The Fiction Of John Fowles A Myth For Our Time:

The Fiction of John Fowles Carol M. Barnum, 1988      The Recurrent Green Universe of John Fowles Thomas M. Wilson, 2006-01-01 Ecocriticism is the emerging academic field which explores nature writing and ecological themes in all literature Thomas M Wilson s book is the first to consider the work of one of the most critically acclaimed and generally popular post war English writers from an ecocritical perspective Fowles is best known as a novelist and author of such works as The Magus The French Lieutenant s Woman and Daniel Martin Going beyond the fiction this book also examines the many profound reflections on the natural world found in his essays poems and his recently published Journals John Fowles writings have cast light on the ways we perceive the natural world from curious scientific observer to Wordsworthian lover of natural places as well as many other important and at this time crucial themes This volume will be of interest to critics and readers of contemporary fiction but most of all to anyone curious about their place in the recurrent green universe that is our earth

John Fowles Brooke Lenz, 2008 Best known as the author of The French Lieutenant s Woman and The Magus John Fowles achieved both critical and popular success as a writer of profound and provocative fiction In this innovative new study Brooke Lenz reconsiders Fowles controversial contributions to feminist thought Combining literary criticism and feminist standpoint theory John Fowles Visionary and Voyeur examines the problems that women readers and feminist critics encounter in Fowles frequently voyeuristic fiction Over the course of his career this book argues Fowles progressively created women characters who subvert voyeuristic exploitation and who author alternative narratives through which they can understand their experiences cope with oppressive dominant systems and envision more authentic and just communities Especially in the later novels Fowles women characters offer progressive alternative approaches to self awareness interpersonal relationships and social reform despite Fowles problematic idealization of women and even his self professed cruelty to the women in his own life This volume will be of interest to critics and readers of contemporary fiction but most of all to men and women who seek a progressive inclusive feminism

John Fowles James Acheson, 2013-10-01 This vibrant collection of original essays sheds new light on all of Fowles writings with a special focus on The French Lieutenant s Woman as the most widely studied of Fowles works The impressive cast of contributors offers an outstanding range of expertise on Fowles providing fresh reassessments and new perspectives

Fowles's The French Lieutenant's Woman William Stephenson, 2007-12-25 The ideal companion to the text and the film adaptation      Historical Romance Fiction Lisa Fletcher, 2016-04-22 The first book length study of romance novels to focus on issues of sexuality rather than gender Historical Romance Fiction moves the ongoing debate about the value and appeal of heterosexual romance onto new ground testing the claims of cutting edge critical theorists on everything from popular classics by Georgette Heyer to recent bodice rippers to historical fiction by John Fowles and A S Byatt Beginning with her nomination of I love you as the romance novel s defining speech act Lisa Fletcher engages closely with speech act theory and recent studies of performativity The range of texts serves to illustrate Fletcher's definition of historical romance as a fictional mode dependent on the force and familiarity of the speech act I love you and permits Fletcher to provide a detailed account of the genre's history and development in both its popular and literary manifestations Written from a feminist and anti homophobic perspective Fletcher's subtle arguments about the romantic speech act serve to demonstrate the genre's dependence on repetition Romance can only quote and the shaky ground on which the romance's heterosexual premise rests Her exploration of the subgenre of cross dressing novels is especially revealing in this regard With its deft mix of theoretical arguments and suggestive close readings Fletcher's book will appeal to specialists in genre speech act and performativity theory and gender studies Post-Jungian

Criticism James S. Bauman, Tita French Bauman, George H. Jensen, 2004-01-01 Rereads Jung in light of contemporary theoretical concerns and offers a variety of examples of post Jungian literary and cultural criticism Handbook of the English Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Christoph Reinfandt, 2017-06-12 The Handbook systematically charts the trajectory of the English novel from its emergence as the foremost literary genre in the early twentieth century to its early twenty first century status of eccentric eminence in new media environments Systematic chapters address The English Novel as a Distinctly Modern Genre The Novel in the Economy Genres Gender performativity masculinities feminism queer and The Burden of Representation class and ethnicity Extended contextualized close readings of more than twenty key texts from Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness 1899 to Tom McCarthy's Satin Island 2015 supplement the systematic approach and encourage future research by providing overviews of reception and theoretical perspectives Understanding John Fowles Thomas C. Foster, 1994 Bestselling literature author Thomas C Foster writes in an informal and engaging style to show how a novel's structure point of view narrative voice chapter construction character emblems and even the first sentence serve to create meaning and form the special literary language of the novel Narcissus from Rubble:

Competing Models of Character in Contemporary British and American Fiction Raper, Julius Rowan, 1992

Narrating the Past A. Robinson, 2011-10-04 In recent years controversy has surrounded the narrative turn in history and the historical turn in fiction This book clarifies what is at stake tracing connections between historiography and life writing arguing that the challenges posed in representing the past illuminate issues which are central to all literary narrative

