Suffering For Territory Race Place And Power In Zimbabwe:

Suffering for Territory Donald S. Moore, 2005-09-12 An ethnographic study of Zimbabwe's land occupations that focuses on the effects of spatialized struggles on sovereignty and the nation state

Cosmopolitanism and the Geographies of Freedom David Harvey, 2009-08-22 Liberty and freedom are frequently invoked to justify political action Presidents as diverse as Woodrow Wilson Franklin Delano Roosevelt John F Kennedy Ronald Reagan and George W Bush have built their policies on some version of these noble values Yet in practice idealist agendas often turn sour as they confront specific circumstances on the ground Demonstrated by incidents at Abu Ghraib and Guantanamo Bay the pursuit of liberty and freedom can lead to violence and repression undermining our trust in universal theories of liberalism neoliberalism and cosmopolitanism

Combining his passions for politics and geography David Harvey charts a cosmopolitan order more appropriate to an emancipatory form of global governance Political agendas tend to fail he argues because they ignore the complexities of geography Incorporating geographical knowledge into the formation of social and political policy is therefore a necessary condition for genuine democracy Harvey begins with an insightful critique of the political uses of freedom and liberty especially during the George W Bush administration Then through an ontological investigation into geography's foundational concepts space place and environment he radically reframes geographical knowledge as a basis for social theory and political action As Harvey makes clear the cosmopolitanism that emerges is rooted in human experience rather than illusory ideals and brings us closer to achieving the liberation we seek

African Studies in the Academy Mawere, Munyaradzi, Mubaya, Tapuwa R., 2017-08-09 For a long time African Studies as a discipline has been spearheaded by academics and institutions in the Global North This puts African Studies on the continent at a crossroads of making choices on whether such a discipline can be legitimately accepted as an epistemological discipline seeking objectivity and truth about Africa and the African peoples or a discipline meant to perpetuate the North's hegemonic socio economic political and epistemic control over Africa The compound question that immediately arises is Who should produce what and which space should African Studies occupy in the academy both of the North and of the South Confronted by such a question one wonders whether the existence of African Studies Centres in the Global North academics open opportunities for critical thinking on Africa or it opens possibilities for the emergence of the same discipline in Africa as a fertile space for trans disciplinary debate While approaches critical for the development of African Studies are pervasive in African universities through fields such as cultural studies social anthropology history sociology indigenous knowledge studies and African philosophy the discipline of African Studies though critical to Africa is rarely practiced as such in the African academy and its future on the continent remains bleak African Studies in the Academy is a testimony that if honestly and objectively practiced the crossroads position of African Studies as a discipline makes it a fertile ground for generating and testing new approaches critical for researching and understanding Africa It also challenges Africa to seriously consider assuming its legitimate position to champion African

Studies from within These issues are at the heart of the present volume The Work of Repair Thomas Cousins,2023-06-06 In the timber plantations in northeastern South Africa laborers work long hours among tall swaying lines of eucalypts on land once theirs In 2008 at the height of the HIV AIDS crisis timber corporations distributed hot cooked meals as a nutrition intervention to bolster falling productivity and profits But life and sustenance are about much more than calories and machinic bodies What is at stake is the nurturing of capacity across all domains of life physical relational cosmological in the form of amandla An Nguni word meaning power strength or capacity amandla organizes ordinary concerns with one s abilities to earn a wage to strengthen one s body and to take care of others it describes the potency of medicines and sexual vitality and it captures a history of anti colonial and anti apartheid struggle for freedom The ordinary actions coordinated by and directed at amandla do not obscure the wounding effects of plantation labor or the long history of racial oppression but rather form the basis of what the Algerian artist Kader Attia calls repair In this captivating ethnography Cousins examines how amandla as the primary material of the work of repair anchors ordinary scenes of living and working in and around the plantations As a space of exploitation that enables the global paper and packaging industry to extract labor power the plantation depends on the availability of creative action in ordinary life to capitalize on bodily capacity The Work of Repair is a fine grained exploration of the relationships between laborers in the timber plantations of KwaZulu Natal and the historical decompositions and reinventions of the milieu of those livelihoods and lives Offering a fresh approach to the existential ethical and political stakes of ethnography from and of late liberal South Africa the book attends to urgent questions of postapartheid life the fate of employment the role of the state in providing welfare and access to treatment the regulation of popular curatives the queering of kinship and the future of custom and its territories Through detailed descriptions Cousins explicates the important and fragile techniques that constitute the work of repair the effort to augment one s capacity in a way that draws on acknowledges and reimagines the wounds of history keeping open the possibility of a future through and with others Hidden Treasure Patricia Chater,2012 Patricia Chater wrote this account of her life from the unique position of an English woman who became absorbed into a religious community when she joined the caring and spiritual church of St Francis in Zimbabwe in the early 1960s In a sympathetic understated and matter of fact manner she describes what it meant for the members of the community to struggle for liberation in their own land and then to face the challenges of the post independence years Her memoir is a contribution to the story of Zimbabwe showing how national events impact on one particular place and on one particular group of people Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure,2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author s excavations with native concepts and philosophies Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology

Moral Degeneration in Contemporary Zimbabwean Business Practices Munyaradzi Mawere,2011 This is an engaged and extremely well informed book on business and business ethics in a society with political and social economic crises As an engaging and engaged effort to bring a nexus between business ethics and business practices in any human society the book invites the reader to partake in pressing debates on business ethics in times of crisis The book provides a much needed interdisciplinary approach and marshals an extraordinary array of social and intellectual resources that positively inspire business people and business making It is wholesome and systematic in its articulation of the political and social forces that shape and are shaped by business Additionally it gives the reader a guided tour into the fascinating creativity that shapes and characterises business culture in contemporary Zimbabwe

At War with Women Jennifer Greenburg,2023-02-15 At War with Women reveals how post 9 11 politics of gender and development have transformed US military power In the mid 2000s the US military used development as a weapon as it revived counterinsurgency in Iraq and Afghanistan The military assembled all female teams to reach households and wage war through development projects in the battle for hearts and minds Despite women technically being banned from ground combat units the all female teams were drawn into combat nonetheless Based on ethnographic fieldwork observing military trainings this book challenges liberal feminist narratives that justified the Afghanistan War in the name of women s rights and celebrated women s integration into combat as a victory for gender equality Jennifer Greenburg critically interrogates a new imperial feminism and its central role in securing US hegemony Women s incorporation into combat through emotional labor has reinforced gender stereotypes with counterinsurgency framing female soldiers as global ambassadors for women s rights This book provides an analysis of US imperialism that keeps the present in tension with the past clarifying where colonial ideologies of race gender and sexuality have resurfaced and how they are changing today

Handbook of Decolonial Community Psychology Christopher C. Sonn,Jesica Siham Fernández,James Ferreira Moura Jr.,Monica Eviandaru Madyaningrum,Nick Malherbe,2024-10-21 This handbook offers refined interpretations of decolonial thought methodologies and practices in community psychology As a representative mapping of the broad range of decolonial cosmovisions experiences and praxes in community psychology and allied disciplines around the globe it brings together contributions from North America Latin America Europe Oceania Africa and Asia It offers an overview of community psychology with a decolonial focus and from a transnational perspective transcending intellectual geographical and cultural borders and constraining identities affirming and celebrating the unique identities experiences and positions of its contributors within the global landscape of knowledge and politics The handbook
