree and if Cinderella expressed a wish the bird threw down to her what she had wished for
