year we live by today The Penguin Book of Ghosts Jacqueline Simpson, Jennifer Westwood, 2008-10-02 Shiver at the story of the malevolent apparition of 50 Berkeley Square no one has survived seeing Listen for the tapping cane when Jeremy Bentham's mummified body walks through the corridors of University College Watch out for the Roman centurion who still patrols the causeway linking Mersea Island to Essex Shudder at the ghosts of kings and queens that keep returning to their old home at Windsor Beware the black dog of Shap Fell a sighting presages fatal accidents England's history echoes with stories of unquiet spirits and hauntings of headless highwaymen and grey ladies of premonitions of death and indelible blood stains Here county by county and place by place Jennifer Westwood and Jacqueline Simpson gather together all the most interesting supernatural tales from The Lore of the Land From a ghostly army marching across Cumbria to landlords appeals against rates because no one will rent their haunted house from the phantom hitchhiker of the Blackwall Tunnel to Francis Drake's drum summoning him when England is in danger these fascinating and unforgettable stories are part of our legendary past and present Cloven Country Jeremy Harte, 2023-08-25 Now in paperback an exploration of the myths of England's deceptively bucolic rolling hills and country lanes believed to be created and shaped by the Dark Lord himself According to legend the English landscape so calm on the surface is really the Devil's work Cloven Country tells of rocks hurled into place and valleys carved out by infernal labor The Devil's hideous strength laid down great roads in one night and left scars everywhere as the hard stone melted like wax under those burning feet With roots in medieval folklore of giants and spirits this is not the Satan of prayer but a clumsy ogre easily fooled by humankind When a smart cobbler or cunning young wife outwitted him they struck a blow for the underdog Only the wicked squire and grasping merchant were beyond redemption carried off by a black huntsman in the storm Cloven Country offers a fascinating panorama of these decidedly sinister English tales The Triumph of the Moon Ronald Hutton, 2019 This is the second and extensively revised edition of the first full scale scholarly study of what is arguably the only fully formed religion that England has ever given the world that of modern pagan witchcraft which has now spread from English shores across four continents Ronald Hutton examines the nature of that religion and its development and offers a history of attitudes to witchcraft paganism and magic in British society since 1800 Its pages reveal village cunning folk Victorian ritual magicians classicists and archaeologists leaders of woodcraft and scouting movements Freemasons and members of rural secret societies We also find some of the leading figures of English literature from the Romantic poets to W B Yeats D H Lawrence and Robert Graves as well as the main personalities who have represented pagan witchcraft to the public world since 1950 Thriller writers like Dennis Wheatley and films and television programmes get similar coverage as does tabloid journalism The material is by its very nature often sensational and care is taken throughout to distinguish fact from fantasy in a manner not hitherto applied to most of the stories involved Consistently densely researched Triumph of the Moon presents an authoritative insight into an aspect of modern cultural history which has attracted sensational publicity but has hitherto been little understood This edition incorporates all of the new research carried out into the subject by the author and by others who have often been inspired by this book during the twenty years since it was first published
