The Fifth Child:

The Fifth Child Doris Lessing, 2010-11-17 Doris Lessing's contemporary gothic horror story centered on the birth of a baby who seems less than human probes society's unwillingness to recognize its own brutality. Harriet and David Lovatt, parents of four children, have created an idyll of domestic bliss in defiance of the social trends of late 1960s England. While around them crime and unrest surge, the Lovatts are certain that their old-fashioned contentment can protect them from the world outside until the birth of their fifth baby. Gruesomely goblin-like in appearance, insatiably hungry, abnormally strong, and violent, Ben has nothing innocent or infant-like about him. As he grows older and more terrifying, Harriet finds she cannot love him. David cannot bring himself to touch him, and their four older children are afraid of him. Understanding that he will never be accepted anywhere, Harriet and David are torn between their instincts as parents and their shocked reaction to this fierce and unlovable child whose existence shatters their belief in a benign world.

The Fifth Child Doris Lessing, 1983      The fifth child Doris Lessing, 1984      The Fifth Child Doris Lessing, 1989      Ben, In the World Doris Lessing, 2009-10-13 Far from resting on her laurels, Lessing goes from strength to strength. Ben's half-human ignorance, paranoia, and rage are magnificently imagined and vividly present on every page. The condition of the outsider has hardly ever before in fiction been portrayed with such raw power and righteous anger. Few, if any living writers, can have explored so many forbidding fictional worlds with such passion and conviction. Kirkus Reviews. The poignant and tragic sequel to Doris Lessing's bestselling novel THE FIFTH CHILD. At eighteen, Ben is in the world but not of it. He is too large, too awkward, too inhumanly made. Now estranged from his family, he must find his own path in life. From London and the south of France to Brazil and the mountains of the Andes, Ben is tossed about in a tumultuous search for his people, a reason for his being. How the world receives him and he fares in it will horrify and captivate until the novel's dramatic finale.

The Fifth Child James Courage, 1948      Theme Parks, Rainforests and Sprouting Wastelands, 2022-05-16 This lively and fascinating new collection of European essays on contemporary Anglophone fiction has arisen out of the ESSE 3 Conference which was held in Glasgow in September 1995. The contributors live and work in University English Departments in Bulgaria, Croatia, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, The Netherlands, Portugal, and Spain, as well as in the United Kingdom itself. Essays on general theoretical aspects of the subject head and conclude the collection, and there are also essays on individual writers or groups of writers such as John Fowles, A. S. Byatt, Charles Palliser, Peter Ackroyd, William Golding, Doris Lessing, Daphne du Maurier, Angela Carter, and Christina Stead. The performative aspect of the subject matter of these essays is balanced by a locational aspect including utopian and dystopian writing in authors as diverse as Michael Crichton Jenny Diski and Salman Rushdie and the travel literature of Bruce Chatwin These essays show theoretical alertness but no single theoretical position is privileged The aim of the collection is to provide an indication of the range of work being carried out throughout European academe on Anglophone mainly British writing today NOVELS FOR STUDENTS

CENGAGE LEARNING. GALE,2016 Textual Mothers/Maternal Texts Elizabeth Podnieks,Andrea O'Reilly,2011-04-07

Textual Mothers Maternal Texts focuses on mothers as subjects and as writers who produce auto biography fiction and poetry about maternity International contributors examine the mother without child with child and in her multiple identities as grandmother mother and daughter The collection examines how authors use textual spaces to accept negotiate resist or challenge traditional conceptions of mothering and maternal roles and how these texts offer alternative practices and visions for mothers Further it illuminates how textual representations both reflect and help to define or re shape the realities of women and families by examining how mothering and being a mother are political personal and creative narratives unfolding within both the pages of a book and the spaces of a life The range of chapters maps a shift from the daughter centric stories that have dominated the maternal tradition to the matrilineal and matrifocal perspectives that have emerged over the last few decades as the mother's voice moved from silence to speech Contributors make aesthetic cultural and political claims and critiques about mothering and motherhood illuminating in new and diverse ways how authors and the protagonists of the texts read their own maternal identities as well as the maternal scripts of their families cultures and nations in their quest for self knowledge agency and artistic expression Doris Lessing Bootheina Majoul,2016-04-26

