Style and Temper Wilbur Merrill Frohock, 1967 The French Novel: Theory and Practice Michael Butor, 2024-10-07

Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world "Ces forces obscures de l'âme" Christine Margerrison, 2008-01-01 This is the first major investigation of Camus's prose fiction to explore the developing presentation of women from the author's earliest writings to his last unfinished novel Avoiding the traditional relegation of this subject to an emotional or private sphere it traces Camus's intellectual development in order to demonstrate the centrality of this subject to Camus's work as a whole If the Absurd constructed over the body of the real woman liberates the writer to follow a true path of literary creation the impending loss of his Algerian homeland impells a return to all that he had not been free to choose the ties of blood These conflictual and unresolved ties are here investigated in conjunction with the presentation of mythical female figures expressing Camus's darkest fears partly voiced in other writings concerning that other Algeria for which he would never fight Exploring complex interconnections between sexuality race and colonialism this volume is pertinent to all who are interested in the writings of Camus particularly those seeking relevant new ways of approaching his work A Critical Bibliography of French Literature V2 16th C , Shaping the Novel Constantina Thalia Mitchell, Paul Raymond Côté, 1996-10-01 The dialogue between form and message is intrinsic to the novel as genre Yet the strength of that discourse has been shaken in the twentieth century by an increasing doubt about affirmations of any kind and a growing awareness of the relativity of knowledge and perception The novel reflects this intellectual current by turning its glance inward to mediate on the creative act as a form of self-contained assertion of its own particular significance The three writers on whom this study focuses all major twentieth century authors were chosen because they can be considered as important representatives of this novelistic self-consciousness Building on Andr Malraux's vision of the colloquium as an open-ended verbal interchange this study calls upon the voices of Anne Hrbert and Patrick Modiano to enter into a dialogue on novelistic form A Time of Transition in the French Novel Christopher Shorley, 2006 The years around 1930 are marked by turning points in most areas of French life and the fiction of the time is a privileged means of understanding those changes This book traces vital transitions in French politics society and culture the focus then moves to the novel a genre uniquely equipped to reflect topical shifts and breakthroughs Jean-Paul Sartre: A

Bibliography of International Criticism Robert Wilcocks, 1975 A large comprehensive compilation of journalism and international criticism of the works and activities of Jean Paul Sartre The work covers Sartre s stormy career from 1937 to 1975 containing nearly 700 000 entries and over 3 200 authors French Literature: Author and title listing Harvard University. Library, 1973

Giono Norma Lorre Goodrich, 2015-03-08 Since his death in October 1970 Jean Giono s reputation as a major French novelist has steadily increased In order to treat most powerfully the essential nature of modern man confronted with the worst problems of the twentieth century he adapted into prose the tried and true literary modes the epic the pastoral Greek tragedy Shakespearean tragedy and autobiography In Giono s work the old modes and familiar forms continue to fulfill the age old functions of great literature we see the Christian epic suddenly made relevant to everyday life or the pagan epic re explain modern male savagery In Giono s hands the novel explains man to himself shows man more clearly the world about him and offers to men everywhere renewed courage and hope Originally published in 1973 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
