the increasing commercialisation of literature and the power of the literary prize Turner argues that literary excellence demonstrated by style and imaginative power is often missing in many works that have become modern classics and makes a case for the value of the universal in literature Written in a jargon free style with reference to many supporting writers the book raises a number of significant cultural questions about the arts fashions and literary reputations of interest to readers in contemporary literary studies

From a Tiny Corner in the House of Fiction Gillian Dooley, 2003 Dooley provides background information for each of the interviews along with a thorough index

Iris Murdoch: Philosophical Novelist Miles Leeson, 2011-10-27 This book provides a concise and highly readable reassessment of Iris Murdoch's engagement with philosophy throughout her life and proposes that she was most importantly a philosophical novelist By investigating her use of philosophical argument in her fictional writing it becomes clear that her narratives always depend upon a strong metaphysical underpinning Leeson proceeds thematically through the philosophical phases of Murdoch's life and develops a clear argument that Murdoch reacts against the philosophies of Sartre Plato Nietzsche and Heidegger not only in her philosophical writings but also in her fiction Indeed it is in her fiction that her philosophical argument is most persuasive and accessible This timely study provides new information regarding Murdoch's engagement with Martin Heidegger and also provides a detailed critique of critics who have overlooked Murdoch's engagement with philosophy within her fiction

Iris Murdoch: Texts and Contexts A. Rowe, 2012-07-30 Using unpublished archive material including correspondence and the many annotations Murdoch made to the books held in her Oxford library this book offers fresh insights into Murdoch's work by placing it within a diversity of new contexts It also reveals startling parallels between Murdoch's work and other literary and philosophical texts

Iris Murdoch, Philosopher Meets Novelist Sofia de Melo Araújo, Fátima Vieira, 2011-05-25 Iris Murdoch Philosopher Meets Novelist aims to gather some of the world's present experts on Iris Murdoch in an effort to promote dialogue between philosophy and literature This is due not only to the nature of Iris Murdoch's work itself but also to our belief that within Humanistic Studies there is a constant need for breaking down disciplinary barriers and reaching a deeper fuller awareness of human thinking. Thus the book brings together scholars from a variety of fields and places: Brazil, England, Iran, Ireland, Italy, Portugal, Spain, Turkey, Taiwan, and the United States, and testifies to the interest that the work of Murdoch continues to inspire. The book is divided into two major sections. Part A, Reading Philosophies in Literature, includes articles focusing on Iris Murdoch's philosophical concerns and their general influence in her work. Part B, Reading Literature through Philosophy, is intended as a sort of application ground: a series of case studies wherein authors depart from novels to retrieve the underlying philosophical thinking.

Sacred Space, Beloved City Cheryl Bove, Anne Rowe, 2020-11-09. Sacred Space Beloved City Iris Murdoch's London is a celebration of Iris Murdoch's love for London and establishes her amongst distinguished London writers such as William Blake, Charles Dickens, and Virginia Woolf. Individual chapters focus on the City, London art galleries and museums, the Post Office Tower, now the BT Tower, the statue of Peter Pan in Kensington Gardens, Whitehall, and the River Thames. Each chapter identifies intricate links between the environment and human consciousness and is accompanied by a corresponding walk that links Murdoch's plots to landmarks and routes. All essays and walks are illustrated with sketches by Paul Laseau. These drawings not only illustrate locations for identification but also conjure their atmosphere so that readers engage with how Murdoch's characters experience their surroundings. The final London Glossary is an annotated index of the London place names mentioned in all of Murdoch's 26 novels.

Iris Murdoch Richard Todd, 2019-10-01. Originally published in 1984, Iris Murdoch is widely regarded as one of the major British novelists of her generation. At the time, she was undoubtedly one of the most popular and prolific, having published twenty-one novels since 1954; she went on to write many more. But the course of her fiction-writing career was regarded with unease by some of her readers in that it seemed marked by an increasing conservatism of approach which could not have been foreseen in her earliest published fiction. She was acknowledged as one of Britain's leading moral philosophers, and although this study is careful to respect the distinctive integrity of her fiction-writing and her philosophy, it none the less assumes her active presence in contemporary debate as one of the most powerful and original theorists of fiction-writing at the time. In this study, Richard Todd systematically but discriminately surveys all her fiction to date and attempts to show how her fundamental theme, the interplay between the roles of artist and saint, is developed and expressed in her fiction.

Iris Murdoch and Elias Canetti Elaine Morley, 2017-12-02. Since the revelation of Iris Murdoch's 1919-1999 affair with Elias Canetti, 1905-1994, scholarship on their relationship has been largely biographical, focusing in particular on Canetti's alleged role as the real-life model for some of Murdoch's most invidious protagonists. Little research, however, has been done on the extensive common ground between the two writers' literary projects. In this groundbreaking comparative study, Elaine Morley conducts a careful philological comparison of Murdoch's and Canetti's works from their literary themes and theories to their idiosyncratic stylistic practices. Morley demonstrates that these authors were preoccupied with a common philosophical problem and that they were in fact not only personally close but also more intellectually allied than has been previously thought Elaine Morley is Lecturer in German and Comparative Literature at Queen Mary University of London where she convenes the MA in Anglo German Cultural Relations Stranger Gods Roger Young Clark, 2001 A study of Salman Rushdie's seven published novels with a special focus on his earliest Grimus and his most provocative Midnight's Children Shame and The Satanic Verses It shows how Rushdie employs cosmology mythology and mysticism to structure otherworldly dramas
