The Feminist Question Feminist Theology In The Light Of Christian Tradition:

The Feminist Question Francis Martin, 2011-10-14 The first work to undertake a theological critique of Christian feminism as a whole this book seeks to bring traditional faith and the feminist position into a deeper dialogue Part One presents an overview of the historical issues raised by feminist theology Part Two compares key feminist theological presuppositions to the prophetic interpretation of reality found in the biblical tradition The Feminist Question Francis Martin, 1994 The first work to undertake a theological critique of Christian feminism as a whole this book seeks to bring traditional faith and the feminist position into a deeper dialogue Part One presents an overview of the historical issues raised by feminist theology Part Two compares key feminist theological presuppositions to the prophetic interpretation of reality found in the biblical tradition The New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie, 2004-06-01 It is hard to over estimate the challenge that feminism poses to Roman Catholicism Pope John Paul II's call for a new feminism has led to the development of a Catholic theological response to the so called old feminism The New Catholic Feminism sets up a dramatic encounter between the orthodox Catholic establishment and contemporary critical theory including feminist theology and philosophy queer theory and French psycholinguistics in order to explore fundamental questions about human identity personhood and gender From the naked bodies of Eden to the gay nuptials of liturgy it argues that the strange and volatile world of Catholic sexual symbolism cannot be tamed to meet the ideological agendas of either feminist theology or conservative Catholicism Only through a radical re evaluation of the sacramental significance of the sexed human body might the Catholic Church provide a redemptive response to the sexual politics of contemporary society La Teología Mujerista: A Christian Minister Examines the Mujerista Theology of Ada María Isasi-Díaz Gary Edwin Loy, 2009-01-08 Mujerista theology has been in existence for at least twodecades It has come about because there is a perceived need for a theology that addressed the needs of Latin American women Yet mujerista theology as with any other theology has problems This book examines those problems from a conservative Christian perspective and offers the reader some things to ponder when thinking about mujerista theology and its consequences This book assists readers in gaining a more open yet cautious understanding of mujerista theology its place at the table of contemporary and feminist theology and its challenges and consequences for the Church of Jesus Christ and Christian theology in the 21st century New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie, 2006 Having confronted the conflict between feminism and the Vatican and Pope Benedict XVI Beattie proposes a new theological approach to the encounter between feminism and Catholicism for the twenty first century Jacket The Nuptial Mystery Angelo Scola, 2005-05-12 Translated by Michelle K Borrás The idea of love pervades our society yet it is nearly impossible to answer the question What is love especially as we witness the divorce of love from sexuality and of sexuality from procreation Aware that many people today are skeptical about marriage Angelo Cardinal Scola nevertheless suggests that only in the category of nuptial mystery do we find a way to adequately describe the phenomenon of love A bright new leader in the Catholic Church Cardinal Scola argues that the male female relationship lies near the heart of what it means to bear the image of God Scola's book explores the essential sexual differences that both separate and unite men and women and it shows how men and women can realize their purpose in marriage or celibacy Conversant with papal teaching and Catholic writers from Aquinas to von Balthasar Cardinal Scola writes with a deep regard for marriage and the family His Nuptial Mystery will leave readers with a thoroughly Christian appreciation for incarnate love

God's Mother, Eve's Advocate Tina Beattie, 2002-12-01 Tina Beattie has written a stunning book on the theology of woman Her stated objective is to discern the place of the female body in the Christian story of salvation and she has done so from the very heart of Christian stylisations of the female the figures of Mary and Eve Beattie has pursued her subject with the aid of French psychoanalytic feminism these writers are preoccupied as is Catholic theology with questions of language and symbolism But she deliberately puts herself at odds with neo orthodoxy and feminist liberal theology she believes that theologians like von Balthasar depart from the best Patristic tradition of Marian theology with disastrous effect Nor does she offer any solace to the Marina Warners of this world in a book which is strong in defence of classical Marian theology She defends with passion and theological insight not only the Virgin Birth the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption but also the perpetual virginity of Mary Virginal desire according to Beattie need not be seen negatively but as an affirmation of the integrity of women's desire before God in a way not dependent on the phallus nor reducible to genitality

