The Lost and Forgotten Gospel of the Kingdom, Second Edition

Steven Service, 2015-12-31 Most traditions within Christianity would agree that the gospel is the story of the life death burial and resurrection of Jesus Problematically this common contemporary definition does not fit logically with the biblical texts that reference the term Consider Mark 1 14 Galatians 3 8 Hebrews 3 16 4 2 Luke 3 18 9 6 If Jesus did not speak overtly regarding His intent to die sacrificially until the very end of His earthly ministry what gospel did He preach at the start of His ministry What gospel first came to Abraham and was also preached in the days of Moses What gospel was known by John the Baptist before he baptized Jesus What gospel was preached by Jesus disciples prior to knowing that their Rabbi would go to the cross This study not only elucidates the factors that contributed to the loss of the biblical definition of the term gospel but also restores its meaning and offers a first century perspective of Hebraic Spirituality

The Lost Archive

Marina Rustow, 2020-01-14 A compelling look at the Fatimid caliphate's robust culture of documentation The lost archive of the Fatimid caliphate 909 1171 survived in an unexpected place the storage room or geniza of a synagogue in Cairo recycled as scrap paper and deposited there by medieval Jews Marina Rustow tells the story of this extraordinary find inviting us to reconsider the longstanding but mistaken consensus that before 1500 the dynasties of the Islamic Middle East produced few documents and preserved even fewer Beginning with government documents before the Fatimids and paper's westward spread across Asia Rustow reveals a millennial tradition of state record keeping whose very continuities suggest the strength of Middle Eastern institutions not their weakness Tracing the complex routes by which Arabic documents made their way from Fatimid palace officials to Jewish scribes the book provides a rare window onto a robust culture of documentation and archiving not only comparable to that of medieval Europe but in many cases surpassing it Above all Rustow argues that the problem of archives in the medieval Middle East lies not with the region's administrative culture but with our failure to understand preindustrial documentary ecology Illustrated with stunning examples from the Cairo Geniza this compelling book advances our understanding of documents as physical artifacts showing how the records of the Fatimid caliphate once recovered deciphered and studied can help change our thinking about the medieval Islamic world and about premodern