Doris Lessing is a writer for all times she is a historiographer and a transnational translational mediator between the East and the West This volume provides a collection of articles analysing Doris Lessing's literature The first part entitled Lessing's World of Words offers a broad vision of the writer's novels it introduces her many genres and sheds light on her literary affiliations This is followed by Lessing's Other Spaces which dives into the novelist's imaginary and spiritual universes The final part Intersections Lessing and Other Writers establishes an analogy between Lessing's texts and Ahlem Mustaghanemi's Memory in the Flesh Atiq Rahimi's Earth and Ashes and Salman Rushdie's Shame You Shall Tell Your Children Liora Gubkin,2007-11-05

Passover is among the most widely observed holidays for American Jews During this festival of redemption Jewish families retell the biblical story of Exodus using a ritual book known as a haggadah often weaving modern tales of oppression through the biblical narrative References to the Holocaust are some of the most common additions to contemporary haggadot However the parallel between ancient and modern oppression which seems obvious to some raises troubling questions for many others Is it possible to find any redemptive meaning in the Nazi genocide Are we adding value to this unforgivable moment in history Liora Gubkin critiques commemorations that violate memory by erasing the value of everyday life that was lost and collapse the diversity of responses both during the Shoah and afterward She recounts oral testimonies from Holocaust survivors cites references to the holiday in popular American culture and analyzes examples of actual haggadot. Ultimately Gubkin concludes that it is possible and important to make a space for Holocaust commemoration all the time recognizing that haggadot must be constantly revisited and performed. Doris Lessing Alice Ridout, Susan Watkins, 2011-10-20 Despite winning the Nobel Prize for Literature Doris Lessing has received relatively little critical attention. One of the reasons for this is that Lessing has spent much of her lifetime and her long published writing career crossing both national and ideological borders. This essay collection reflects and explores the incredible variety of Lessing's border crossings and positions her writing in its various social and cultural contexts. Lessing crosses literal national borders in her life and work but more controversial have been her crossings of genre borders into sci fi and space fiction and her crossing of ideological borders such as moving into and out of the Communist Party and from a colonial into a post colonial world. This timely collection also considers a number of the most interesting recent critical and theoretical approaches to Lessing's writing including work on maternity and abjection in relation to The Fifth Child and The Grass is Singing, eco criticism in Lessing's Ifraikan novels and postcolonial re writings of landscape in her African Stories. An Extended Literary Evocation of South Africa: Interpreting and Neo-Humanism in Doris Lessing's Fiction Divya, Sajja, Architecture in Contemporary Literature Nevnihal Erdoğan, Hikmet Temel Akarsu, 2023-11-12 Architecture in Contemporary Literature artfully weaves the tapestry of architecture with the eloquence of modern literary masterpieces. In this follow up to their earlier work on architecture in fictional literature the editors have carefully selected 31 significant works from contemporary world literature offering a fresh educational approach to literary critique and architecture. This exploration allows readers to perceive life through the lens of architectural backgrounds. Nature, society, humans and cities come to life through these chosen literary gems. Extensive collaboration with architects, intellectuals, academics, writers and thinkers culminates in the selection of influential works that guide present day architectural perspectives and aspirations. The book promises to be a valuable reference for undergraduate and graduate students in architecture, interior architecture, urban planning, fine arts, humanities, social sciences and various design disciplines. Yet its appeal also extends to anyone with an appreciation for urban life and a desire for a broader understanding of the intricacies of architecture. Whether you're an expert in design, culture, art, sociology or literature or simply an avid learner, Architecture in Contemporary Literature is a compelling exploration that deserves a prominent place on your bookshelf. Engage with its pages and immerse yourself in the fusion of architectural insight and literary artistry. Amazonia Ernie Palamarek, 2003-02-13 Oi Amigo Experience the amazing mighty Amazon. It is the steamy setting for this colourful South American tale of an old family company dealing in jungle medicinal plants. The venerable firm is corrupted by lust, corporate greed, gratuitous affluence, shady characters and duplicitous transactions. Genetic tinkering and environmental destruction run amuck amidst the grinding subsistence life of the Amazon natives.
