Stylistic And Narrative Structures In The Middle English Romances:

Stylistic and Narrative Structures in the Middle English Romances Susan Wittig, 2014-10-01 This volume provides a generic description based on a formal analysis of narrative structures of the Middle English noncyclic verse romances As a group these poems have long resisted generic definition and are traditionally considered to be a conglomerate of unrelated tales held together in a historical matrix of similar themes and characters As single narratives they are thought of as random collections of events loosely structured in chronological succession Susan Wittig however offers evidence that the romances are carefully ordered although not always consciously so according to a series of formulaic patterns and that their structures serve as vehicles for certain essential cultural patterns and are important to the preservation of some community held beliefs The analysis begins on a stylistic level and the same theoretical principles applied to the linguistic formulas of the poems also serve as a model for the study of narrative structures The author finds that there are laws that govern the creation selection and arrangement of narrative materials in the romance genre and that act to restrict innovation and control the narrative form The reasons for this strict control are to be found in the functional relationship of the genre to the culture that produced it The deep structure of the romance is viewed as a problem solving pattern that enables the community to mediate important contradictions within its social economic and mythic structures Wittig speculates that these contradictions may lie in the social structures of kinship and marriage and that they have been restructured in the narratives in a practical myth the concept of power gained through the marriage alliance and the reconciliation of the contradictory notions of marriage for power s sake and marriage for love s sake This advanced thorough and completely original study will be valuable to medieval specialists classicists linguists folklorists and Biblical scholars working in oral formulaic narrative structure Stylistic and background of 13th and 14th century royal baronial conflict this book assumes a new historical perspective Friction between Plantagenet kings and dissident barons contributed to the development of the problem of counsel both as an actuality and as a topos in the literature of the period Rule by counsel an ideal which informs medieval English government at every level is the author argues central to the ethos of Middle English romance The procedural formula of counsel and strategy is tested against a number of romances Ywain and Gawain Havelok Gamelyn Athelston a selection of nine romances from the Auchinleck manuscript and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight By selecting these narratives Geraldine Barnes is able to approach the question of counsel from a number of different angles This is a book which will stimulate considerable interest among scholars of medieval literature GERALDINE BARNES is Senior Lecturer in English Language and Early English Literature at the University of Sydney

A Companion to Medieval Popular Romance Raluca L. Radulescu, Cory James Rushton, 2009 Popular romance was one of the most wide spread forms of literature in the Middle Ages yet despite its cultural centrality and its fundamental importance for later literary developments the genre has defied precise definition its subject matter ranging from tales of chivalric adventure to saintly women and monsters that become human The essays in this collection provide contexts definitions and explanations for the genre particularly in an English context Topics covered include genre and literary classification race and ethnicity gender orality and performance the romance and young readers metre and form printing culture and reception

Middle English Romance and the Craft of Memory Jamie McKinstry, 2015 An examination of the depiction and function of memory in a variety of romances including Troilus and Criseyde and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight

The Chinese Text Yingxiong Zhou, 1986 The collection opens with Harry Levin's What is Literature if Not Comparative read in the Second Hong Kong Comparative Literature Conference 1982 and used here to highlight the significance of a comparative outlook in literary studies It is followed by five constellations of Chinese Western comparative studies some of which were read in the same conference and others specifically solicited The areas studied include classical Chinese drama Chinese narrative Chinese influence in modern American literature Chinese aesthetics and contemporary Chinese literature P 4 of cover

From Medieval to Medievalism John Simons, 1992-10-13 The book surveys medieval literature from both a critical and an historical standpoint Medieval literature is increasingly seen as an area of intense specialism which is to be treated differently from other areas of English Studies The essays collected here try to overturn this perception in two ways Firstly there is a demonstration of the ways in which modern critical approaches and perspectives work with the medieval text Secondly the idea of the medieval is shown historically to be a discourse which has been given different symbolic values and served different social purposes
