money is plentiful regulation weak and labor conditions severe Just how do authorities in such settings reconcile goals of oft claimed civic betterment with hyper segregation and radical inequality How do they align cosmopolitan sensibilities with authoritarian rule How do these elite custodians arrange tactical alliances to protect particular forms of social stratification and political control What sense can be made of their massive investment for environmental breakthrough in the midst of world class ecological mayhem To address such questions this book s contributors place the new Arab urban in wider contexts of trade technology and design Drawn from across disciplines and diverse home countries they investigate how these cities import projects plans and structures from the outside but also how increasingly Gulf originated initiatives disseminate to cities far afield Brought together by noted scholars sociologist Harvey Molotch and urban analyst Davide Ponzini this timely volume adds to our understanding of the modern Arab metropolis as well as of cities more generally Gulf cities display development patterns that however unanticipated in the standard paradigms of urban scholarship now impact the world
