The Fantasist:

Imagination and Its Pathologies James Phillips, James Morley, 2003 Madness has been viewed as a faulty mix of ideas by a deranged and violent imagination This study shows that the relation of the imagination to pathological phenomena is as diverse and complex as the human condition The imagination has the power not only to react to the world but to recreate it

A Sleepwalker's Guide to Social Media Tony D. Sampson, 2020-07-09 Positing online users as sleepwalkers Tony Sampson offers an original and compelling approach for understanding how social media platforms produce subjectivities Drawing on a wide range of theorists including A N Whitehead and Gabriel Tarde he provides tools to track his sleepwalker through the dark refrain of social media a refrain that spreads through viral platform architectures with a staccato like repetition of shock events rumours conspiracy misinformation big lies search engine weaponization data voids populist strongmen immune system failures and far right hate speech Sampson's sleepwalker is not a pre programmed smartphone junkie but a conceptual personae intended to dodge capture by data doubles and lookalikes Sleepwalkers are neither asleep nor wide awake they are a liminal experimentation in collective mimicry and self other relationality Their purpose is to stir up a new kind of community that emerges from the potentialities of revolutionary contagion At a time in which social media is influencing more people than ever A Sleepwalker's Guide to Social Media is an important reference for students and scholars of media theory digital media and social media

Knowledge and Belief Frederick F. Schmitt, 2006-11-22 Knowledge from Plato onwards has been considered in relation to justified belief Current debate has centred around the nature of the justification and whether justified belief can be considered an internal or external matter Epistemological internalists argue that the subject must be able to reflect upon a belief to complete the process of justification The externalists on the other hand claim that it is only necessary to consider whether the belief is reliably formed and argue that the ability to know by reflection is not required for a justified belief In the historical section of this book the three most important epistemologists Plato Descartes and Hume as well as the ancient epistemologies of the stoics Academics and Pyrrhonians are considered In reconsidering the history of epistemology the author is led to argue against the view that internalism is historically dominant His critique of internalism is then developed into a sustained argument against many of its forms and he goes on to defend an externalist reliabilist epistemology

Forgetfulness occurs when those who have been long inured to civilized order can no longer remember a time in which they had to wonder whether their crops would grow to maturity without being stolen or their children sold into slavery by a victorious foe They forget that in time of danger in the face of the enemy they must trust and confide in each other or perish They forget in short that there has ever been a category of human experience called the enemy That before 9 11 was what had happened to us The very concept of the enemy had been banished from our moral and political vocabulary An enemy was just a friend we hadn t done enough for yet Or perhaps there had been a misunderstanding or an oversight on our part something that we could correct Our first task is therefore to try to grasp what the concept of the enemy really means The enemy is someone who is willing to die in order to kill you And while it is true that the enemy always hates us for a reason it is his reason and not ours So begins Civilization and Its Enemies an extraordinary tour de force by America s reigning philosopher of 9 11 Lee Harris What Francis Fukuyama did for the end of the Cold War Lee Harris has now done for the next great conflict the war between the civilized world and the international terrorists who wish to destroy it Each major turning point in our history has produced one great thinker who has been able to step back from petty disagreements and see the bigger picture and Lee Harris has emerged as that man for our time He is the one who has helped make sense of the terrorists fantasies and who forces us most strongly to confront the fact that our enemy for the first time in centuries refuses to play by any of our rules or to think in any of our categories We are all naturally reluctant to face a true enemy Most of us cannot give up the myth that tolerance is the greatest of virtues and that we can somehow convert the enemy to our beliefs Yet as Harris s brilliant tour through the stages of civilization demonstrates from Sparta to the French Revolution to the present civilization depends upon brute force properly wielded by a sovereign Today only America can play the role of sovereign on the world stage by the use of force when necessary Lee Harris s articles have been hailed by thinkers from across the spectrum His message is an enduring one that will change the way readers think about the war with Iraq about terrorism and about our future Prostitution, Power and Freedom Julia O'Connell Davidson, 2013-06-21 Prostitution is still the subject of intense controversy among feminists but theoretical and political analyses are often only loosely grounded in empirical research This book offers new perspectives on prostitution based on wide ranging research in nine countries and extensive work with prostitute users

Social Dreaming Elaine Ostry, 2013-11-05 Dickens was known for his incredible imagination and fiery social protest In Social Dreaming Elaine Ostry examines how these two qualities are linked through Dickens's use of the fairy tale a genre that infuses his work To many Victorians the fairy tale was not childish it promoted the imagination and fancy in a materialistic utilitarian world It was a way of criticizing society so that everyone could understand Like Charles Perrault and the Brothers Grimm Dickens used the fairy tale to promote his ideology In this first book length study of Dickens's use of the fairy tale as a social tool Elaine Ostry applies exciting new criticism by Jack Zipes and Maria Tatar among others that examines the fairy tale in a socio historical light to Dickens's major works but also his periodicals the most popular middle class publications in Victorian times

In Praise of Desire Nomy Arpaly, Timothy Schroeder, 2014 Joining the ancient debate over the roles of reason and appetite in the moral mind In Praise of Desire takes the side of appetite The book makes the claim that acting for moral reasons acting in a praiseworthy manner and acting out of virtue amount to nothing more than acting out of intrinsic desires for the right or the good correctly conceived In Praise of Desire shows that a desire centered moral psychology can be richer than philosophers commonly think accommodating the full complexity of moral life

Love's Shadow Paul A. Bové, 2021-01-12 A case for literary critics and other humanists to stop wallowing in their aestheticized helplessness and instead turn to poetry comedy and love Literary criticism is an agent of despair and its poster child is Walter Benjamin Critics have spent decades stewing in his melancholy What if instead we dared to love poetry to choose comedy over Hamlet's tragedy or to pursue romance over Benjamin's suicide on the edge of France of Europe and of civilization itself Paul A Bové challenges young lit critters to throw away their shades and let the sun shine in Love's Shadow is his three step manifesto for a new literary criticism that risks sentimentality and melodrama and eschews self consciousness The first step is to choose poetry There has been since the time of Plato a battle between philosophy and poetry Philosophy has championed misogyny while poetry has championed women like Shakespeare's Rosalind Philosophy is ever so stringent try instead the sober cheerfulness of Wallace Stevens Bové's second step is to choose the essay He praises Benjamin's great friend and sometime antagonist Theodor Adorno who gloried in writing essays not dissertations and treatises The third step is to choose love If you want a Baroque hero make that hero Rembrandt who brought lovers to life in his paintings Putting aside passivity and cynicism would amount to a revolution in literary studies Bové seeks nothing less and he has a program for achieving it