The Artist and the Trinity Christine M Fletcher, 2014-03-27 The Artist and the Trinity aims to create a Christian theology of work based on Dorothy L Sayers analogy of the Trinity to the process of artistic creation Sayers analogy gives us an account of the person that does not collapse into the atomism of the individual of modern liberal capitalism but is fully relational By putting Sayers into dialogue with Alasdair MacIntyre the book develops a fully Trinitarian theology of work that accounts for the interdependence of human beings and for the ethical requirements of caring for the weak the young and the old in a way that is gender neutral

Mary Daly's (1928-2010) Theological Method of Ontolinguistic Hermeneutics Antonina Wozna, 2025-03-03 Ontolinguistics theological Hermeneutics sources and Daly's proposal analyses the method used by Mary Daly her constructive criticism of the traditional theological method and her proposal to combine the best insights of the Christian tradition hermeneutic philosophy and feminist theology The book brings together the inputs of a pioneer in feminist theology Mary Daly on the much debated issue of theology as method This book along with Antonina Wozna's Theological hermeneutics and Daly's verification process are important reads for scholars working in the intersection of theology gender and feminism

The Concept of Woman Prudence Allen, 1997 The culmination of a lifetime's scholarly work this pioneering study by Sister Prudence Allen traces the concept of woman in relation to man in Western thought from ancient times to the present Volume I uncovers four general categories of questions asked by philosophers for two thousand years These are the categories of opposites of generation of wisdom and of virtue Sister Prudence Allen traces several recurring strands of sexual and gender identity within this period Ultimately she shows the paradoxical influence of Aristotle on the question of woman and on a philosophical understanding of sexual complementarity Supplemented throughout with helpful charts diagrams and illustrations this volume will be an important resource for scholars and students in the fields of women's studies philosophy history theology literary studies and political science In Volume 2 Sister Prudence Allen explores claims about sex and gender identity in the works of over fifty philosophers both men and women in the late medieval and early Renaissance periods Touching on the thought of every philosopher who considered sex or gender identity between A D 1250 and 1500 The Concept of Woman provides the analytical categories necessary for situating contemporary discussion of women in relation to men Adding to the accessibility of this fine discussion are informative illustrations helpful summary charts and extracts of original source material some not previously available in English In her third and final volume Allen covers the years 1500 2015 continuing her chronological approach to individual authors and also offering systematic arguments to defend certain philosophical positions over against others

The Place of Christ in Liturgical Prayer Bryan D. Spinks, 2008 Proceeding from Josef A Jungmann's groundbreaking book of the same title this volume gathers new work from fifteen renowned scholars on christological and trinitarian themes in prayer and worship Eastern and Western traditions Catholic and Protestant ancient and contemporary are all represented in this record of the 2005 meeting of the Yale Institute of Sacred Music Collectively these practitioners and theologians from their varied settings grapple with the competing ideas and expressions of christological and trinitarian doctrine in meaningful liturgy

Women in Christ Michele M. Schumacher, 2004 The challenge of promoting the new feminism has barely been addressed since it was first launched by Pope John Paul II in his 1995 encyclical Evangelium vitae The thirteen contributors in this book all outstanding international scholars take up this task together laying the necessary theoretical foundation for the new feminism These chapters articulate an integral philosophical and theological understanding of persons that moves beyond patriarchy on the one hand and traditional feminism on the other Central to the new perspective offered here is the biblical revelation of the human person man and woman in Christ a vision that directs women beyond the male standard against which they have too often been measured Far from constraining women to an eternal essence the dynamic view presented here encourages each woman to realize herself in perfect Christian freedom

Religion, Gender and Masculinities in Africa. Essays in Honour of Ezra Chitando Manyonganise, Molly, Gunda, Masiiwa R., Naicker, Linda,