Review of Contemporary Fiction, 1990 The Heritage of Hermes Alexandra Lember, Alexandra Lember-Heidenreich, 2004 Splattered Ink Sarah E Whitney, 2016-08-01 In depth and refreshingly readable Splattered Ink is a bold analysis of postfeminist gothic a literary genre that continues to jar readers reject happy endings and find powerful new ways to talk about violence against women Sarah E Whitney explores the genre's challenge to postfeminist assumptions of women's equality and empowerment The authors she examines Patricia Cornwell Jodi Picoult Susanna Moore Sapphire and Alice Sebold construct narratives around socially invisible and physically broken protagonists who directly experience consequences of women's ongoing disempowerment Their works ask readers to inhabit women's suffering and to face the uncomfortable all too denied fact that today's women must navigate lives fraught with risk Whitney's analysis places the authors within a female gothic tradition that has long given voice to women's fears of their own powerlessness But she also reveals the paradox that allows the genre to powerfully critique postfeminism's often sunshiny outlook while uneasily coexisting within the same universe

John Fowles William Stephenson, 2003 William Stephenson's 2003 critical study explores the hitherto overlooked role of ethnicity in John Fowles's novels and his idiosyncratic treatment of the past in The French Lieutenant's Woman 1969 and A Maggot 1985

Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Ralph Ellison-Jamake Highwater, 2000 John Fowles James R. Aubrey, 1991-11-21 John Fowles best known as the author of The French Lieutenant's Woman has also written numerous other works fiction as well as nonfiction This unique reference book by James R. Aubrey lists all of Fowles's writings for the first time It also provides a detailed biography criticism of his work from the perspective of various disciplines explanatory notes a census of characters and a comprehensive bibliography Aubrey begins with a biography of Fowles based on information from his writings published and personal interviews and correspondence This section also includes several photographs The next section discusses Fowles's lesser known nonfiction work by genre philosophy autobiography biography translations book reviews literary and visual art criticism history and social commentary Aubrey then pulls together the fiction of John Fowles in the order it was published For each novel or short story Aubrey provides a description of the circumstances and process of composition summarization discussion of its public reception and critiques of the film television or stage adaptations Critical approaches to Fowles's fiction are covered next biographical psychological post structuralist historicist feminist reader response and formalist The notes census of characters and extensive bibliography complete this reference companion Aubrey's book will be useful for those studying Fowles and his work and will be an excellent addition to public and academic libraries

The Postmodern Fantastic in Contemporary British Fiction Martin Horstkotte, 2004 This study looks at the complex relationship between postmodernism and the fantastic in contemporary British fiction and shows that a new type of the fantastic arises in postmodernism Arguing against interpretations that view postmodernism as inherently fantastic it seeks to define the postmodern fantastic as a narrative mode that is influenced by certain traits both of the traditional fantastic and of literary postmodernism but does not simply conflate both In the first theoretical part a number of theories of the fantastic and of postmodernism are used to set the fantastic apart from other non mimetic forms of literature and to create a model of the postmodern fantastic that postulates the totalisation of the fantastic in postmodernism In the second part of this study this model is applied to a number of contemporary British texts which are particularly susceptible to this form of the fantastic due to several characteristics such as their muted kind of postmodernism and their frequent construction of parallel worlds The analysis of these texts focuses on four thematic fields of the postmodern fantastic the figure of the other as defined by Bernhard Waldenfels time and history text and textuality and the development of the Todorovian pure fantastic Finally the question of the death of the fantastic in postmodernism is examined      Magill's Survey of World Literature Frank Northern Magill, 1993 A comprehensive survey of classic world literature with an emphasis on history criticism and mini biographies of noted authors      A.S. Byatt and the Heliotropic Imagination Jane Campbell, 2004-05-26 A S Byatt's novel Possession A Romance attracted international acclaim in 1990 winning both the Booker Prize and the Irish Times Aer Lingus International Fiction Prize In her long and eminent career Byatt has steadily published both fiction and non fiction the latest of which has not until now been given full critical consideration Enter Jane Campbell's new book A S Byatt and the Heliotropic Imagination a comprehensive critical reading of Byatt's fiction from The Shadow of the Sun and The Game published in the 1960s to A Whistling Woman 2002 The book begins with an overview of Byatt's writing and drawing on her interviews and essays sets forth the critical principles that inform the novelist's work Following this introduction a chronologically structured account of the novels and short stories traces Byatt's literary development As well as exploring the ways in which Byatt has successfully negotiated a path between twentieth century realism and postmodern experiment Campbell employs a critical perspective appropriate to the author's individualistic feminist stance stressing the breadth of Byatt's intellectual concerns and her insistence on placing her female characters in a living changing context of ideas and experience especially in their search for creative voice
