Hawthorne, Sculpture, and the Question of American Art Deanna Fernie,2016-12-05 Deanna Fernie analyzes the significance of sculpture in Hawthorne s fiction through the recurring motif of the fragment in its double guise as ruin and project Her book casts new light on Hawthorne s memorable ruined and unfinished images from the rough hewn figurehead of Drowne s Wooden Image 1844 to the tattered letter A in the unfinished loft of the Custom House in The Scarlet Letter 1850 and the unfinished bust of Donatello in The Marble Faun 1860 Fernie shows how the tension between the formed and unformed enabled Hawthorne to interrogate the origins and the distinctive possibilities of art in America in relation to established European models At the same time she suggests that sculpture challenged and provoked Hawthorne s shaping of his own specifically literary art stimulating him to develop its capacities for expressing irresolution and change Fernie establishes the intellectual contexts for her study through a discussion of sculpture and fragmentary form as revealed in American British and Continental thought Her book will be an important text not only for American literature scholars but also for anyone interested in British and Continental Romanticism and the intersections of art and literature Workplace Bullying Dorothy Suskind,2023-06-20 A toolkit for managers wanting to create inclusive cultures by addressing toxic behaviors that stagnate innovation fracture work communities and drive out top employees and as a lifeline for employees suffering through workplace abuse Workplace Bullying Finding Your Way to Big Tent Belonging is a lifeline for people who

Andrew Hemingway,2023-10-19 When Zoom worship emerged in Britain during the COVID lockdown of 2020 Christians quickly turned to an art form a form of theater to deliver their worship It was a quest for immanence the very thing the Reformation dealt with by the elevation of transcendence What an intriguing thought Could John Calvin with his dictum regarding piety have practiced Zoom worship Served as he was with the principle that the finite cannot contain the infinite we must admit it looks very unlikely At least in this Calvin saw eye to eye with Erasmus but what of Luther He may have been a comfortable Zoom worshiper with his views that Religious artworks are neither here nor there and We may have them or not as we please Little did the church realize that it would be a step back into the past because what you permit you promote The desire to use images was much more sinister than in Medieval times as these were now images of ourselves Regardless of the age the image reigns supreme What had caused the demise Was it bereavement It could not be bereavement of God rather it was the loss of the social the bereavement of one another The need for one another had forced the hand of Christians to turn to a practice completely untested Zoom worship was born the genie is out and will never go back in But in the face of the now acceptable force of contemporary narcissism who cares
