Allen,2014-06-03 On the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in 1963 Martin Luther King outlined a dream of an America where people would not be judged by the color of their skin That dream has yet to be realized but some three centuries ago it was a reality Back then neither social practice nor law recognized any special privileges in connection with being white But by the early decades of the eighteenth century that had all changed Racial oppression became the norm in the plantation colonies and African Americans suffered under its yoke for more than two hundred years In Volume II of The Invention of the White Race Theodore Allen explores the transformation that turned African bond laborers into slaves and segregated them from their fellow proletarians of European origin In response to labor unrest where solidarities were not determined by skin color the plantation bourgeoisie sought to construct a buffer of poor whites whose new racial identity would protect them from the enslavement visited upon African Americans This was the invention of the white race an act of cruel ingenuity that haunts America to this day Allen s acclaimed study has become indispensable in debates on the origins of racial oppression in America In this updated edition scholar Jeffrey B Perry provides a new introduction a select bibliography and a study guide The Churches of the Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem: A Corpus: Volume 2, L-Z (excluding Tyre) Denys Pringle,1993 This is the second of a series of four volumes that are intended to present a complete corpus of all the church buildings of both the western and the oriental rites rebuilt or simply in use in the Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem between the capture of Jerusalem for the First Crusade in 1099 and the loss of Acre in 1291 This volume completes the general topographical coverage begun in volume I and will be followed by a third volume dealing specifically with the major cities of Jerusalem Acre and Tyre which are excluded from the preceding volumes The project of which this series represents the final definitive publication has been sponsored by the British School of Archaeology in Jerusalem On completion the corpus will contain a topographical listing of all the 400 or more church buildings of the Kingdom that are attested by documentary or surviving archaeological evidence and individual descriptions and discussion of them in terms of their identification building history and architecture Some of the buildings have been published before but many others are published here for the first time The Yale Review George Park Fisher,George Burton Adams,Henry Walcott Farnam,Arthur Twining Hadley,John Christopher Schwab,William Fremont Blackman,Edward Gaylord Bourne,Irving Fisher,Henry Crosby Emery,Wilbur Lucius Cross,1912 The History of Scottish Theology, Volume II David Fergusson,Mark Elliott,2019-09-12 This three volume work comprises over eighty essays surveying the history of Scottish theology from the early middle ages onwards Written by an international team of scholars the collection provides the most comprehensive review yet of the theological movements figures and themes that have shaped Scottish culture and exercised a significant influence in other parts of the world Attention is given to different traditions and to the dispersion of Scottish theology through exile migration and missionary activity The volumes present in diachronic perspective the theologies that have flourished in Scotland from early monasticism until the end of the twentieth century The History of Scottish Theology Volume I covers the period from the appearance of Christianity around the time of Columba to the era of Reformed Orthodoxy in the seventeenth century Volume II begins with the early Enlightenment and concludes in late Victorian Scotland Volume III explores the long twentieth century Recurrent themes and challenges are assessed but also new currents and theological movements that arose through Renaissance humanism Reformation teaching federal theology the Scottish Enlightenment evangelicalism missionary Biblical criticism idealist philosophy dialectical theology and existentialism Chapters also consider the Scots Catholic colleges in Europe Gaelic women writers philosophical scepticism the dialogue with science and the reception of theology in liturgy hymnody art literature architecture and stained
