The First A Musical Frenchs Musical Library:

Catalogue of the Universal Circulating Musical Library, including the Supplements of 1855 & 1856, 1857 French Music in the Early Sixteenth Century Peter Woetmann Christoffersen, 1994 A description reconstruction and discussion of the repertory of an exceptional musical source the French manuscript made at Lyons c 1520 1525 as the private collection of a music copyist The book contains 280 compositions sacred and secular from the period 1450 1524 with Loyset Comp re Alexander Agricola Antoine de F vin Claudin de Sermisy and Cl ment Janequin as the prominent composers Besides discussing the many faceted repertory the book studies the circulation of music in the early sixteenth century and the relationships between popular songs and courtly chansons and between provincial music and the music of the musical centres The manuscript has been in the Royal Library of Copenhagen since 1921 This is the first comprehensive study of it

Perspectives on the Performance of French Piano Music Lesley A. Wright, 2016-04-22 Perspectives on the Performance of French Piano Music offers a range of approaches central to the performance of French piano music of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The contributors include scholars and active performers who see performance not as an independent activity but as a practice enriched by a wealth of historical and analytical approaches To underline the usefulness of contextual understanding for performance each author highlights the choices performers must confront with examples drawn from particular repertoires and composers Topics explored include editorial practice the use of early recordings emergent disciplines such as analysis and performance and traditions passed down from teacher to student Themes that emerge demonstrate the importance of editions as a form of communication the challenges of notation the significance of detail and of deeper continuity the importance of performing and teaching traditions and the influence of cross disciplinary frameworks A link to a set of performed examples on the frenchpianomusic.com website allows readers to hear and compare performances and interpretations of the music discussed The volume will appeal to musicologists and analysts interested in performance performers students and piano teachers Catalogue of Augener & Co's. Universal Circulating Musical Library with Supplements Augener & Co, 1861 Books of 1912-, 1922 Style and Performance for Bowed String Instruments in French Baroque Music Mary Cyr, 2016-04-01 Mary Cyr addresses the needs of researchers performers and informed listeners who wish to apply knowledge about historically informed performance to specific pieces Special emphasis is placed upon the period 1680 to 1760 when the viol violin and violoncello grew to prominence as solo instruments in France Part I deals with the historical background to the debate between the French and Italian styles and the features that defined French style Part II summarizes the present state of research on bowed string instruments violin viola cello contrebasse pardessus de viole and viol in France including such topics as the size and distribution of parts in ensembles and the role of the contrebasse Part III addresses issues and conventions of interpretation such as articulation tempo and character inequality ornamentation the basse continue pitch temperament and special effects such as tremolo and harmonics Part IV introduces four composer profiles that examine performance issues in the music of Elisabeth Jacquet de La Guerre Marin Marais Jean Baptiste Barriere and the Forquerays father and son The diversity of compositional styles among this group of composers and the virtuosity they incorporated in their music generate a broad field for discussing issues of performance practice and offer opportunities to explore controversial themes within the context of specific pieces Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh ...
