Mason, Matthew P. Thomson, 2022 Detailed exploration of an enigmatic manuscript containing the texts to hundreds of songs but no musical notation The medieval songbook known variously as trouv re manuscript C or the Bern Chansonnier Bern Burgerbibliothek Cod 389 is one of the most important witnesses to musical life in thirteenth century France Almost certainly copied in Metz it provides the texts to over five hundred Old French songs and is a unique insight into cultures of song making and copying on the linguistic and political borders between French and German speaking lands in the Middle Ages Notably the names of trouv res including several female poet musicians are found in its margins names which would be unknown today without this evidence However the manuscript has received relatively little scholarly attention partly because the songs musical staves remained empty for reasons now unknown and partly because of where it was copied This collection of essays is the first to consider C on its own terms and from a range of disciplinary perspectives including philology art history literary studies and musicology The contributors explore the process of creating the complex object that is a music manuscript examining the work of the scribes and artists who worked on C and questioning how scribes acquired and organised exemplars for copying The peculiarly Messine flavour of the repertoire and authors is also discussed with contributors showing that C frames the tradition of Old French song from a unique perspective As a whole the volume demonstrates how in this eastern hub of music and poetry poet composers readers and scribes interacted with the courtly song tradition in fascinating and unusual ways Country Music Culture Curtis W. Ellison, 1995 A social history of country music from the 1920s to the present discussing such artists as Patsy Cline Grandpa Jones Dolly Parton and Garth Brooks Singing in Zion Robert Cochran, 1999-01-01 This book is a lyrical scholarly exploration of the connection between one family s musical traditions and its rural community of Zion Arkansas In 1959 three Gilbert sisters Alma Helen and Phydella began compiling songs they remembered as their own and sending them to one another in letters Their tendency to center memory in sound rather than sight reveals an unusual musical birthright Robert Cochran has constructed a composite portrait of this family for whom music is the center of life He examines their lived experience as they anchor their history through song singing and the playing of musical instruments The Gilberts are wonderful exemplars of the mediation of oral tradition and when approached through their music they reveal themselves as remarkable individuals with an elaborate and firmly held sense of their unique identities A decade in the making Singing in Zion is written with a memoirist s sense of family history and an ethnographer s sense of the rich encounter of worlds This narrative has a seductive simplicity that conveys much of the Gilbert family s charm while at the same time establishing a broader framework that is firmly academic It will be enjoyed by all readers
