Socialist Ideology And The Struggle For Southern Africa:

Socialist Ideology and the Struggle for Southern Africa John S. Saul, 1990 Socialist Ideology and the Struggle for Southern Africa John S. Saul, 1990 ABBWA Journal, 1990 Township Politics: Civic Struggles for a New South Africa Mzwanele Mayekiso, 2023-02-24 This insider's account of an extraordinary period of national political transition is also a primer on a new radical philosophy the street smart Marxism that developed in South Africa's sprawling townships between 1985 and 1995 and rendered them ungovernable for the apartheid state Mzwanele Mayekiso a young leader of the civics as South Africa's popular community organizations are called spent almost three years in prison as a result of the civics militant organizing Here he interlaces his personal story with caustic assessments of apartheid's hand picked township leaders with rebuttals of armchair academics and with impassioned but self critical analyses of the civics struggles and tactics He ends with a vision of an international urban social movement that he argues must be a crucial component of any emancipatory project Democratizing Southern Africa Heribert Adam, Kogila Moodley, Canadian Institute for International Peace and Security, 1992 This analysis sketches the historical record of Canadian policy toward South Africa It outlines some of the controversies and speculates about the functions and background of a surprisingly activist policy by a conservative government It probes the competing political forces in the ongoing South African transition assesses the prospect of democratic success or failure and describes the ambiguous impact of Canadian efforts on the recipients in the white and black communities It also reflects on possible changes new foci or even withdrawal of Canadian involvement from the Southern Africa region of the post apartheid era The Road to Democracy in South Africa South African Democracy Education Trust, 2024-12-02 This book examines the contributions made by the governments organisations and African people on the ground throughout the continent towards the realisation of the South African dream in 1994 The chapters provide detailed insight into the roots of the continent's liberation from colonialism The subject matter in this book also discusses The anti apartheid struggle Caribbean solidarity with the South African struggle Botswana's role in South African liberation Black internationalism The involvement of the ANC Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa This book is part of Routledge's co published series 30 Years of Democracy in South Africa in collaboration with UNISA Press which reflects on the past years of a democratic South Africa and assesses the future opportunities and challenges Current Bibliographical Information Dag Hammarskjöld Library, 1991 Consumption, Media and Culture in South Africa Mehita Iqani, Bridget Kenny, 2017-10-02 This book is the first of its kind to bring together a collection of critical scholarly work on consumer culture in South Africa exploring the cultural political economic and social aspects of consumption in post Apartheid society From sushi and Japanese diplomacy to Queen Sophie's writhing gown from middle class Sowetan golfers to an indebted working class citizenry from wedding websites to wedding nostalgia from the liberation of consuming to the low wage labour of selling the chapters in this book demonstrate a variety of themes showing that to start with consumption

rather than ending with it allows for new insights into long standing areas of social research By mapping exploring and theorizing the diverse aspects of consumption and consumer culture the volume collectively works towards a fresh set of empirically rooted conceptual commentaries on the politics economics and social dynamics of modern South Africa This effort in turn can serve as a foundation for thinking less parochially about neoliberal power and consumer culture On a global scale studying consumption in South Africa matters because in some ways the country serves as a microcosm for global patterns of income inequality race based economic oppression and hopes for the material betterment of life By exploring what consumption means on the local scale in South Africa the possibility arises to trace new global links and dissonances This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Arts The African Communist ,1988 Popular Politics and Resistance Movements in South Africa William Beinart,Marcelle C. Dawson,2010-12-01 An examination of post apartheid politics This volume explores some of the key features of popular politics and resistance before and after 1994 It looks at continuities and changes in the forms of struggle and ideologies involved as well as the significance of post apartheid grassroots politics Is this a new form of politics or does it stand as a direct descendent of the insurrectionary impulses of the late apartheid era Posing questions about continuity and change before and after 1994 raises key issues concerning the nature of power and poverty in the country Contributors suggest that expressions of popular politics are deeply set within South African political culture and still have the capacity to influence political outcomes The introduction by William Beinart links the papers together places them in context of recent literature on popular politics and history from below and summarises their main findings supporting the argument that popular politics outside of the party system remain significant in South Africa and help influence national politics The roots of this collection lie in post graduate student research conducted at the University of Oxford in the early twenty first century The Historical Roots of Cape Verdean Dependency, 1460-1990 Paul Wayne Barrows,1990 Southern Africa Bibliography Reuben Musiker,Naomi Musiker,1996-10-10 On April 27 1994 a new era in the history of Southern Africa began when South Africa became a democratic country governed by Black majority rule In the aftermath of these momentous changes Scarecrow Press introduces the Southern Africa Bibliography It is a select bibliography that lists the significant books and monographs on Angola Botswana Lesotho Malawi Namibia Mozambique South Africa Swaziland Zambia and Zimbabwe published since 1945 Coverage of a broad range of subjects including art culture economy history politics religion society and important persons places events and movements The work is arranged by subject and contains detailed author title and subject indexes A Lifetime of Struggle Edgar Zivanai Tekere,2007 Discordant Comrades Allison Drew,2019-07-12 This title was first published in 2000 This book considers the fortunes of socialism in South Africa from the doctrine s arrival around 1900 to its legal suppression in 1950 Socialism s universal claims had to come to terms with South Africa s singular national experience in which a racial ideology and a racial division of the working class played a far greater role than in any other country The left in South Africa had to deal with all the complexities of ideology and strategy that faced their counterparts in Europe and North America but in South Africa it was further vexed by challenges of profound racial and national inequalities and a white labour movement which sought protection through racial segregation Communism rather than Social Democracy prevailed hence the reverberations of the splits in the Communist International were far more debilitating in South Africa than anywhere else In the years after World War II African nationalism became the dominant influence on the South African left chiefly through the relationship between the ANC and the Communist Party Discordant Comrades draws on a wide range of primary sources from inside and outside South Africa including the archives of the Communist International in Moscow The result is a scholarly and challenging analysis of the South African left

Communist Actors in African Decolonial Transitions Helder Adegara Fonseca, Chris Saunders, Lena Dallywater, 2025-10-20 In the long and protracted process of decolonization in sub Saharan Africa 1957 1994 three key moments in the transitions from colonial white ruled states to independent majority ruled states can be identified 1957 1965 1974 1980 and 1988 1994 These transitional phases of decolonization in sub Saharan Africa the beginnings of the process a crucial turning point in that process and its endings are worthy of reappraisal and invite comparisons of various kinds The existing literature does not consider the roles of communist actors in these transitions from a comparative perspective This is the main focus of this volume which will be an essential work for scholars of African decolonization and will interest anyone concerned with the history of communism and the external activities of the countries of the Soviet bloc and other communist actors
