The Garden of Fear Robert E. Howard, 2015-02-12 This early work by Robert E Howard was originally published in 1934 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography The Garden of Fear is a story in the James Allison series and tells the tale of a Texan who recalls his past lives as ancient heroes Robert Ervin Howard was born in Peaster Texas in 1906 During his youth his family moved between a variety of Texan boomtowns and Howard a bookish and somewhat introverted child was steeped in the violent myths and legends of the Old South At fifteen Howard began to read the pulp magazines of the day and to write more seriously The December 1922 issue of his high school newspaper featured two of his stories Golden Hope Christmas and West is West In 1924 he sold his first piece a short caveman tale titled Spear and Fang for 16 to the not yet famous Weird Tales magazine Howard s most famous character Conan the Cimmerian was a barbarian turned King during the Hyborian Age a mythical period of some 12 000 years ago Conan featured in seventeen Weird Tales stories between 1933 and 1936 which is why Howard is now regarded as having spawned the sword and sorcery genre The Conan stories have since been adapted many times most famously in the series of films starring Arnold Schwarzenegger

The garden of knowledge Rav Shalom Arush, Rabbi Shalom Arush s ascent to international literary stardom began with the multi million copy best selling The Garden of Emuna a guide to life Later came The Garden of Peace a marital guide so effective that many religious courts in Israel require divorce applicants to read it before they file for divorce more than two out of three cancel all proceedings after reading the book The Garden of Wisdom then came along to show depressed people how to be l and that people who considered themselves to be losers are really winners Next appeared The Garden of Education a manual to raising children with a dramatically fresh approach to child rearing which has helped parents bring out the best in themselves and in their children This book The Garden of Knowledge shows how the Torah speaks personally to every individual in every generation Even those segments of Torah that seem irrelevant when examined in depth teach the individual important lessons in life as seen throughout this eye opening volume

The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet Elizabeth Caroline Dodd, 1992 In The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet Elizabeth Dodd explores the lives and work of four women poets of the twentieth century H D Louise Bogan Elizabeth Bishop and Louise Gluck Dodd argues that sexist and male dominated cultural forces in their personal and professional lives challenged these women to find a unique mode of expression in their poetry a practice Dodd defines as personal classicism Dodd uses the term personal classicism to examine modern and contemporary poetry that appears torn between two major modes of poetic sensibility the Romantic and the Classical While the four poets she addresses exhibit a poetic sensibility that is primarily Romantic valuing Wordsworth's spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings adopting a natural spoken tone and relying on personal subject matter they have nonetheless employed masking and controlling strategies that are more nearly Classical Combining feminist theory and biographical studies with close readings of individual poems Dodd moves historically from H D one of the best known Imagists through the Confessional movement to the major contemporary poet Louise Gluck In the final chapter Dodd brings us to the present where she finds women writers still struggling with the recent Confessional legacy of such highly anthologized poets as Anne Sexton and Sylvia Plath The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet combines thoughtful consideration of both formal and theoretical issues in a graceful prose that reaffirms poetry as an art vitally connected to life It will be of significant interest to students of modern and contemporary poetry as well as to those concerned with women's studies A Breath of Soul from the Garden of Life