Knowing God by Name Cherith Fee Nordling, 2010 Does women's experience matter for theological inquiry Elizabeth Johnson's premise is that it does Knowing God by name is a critical assessment and evaluation of this approach bringing Johnson into conversation with Catholic and feminist colleagues and with Karl Barth whose Trinitarian theology of experience maintains the divine creaturely distinction she challenges P 4 cover

Intercultural Theology Mark J. Cartledge, David Cheetham, 2012-11-29 Intercultural Theology offers a set of groundbreaking essays that describe the nature of intercultural theology as a domain of theology that pays particular attention to the identity of non western forms of Christianity in dialogue with western forms It is theological discourse engaged in multi disciplinary dialogue and therefore uses the insights from historical socio cultural inter religious and empirical studies Intercultural theology is a development from previous discussions within mission studies contextual theology studies in world Christianity and Third World theology Eve: Accused or Acquitted? Joseph

Abraham,2007-01-01 Feminist interpretation has become one of the important text centered literary methods in biblical interpretation It challenges the authority canonicity veracity and normativity of the biblical text due to its patriarchal androcentric orientation Feminist readers ask how far the patriarchal texts in the Bible can be authoritative and normative in articulating the theology and practices of the church The author responds to these important questions both sympathetically and critically and considers whether they might have universal significance He provides a lucid and thorough examination of the hermeneutical methodologies and presuppositions that lie behind many of the leading proponents of feminist readings of the Old Testament The author asks whether Eve is unnecessarily accused by the traditional readers or is completely liberated by modern feminist readers Berkouwer and Catholicism Eduardo Echeverria,2013-04-28 Gerrit Cornelis Berkouwer

1903 1996 was a great master of dogmatic and ecumenical theology He was a Reformed Protestant thinker with roots in Dutch neo Calvinism a holder of the Chair in Dogmatics 1945 1974 at the Free University Amsterdam a position previously held by his two illustrious neo Calvinist predecessors Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854 1921

Echeverria provides a much needed in depth analysis and critique of his theology particularly his evolving relationship with Catholicism in light of Vatican II His contention is that Berkouwer s careful and nuanced examination of Catholic theology as well as possible responses to his critiques offers important clues for the contemporary ecumenical project Crisis and

Communion John R. Mabry,2005 Every time the church has encountered crises its understanding and performance of the Eucharist has shifted to help it meet that crisis This book documents those shifts and asks the important question what crisis is the church facing today and how must the Eucharist change again to meet the challenge Feminism, Law, and Religion

Marie Failinger,Elizabeth Schiltz,Susan J. Stabile,2016-04-15 With contributions from some of the most prominent voices writing on gender law and religion today this book illuminates some of the conflicts at the intersection of feminism theology and law It examines a range of themes from the viewpoint of identifiable traditions such as Judaism Christianity Islam and Buddhism from a theoretical and practical perspective Among the themes discussed are the cross over between religious and secular values and assumptions in the search for a just jurisprudence for women the application of theological insights from religious traditions to legal issues at the core of feminist work feminist legal readings of scriptural texts on women s rights and the place that religious law has assigned to women in ecclesiastic life Feminists of faith face challenges from many sides patriarchal remnants in their own tradition dismissal of their faith commitments by secular feminists and balancing the conflicting loyalties of their lives The book will be essential reading for legal and religious academics and students working in the area of gender and law or law and religion Gender and Development Emily Awino Onyango, 2018-10-31 For a long time African history has been dominated by western perspectives through predominantly male accounts of colonial governments and missionaries In contrast Dr Emily Onyango provides an African history of mission education development and women's roles in Kenya Based on archival research and interviews of primary sources this book explores the relationship of these areas of history with each other focusing on the Luo culture and the period of 1895 to 2000 With the pre colonial African context as the foundation for understanding and writing history Dr Onyango uses gender to analyze the role of Christian missionaries in the development of women's education and their position in Kenyan society The result of this well researched study is not only a challenge to the traditional understanding of history but also a counternarrative to the common view that to be liberated African women must disregard Christianity Rather she looks at the importance Christianity plays in helping women establish themselves economically politically and socially in Kenyan society This research is a vital contribution to women's history and the history of Christianity in Africa
