The Founding Fathers of Social Science Timothy Raison,1970 The Founding Fathers of Social Science Timothy Raison,1963 The founding fathers of social science John H. Goldthorpe,1970 The Scottish Enlightenment Anand C. Chitnis,2021-10-12 Originally published in 1976 this book discusses the relationship of the age of intellectual enlightenment in Scotland to the age of economic improvement and analyses the Scottish Enlightenment from a more sociological point of view It describes the intense period of high intellectual endeavour and activity that took place in the resorts of the cultural social Scottish elite in 18th and early 19th Century Scotland It discusses the crucial place of lawyers in 18th Century Scottish society and examines the intellectual features of the Scottish university system charting the rise of the societies clubs and other institutions such as the Encyclopaedia Britannica and The Edinburgh Review Reading Media Theory Brett Mills,David M. Barlow,2014-06-11 What does the Frankfurt School have to say about the creative industries Does the spread of Google prove we now live in an information society How is Madonna an example of postmodernism How new is new media Does the power of Facebook mean we re all media makers now This groundbreaking volume part reader part textbook helps you to engage thoroughly with some of the major voices that have come to define the landscape of theory in media studies from the public sphere to postmodernism from mass communication theory to media effects from production to reception and beyond But much more than this by providing assistance and questions directly alongside the readings it crucially helps you develop the skills necessary to become a critical informed and analytical reader Each reading is supported on the facing page by author annotations which provide comments dissect the arguments explain key ideas and terminology make references to other relevant material and pose questions that emerge from the text Key features Opening chapters What is theory and What is reading bring alive the importance of both as key parts of media scholarship Pre reading substantial Introductory sections set each text and its author in context and show the relevance of the reading to contemporary culture Post reading Reflection sections summarise each reading s key points and suggests further areas to explore and think about 4 types of annotations help you engage with the reading context content structure and writing style as well as questions to provoke further thought Split into 4 sections Reading theory Key thinkers and schools Approaches and Media Theory in context New to the second edition New chapters on New Media and Audiences as Producers Reading Media Theory will assist you in developing close reading and analytic skills It will also increase your ability to outline key theories and debates assess different case studies critically link theoretical approaches to a particular historical context and to structure and present an argument As such it will be essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of media studies cultural studies communication studies the sociology of the media popular culture and other related subjects The Founding Fathers of Social Science: a Series from New Society Timothy Raison,1969 The Founding Fathers of Social Science Paul Barker,1963 The Making of Sociology Ronald Fletcher,1972 Reading Media Theory David Maxwell Barlow,Brett

Mills, 2009 This unique part reader part textbook brings core primary media theory readings to the student whilst assisting them with reading understanding decoding and deconstructing the material The dual functionality of the book helps students to familiarise themselves with core texts and develop the necessary critical reading skills and confidence required to engage with the subject The text is annotated throughout and explores context content structure and writing style in order to bring theory to life for the reader The book is split into four sections namely Reading theory Key thinkers and schools Approaches and Media Theory in context This structure is adopted in order to encourage students to familiarise themselves with the material and the progressive pedagogical apparatus guides them to approach it gradually whilst developing their skill set The provision of questions to provoke further thought helps to encourage the student to read more widely around the subject and engage with core concepts of both theory and learning Ultimately the text acts as a how to read handbook for media theory and is structured so that students can learn the literature as well as learning how to approach it Decolonising the Future Academy in Africa and Beyond Michaela Pelican, Karim Zafer, Michael Bollig, 2025-02-27 What does it mean to decolonise academia in Africa Is this important project limited to the humanities Is it a project for the future Are there forerunners at African universities today The contributors to this volume show different trajectories for anthropology as a discipline and for decolonising academia across the continent and beyond They offer a variety of perspectives especially regarding collaboration between African and German scholars in the areas of research teaching and institutional development While some are hopeful and take inspiration from earlier experiences of disciplinary and methodological developments in academic decolonisation and international collaborations others remain critical and call for more radical attempts at decolonisation Expanding Disciplinary Space: On the Potential of Critical Marketing Douglas Brownlie, Paul Hower, Mark Tadjewski, 2014-10-14 Expanding disciplinary Space On the Potential of Critical Marketing provides an introduction to the major perspectives in critical marketing studies It contains theoretical reflections on critical marketing whilst building on the key concepts and ideas which are vital to the subject through detailed empirical studies An international collection of marketing experts discuss the eclectic character and potential of the critical turn within marketing theory and practice Chapters explore topics such as marketing academia consumer research political marketing marketing ethics postcolonial epistemic ideology in marketing marketing theory and marketing for community development The text is essential reading for all those interested in contemporary developments in marketing theory and practice irrespective of the discipline from which they originate This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Marketing Management Calendar Monash University, 1965 Multiple Discovery David Lamb, Susan M.
