taking into account the Reformation the printing press and growing interest in lay piety in the context of increasing individualism developing literacy privatization and or personalization of religion Contextualising devotional literature the volume refines understandings of religious practice fostered by traditional Catholicism and early modern Protestantism and its relationship with the written word locating the use of books within a devotional diet that included oral recitation of prayers as well as contemplation of images Stressing continuities often against the grain of existing literature this volume highlights differences between regional cultures of prayer in contrast to norms set by the universal Church and emphasizes the tension between public communal and private individual devotion
