The Kitten'S Cooler Judy Richter,2018-04-13 Back in the day my sisters name Carol Hofmann Thompson was a household word in the horse show world here and abroad I have been blessed with many good memories of her and others who have brightened my life To call this collection a memoir feels a bit too formal and pretentious so I prefer to say these are a gathering of good old memories of people and events in my life from the fifties to the present day There was no better decade than the 1950s to grow up in The war was over we won and Eisenhower was our president No more noble and able a man existed except possibly Churchill but he was British and even then old It was a safe world we never went to bed wondering if wed wake up to World War III Our parents never worried about where we were if they even wondered They knew wed be home at dark for dinner How different from today What is most heartening about recollecting these stories old and new is that life does indeed go on and for us horse people it is the horses who carry us forward Ghost Lights Lydia Millet,2011-09-20 A funny and haunting new novel from one of the most acclaimed novelists of her generation Los Angeles Times Hal is a mild mannered IRS bureaucrat who suspects that his wife is cheating with her younger more virile coworker At a drunken dinner party Hal volunteers to fly to Belize in search of Susan s employer T the protagonist of Lydia Millet s much lauded novel How the Dead Dream who has vanished in a tropical jungle initiating a darkly humorous descent into strange and unpredictable terrain Salon raved that Millet s writing is always flawlessly beautiful reaching for an experience that precedes language itself In Ghost Lights she combines her characteristic wit and a sharp eye for the weirdness that governs human and nonhuman interactions With the scathing satire and tender honesty of Sam Lipsyte and a dark quirky absurdist style reminiscent of Joy Williams Millet has created a comic startling and surprisingly philosophical story about idealism and disillusionment home and not home and the singular heartbreaking devotion of parenthood *Rosamond.
