Persian Royal-Judaean Elite Engagements in the Early Teispid and Achaemenid Empire Jason M. Silverman, 2019-11-14 Jason Silverman presents a timely and necessary study advancing the understanding of Achaemenid ideology and Persian Period Judaism While the Achaemenid Persian Empire c 550 330 BCE dwarfed all previous empires of the Ancient Near East in both size and longevity the royal system that forged and preserved this civilisation remains only rudimentarily understood as is the imperial and religious legacy bequeathed to future generations In response to this deficit Silverman provides a critically sophisticated and interdisciplinary model for comparative studies While the Achaemenids rebuilt the Jerusalem temple Judaean literature of the period reflects tensions over its Persian re establishment demonstrating colliding religious perspectives Although both First Zechariah 1 8 and Second Isaiah 40 55 are controversial the greater imperial context is rarely dealt with in depth both books deal directly with the temple s legitimacy and this ties them intimately to kings engagements with cults Silverman explores how the Achaemenid kings portrayed their rule to subject minorities the ways in which minority elites reshaped this ideology and how long this impact lasted as revealed through the Judaean reactions to the restoration of the Jerusalem temple
