WILSON HARRIS : A VISION OF ONENESS S N Vikram Raj URS,2015-08-01 It has been a painstaking study of collecting information and various interpretations from different sources The preoccupation of Harris is to explore and discover the buried truth in the Individual psyche I have attempted to show the wholeness of Man which is the major concern of Harris His creative insights into the The unknown modes of being are profound He tries to suggest an alternative vision of Reality to the upheavals and raging conflicts of the twentieth century I have drawn parallels and comparisons to the Indian tradition of The Upanishads to argue that Man strives after the indivisible whole I have not included his recent novels such as Carnival 1985 The Four Banks of the River of Space 1990 The Carnival Trilogy 1993 Jonestown 1996 The Dark Jester 2001 and The Mask of the Beggar 2003 Selected Essays of Wilson Harris A.J.M. Resisting Alterities ,2021-11-01 This volume of essays poetry and prose fiction records various attempts to read the fracture zones created by the discursive strategy of a democratic imagination where space and ideas are opened to new linguistic and literary insights Pride of place is taken by essays on the Caribbean writer Wilson Harris which explore the implications of his awareness of a polyphony of coexistent voices that dislodges the hegemony of Cartesian dualism This group of studies is rounded off with an interview with and searching testimony by Harris himself The further contributions take up the implications of the encounter with alterity strangers natives barbarians in order to underline not only wonder in the face of an unknown presence or the shame through which the subject discovers itself but also the resentment involved in the creation of demonized Others As the poet Charles Tomlinson states what we take to be otherness alterity can be readmitted into our literary consciousness and seen as part of the whole causing us to readjust our awareness of the possibilities of English These essays confirm that resistance is an interface of ambivalence between discursive worlds encouraging us to read the living network of a text contrapuntally Specific topics include Billy Bragg and New Labour Schopenhauer in Britain Objectivist poetry gender and sexual identity in Nancy Cunard in Scottish fiction multivocal discourse in South Africa specific forms of alterity in Jamaica Kincaid in the poetry of Edwin Morgan in allosemitism and the deculturalizing perils of globalization

Time, History, and Philosophy in the Works of Wilson Harris Gianluca Delfino,2016-05-31 Gianluca Delfino s study of one of the Caribbean s most controversial authors paves the way for looking at Wilson Harris s body of work in a new light Harris s imaginative approach to reality is discussed in relation to the categories of history and time with reference to several novels with a special focus on The Infinite Rehearsal Jonestown and The Dark Jester spanning more than forty years of his vast literary production Delfino s analysis encompassing critical perspectives ranging from African philosophy to Jungian readings through historiography and anthropology demonstrates that Harris s works as a whole show a remarkable unity of thought rooted in their author s complex imagination As a result the cross cultural quality of Harris s thought emerges as a healing outcome of the traumatic colonial encounter bringing together elements of Amerindian African and European origin in an ongoing dialogue with time nature and the psyche

In Praise of New Travelers Isabel Hoving, 2001 Approaching postcolonial theory through cultural analysis this book offers an accessible and concrete appraisal of current developments in postcolonial criticism Detailed readings of a range of Anglophone Caribbean migrant women s texts from the late 1980s and 1990s lead to sharp insights into three issues that are crucial to an understanding of the field place voice and silence The discussion of these issues allows us to trace current feminist postmodern and postcolonial debates about the nature of the speaking subject as it is emerging from today s postcolonial cultural practices Postcolonial criticism often understands this subject as hybrid and multiple This book shows how the specifics of this multiplicity must be acknowledged through analysis of the power structures and the violence through which this multiple subject is established The book is also a consistent inquiry into reading positions The argument about the differences between postcolonialist black and Caribbean feminist white feminist and postmodern criticism is conducted as a discussion about the effects insights and blindnesses produced by these different ways of reading Caribbean migrant women s writing Scrutinizing the grain of these texts encourages us to move beyond the kind of general statements for which postcolonial theory has been severely criticized The author also extends her critique of reading positions to issues of methodology using these approaches to direct her interpretation Narratology is supplemented by an analysis of the interdiscursive processes through which texts are created and psychoanalytic concepts are used to explore the ambiguous merits of postcolonial reading Above all In Praise of New Travelers celebrates the vigorous subversive and liberating creativity of an accomplished generation of Caribbean migrant women writers Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1971 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953 1955
