Artmaking in the Age of Global Capitalism Bryant Jan Bryant, 2019-09-11 Jan Bryant looks at the strategies visual artists and filmmakers are using to criticise the social and economic conditions shaping our historical moment She then assesses how the world is being positively re imagined through their work today Located at the intersection of practice and theory Bryant argues that an effective contemporary political aesthetics encompasses more than just analysis of a work s conceptual or aesthetic reality It should also consider the impact the artwork has at the point of reception the methods adopted by the artists and the relationships they engender with communities

Apparitions--of Derrida's Other Kas Saghafi,2010 How does Derrida write of and on the other Apparitions examines exemplary instances of the relation to the other the relation of Moses to God Derrida s friendship with Jean Luc Nancy Derrida s relation to a recently departed actress caught on video to demonstrate how Derrida forces us to reconceive who or what the other may be For Derrida the singularity of the other includes not only the formal or logical sense of alterity the otherness of the human other but also the otherness of the nonliving the no longer living or the not yet alive Addressing Derrida s readings of Husserl Levinas Barthes Blanchot and Nancy this book explores the apparitions of the other by attending to the mode of appearing the phenomenality and visibility of the other The book also demonstrates that video and photography display an intimate relation to spectrality as well as a structural relation to the absolute singularity of the other

Ethical Encounters Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe,2020-06-12 The essays on dimensions of theatre ethics at the heart of contributions to this volume demonstrate how individual academics and theatre artists have thought about the ethical implications of theatre and present the concepts and paradigms that have guided and influenced their thinking They raise relevant issues and debate these in clearly defined but not uniform ways ways that have helped them to come to terms with the issues they raise The reader may agree or disagree with individual authors or individual arguments If such agreement or disagreement supports them to form and develop their own opinions and resultant actions this book has served its purpose This volume arises from the 2007 and 2008 TaPRA conferences and all of its essays at one level or another reflect upon what is possible within the environment of theatre Possibility is one form of ethical engagement with the boundaries of philosophy and performance and reminds us of the inherently political aspect of any ethical question So whilst the most obviously ethically oriented papers appear towards the end of the volume in a separate section let us bear in mind that throughout certain limits of representation will always be in question for any understanding of theatre

Deconstruction and the Work of Art Martta Heikkilä,2021-07-29 The contemporary idea of the work of art is paradoxically both widely used and often unexamined Therefore we must re evaluate the concept before we can understand what the deconstruction of aesthetics means for thinkers like Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Nancy and Philippe Lacoue Labarthe By examining their analyses of works of visual art and contextualizing their thinking on the matter Martta Heikkil asserts that the implications of the work of art art and the aesthetic apply not only to philosophical questions but also to a broader area Instead of the totality represented by the historical concept of Art poststructuralist thinkers introduce the idea of the radical multiplicity of art and its works From this notion arises the fundamental issue in Derrida and the poststructuralist tradition how can we speak philosophically of art which always exists as singular instances as works In Deconstruction and the Work of Art Visual Arts and Their Critique in Contemporary French Thought Heikkil shows that the deconstructionist notions of art are still influential in the discourses of contemporary art in which artworks proliferate and the concept of work is open ended and expanding This book offers an introduction to the deconstructionist theory of art and brings new perspectives to the complex undecidable relation between philosophy and art

Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography Madalina Akli,2009 This book studies three autobiographies each of which is at least partially devoid of chronological structure Sartre's The Words Perec's W or The Memory of Childhood and Sarraute's Childhood Calendar based order traditionally associated with autobiography fails to provide the coherence the readers expect Hence readers must create a sense of coherence at another level by using their conceptual resources Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography reveals that in these literary texts coherence is maintained based on the exploitation of conventional metaphors taken from everyday language which the autobiographers transform in a creative yet familiar manner These common metaphors offer guidance to readers and establish coherence between the shared life experiences of reader and autobiographer In the course of reading the autobiographers and the readers life experiences overlap through familiar metaphors which serve as organizational devices in writing and as guiding principles in reading

Occasional Deconstructions Julian Wolfreys, 2012-02-01 In Occasional Deconstructions Julian Wolfreys challenges the notion that deconstruction is a critical methodology offering instead a number of reintroductions or reorientations to the texts of Jacques Derrida and the idea or possibility of deconstructions Proceeding from specific readings of various texts both film and literary as well as mobilizing a number of issues from Derrida's recent work surrounding questions of ethics politics and identity Wolfreys considers the role of deconstruction in broader academic and institutional contexts and questions whether in fact deconstruction can be called upon to function as theory at all In this book Wolfreys suggests that the patient necessary work of reading in which response and responsibility to the other has a chance to manifest itself is necessary to the always political and ethical tracing of the material and the historical He also contends that reading should be an encounter that gives place to an acknowledgment of the other and that this singular act by which one is introduced to the other can never be programmed Phototextualities Alex Hughes, Andrea Noble, 2003 How are photographs understood as narratives In this book twenty two original critical essays tackle this overarching question in a series of case studies moving chronologically across the history of photography from the 1840s to the twenty first century The contributors explore the intersections of photography with history memory autobiography time death mapping the discourse of Orientalism digital technology and representations of race and gender The essays range in focus from the role of photographic images in the memorialization of the Holocaust the Argentine Dirty War and Japanese American internment camps through Man Ray s classic image Noire et blanche and Nan Goldin s The Ballad of Sexual Dependency to the function of family albums in nineteenth century England and America

Claude Lévi-Strauss Christopher Johnson,2003-02-27 L vi Strauss is one of the major intellectual figures of the twentieth century His theory of structuralism has been influential not only in anthropology but across the entire field of the humanities and social sciences This book looks at the formative period of his career from the 1940s to the early 1960s where he attempts to define both his own place in anthropology and the place of anthropology in the wider context of the human sciences in France Through a close reading of key texts Christopher Johnson provides an introduction to key aspects of L vi Strauss thought at the same time posing more general questions concerning the construction of theory and the different modes of conceptualization that inform theory Johnson looks at the ideological and autobiographical dimensions of L vi Strauss work and demonstrates how the impact of structuralism as an intellectual movement has clearly been greater than the sum of its theoretical parts transnationalism that insists on the global relevance of his work Through his artistic engagement with a number of esoteric concepts for example his recuperation of pataphysical logic and Oulipian combinatorics mathematical reasoning Eastern thought and the historical avant gardes Mart nez creates a rigorous quasi system of citation and erasure that is a philosophical poetics as well as a poetic philosophy Juan Luis Mart nez s Philosophical Poetics thus addresses all major publications by this groundbreaking Chilean artist and poet in order to read his difficult experimental texts by focusing on the tension he creates between philosophical political literary and scientific discourses

Baudelaire's Le Spleen de Paris MariaC. Scott,2017-09-29 Maria Scott s study of the operation of irony in Baudelaire s Le Spleen de Paris contends that the principal target of the collection s spleen is its own readership Baudelaire as one of the most perceptive cultural commentators of the nineteenth century was naturally very keenly aware of the growing dominance of the bourgeoisie in France not least as a market for art and literature Despite being dependent on this market for his own writing the poet was highly critical of bourgeois values and attitudes Scott builds on existing criticism of the collection to argue that these are indirectly mocked in Le Spleen de Paris often in the person of the poet s supposed textual alter ego The contention is that the prose poems betray the trust of readers by way of an apparent transparency of meaning that functions to blind us to their embedded irony Though focused on Le Spleen de Paris Scott s study engages with the full range of Baudelaire s writings including his art and literary criticism Her book will be of interest not only to Baudelaire scholars but also to those engaged more generally with nineteenth century French culture
