Suburban Shaman:

Suburban Shaman Cecil Helman, 2004 This title provides a rare and often funny insight into the life and encounters of a Suburban Shaman Cecil Helman, 2006-01-01 The Life of a Galilean Shaman Pieter F. modest family doctor Craffert, 2008-01-01 Historical Jesus research remains trapped in the positivistic historiographical framework from which it emerged more than a hundred and fifty years ago This is confirmed by the nested assumptions shared by the majority of researchers These include the idea that a historical figure could not have been like the Gospel portrayals and consequently the Gospels have developed in a linear and layered fashion from the authentic kernels to the elaborated literary constructions as they are known today The aim of historical Jesus research therefore is to identify the authentic material from which the historical figure as a social type underneath the overlay is constructed Anthropological historiography offers an alternative framework for dealing with Jesus of Nazareth as a social personage fully embedded in a first century Mediterranean worldview and the Gospels as cultural artifacts related to this figure The shamanic complex can account for the cultural processes and dynamics related to his social personage This cross cultural model represents a religious pattern that refers to a family of features for describing those religious entrepreneurs who based on regular Altered State of Consciousness experiences perform a specific set of social functions in their communities. This model accounts for the wide spectrum of the data ascribed to Jesus of Nazareth while it offers a coherent framework for constructing the historical Jesus as a social personage embedded in his worldview As a Galilean shamanic figure Jesus typically performed healings and exorcisms he controlled the spirits while he also acted as prophet teacher and mediator of divine knowledge Porpoises Rescue Dick Gravitas, Punctilio, Rectitude & Pippy Bags, On the Move Oliver Sacks, 2015-04-28 NATIONAL Van Dyke , BESTSELLER A wonderful memoir Los Angeles Times about a brilliantly unconventional physician and writer a man who has illuminated the many ways that the brain makes us human Intimate Brim s with life and affection The New York Times When Oliver Sacks was twelve years old a perceptive schoolmaster wrote Sacks will go far if he does not go too far It is now abundantly clear that Sacks has never stopped going With unbridled honesty and humor Sacks writes about the passions that have driven his life from motorcycles and weight lifting to neurology and poetry. He writes about his love affairs both romantic and intellectual his guilt over leaving his family to come to America his bond with his schizophrenic brother and the writers and scientists W H Auden Gerald M Edelman Francis Crick who have influenced his work Working with Spirit Jo Thobeka Wreford, 2008-05-01 In the current model of health dispensation in South Africa there are two major paradigms the spirit inspired tradition of izangoma sinyanga and biomedicine These operate at best in parallel but more often than not are at odds with one another This book based on the author's personal experience as a practitioner of traditional African medicine considers the effects of the absence of spirit in biomedicine on collaborative relationships Given the unprecedented challenge of the HIV AIDS epidemic in the country the author suggests that more cooperation is vital Taking a critical look at the role of anthropology in this endeavor she proposes the development of a language of spirit by means of which the spirit inspired aetiology of izangoma sinyanga may be made comprehensible to academic scientists and applicable to medical interventions. The author discusses white izangoma in the context of current debates on healing and hybridity and insists that there exists a powerful role for izangoma in the realm of societal healing Above all the book constitutes a start in what the author hopes will develop into an ongoing intellectual conversation between traditional African healing academe and Advanced Consulting in Family Medicine Peter Worrall, Adrian French, Les biomedicine in South Africa Ashton, 2018-04-19 What distinguishes the consulting of experienced family doctors from their newly qualified colleagues The question is often frustratingly hard answer clearly or objectively unlike many professions family doctors face a dearth of clear expectations of what constitutes advanced practice a lack of defined standards against which to evaluate it and an absence of expertise related professional training in which to develop it post certification The model of consultation excellence outlined in this book illustrates in practical terms how advanced consulting can be nurtured It avoids tantalising value judgement such as excellence Instead it describes behaviours in terms that can be observed day to day providing a detailed picture of what constitutes advanced consulting behaviour how family doctors can be helped to acquire these higher levels of expertise and how changes in behaviour can be identified and evaluated Advanced Consulting in Family Medicine is written in handbook form for easy access and use and provides a vital vision of higher order family doctor consulting Presenting Issues in Psychotherapeutic Practice Barbara Douglas, Pam James, 2013-12-16 Learning how to work effectively with a broad range of clients and their presenting issues is a vital part of a career as a therapist but engaging with the often conflicting worlds of descriptive psychopathology and the subjective meanings of the therapist and client is a real challenge for trainees They have to develop the skills and knowledge that allow both approaches one medical one humanistic to work successfully together With the support of expert contributors Pam James and Barbara Douglas help your students to confidently do just that proving a comprehensive introduction to the theory research and practice behind a range of common presenting issues Key issues covered include Anxiety Depression Trauma Bipolar disorder Psychosis Eating disorders Borderline personality disorder This book should be on the desk of every counselling psychotherapy and counselling psychology trainee and is recommended reading for other practitioners of health and social care working with these common presenting issues Folk Healing and Health Care Practices in Britain and Ireland Ronnie Moore, Stuart McClean, 2010-06-01 Folk alternative and complementary health care practices in contemporary Western society are currently experiencing a renaissance albeit with features that are unique to this historical moment At the same time biomedicine is under scrutiny experiencing a number of distinct and multifaceted crises In this volume the authors draw together cutting edge cross cultural interdisciplinary research in Britain and Ireland focusing on exploring the role and significance of healing practices in diverse local contexts such as the use of crystals herbs cures and charms potions and
