Propaganda and Information

Warfare in the Twenty-First Century Scot Macdonald, 2006-12-05 This is the first book to analyze how the technology to alter images and rapidly distribute them can be used for propaganda and to support deception operations In the past propagandists and those seeking to conduct deception operations used crude methods to alter images of real people events and objects which could usually be detected relatively easily Today however computers allow propagandists to create any imaginable image still or moving with appropriate accompanying audio Furthermore it is becoming extremely difficult to detect that an image has been manipulated and the Internet television and global media make it possible to disseminate altered images around the world almost instantaneously Given that the United States is the sole superpower few if any adversaries will attempt to fight the US military conventionally on the battlefield Therefore adversaries will use propaganda and deception especially altered images in an attempt to level the battlefield or to win a war against the United States without even having to fight militarily Propaganda and Information Warfare in the 21st Century will be of great interest to students of information war propaganda public diplomacy and security studies in general

The Science Fiction Film in Contemporary Hollywood Evdokia Stefanopoulou, 2023-07-27 The Science Fiction Film in Contemporary Hollywood focuses on the American science fiction SF film during the period 2001 2020 in order to provide a theoretical mapping of the genre in the context of Conglomerate Hollywood Using a social semiotics approach in a systematic corpus of films the book argues that the SF film can be delineated by two semiotic squares the first one centering on the genre's more than human ontologies SF bodies and the second one focusing on its imaginative worlds SF worlds Based on this theoretical framework the book examines the genre in six cycles which are placed in their historical context and are analyzed in relation to cultural discourses such as technological embodiment race animal human relations environmentalism global capitalism and the techno scientific Empire By considering these cycles which include superhero films creature films space operas among others as expressions of the genre's basic oppositions the book facilitates the comparison and juxtaposition of films that have rarely been discussed in tandem offering a new perspective on the multiple articulations of the SF film in the new millennium
