Substance Abuse Prevention In Multicultural Communities:

Substance Abuse Prevention in Multicultural Communities Jeanette Valentine, Judith Ann De Jong, 1998 This insightful volume describes a sample of prevention demonstration projects of the Center for Substance Abuse Prevention CSAP Substance Abuse Prevention in Multicultural Communities illuminates various aspects of prevention theory practice and research with a focus on the design implementation adaptation and outcome of specific demonstration programs Researchers work with prevention professionals to describe measure and intensify effects of interventions upon both intermediate problems and the ultimate long term goal of decreasing substance abuse Chapters in Substance Abuse Prevention in Multicultural Communities demonstrate how the CSAP demonstration logic model works The process of prevention program design begins with an analysis of the root causes of the problem as defined by the specific community and illuminated by theory Comprehensive prevention programs that buttress community strengths and build on local resources are then designed to deal with these problems The programs you ll learn from include a leadership and substance abuse prevention program based on the social influence model for girls in grades 6 8 from four geographically and ethnically diverse communities a program intricately designed to build resiliency and protective factors within young at risk American Indian children in a Head Start program which addresses school transition school readiness school attendance and classroom based prevention activities a family skills training program for African American parents in substance abuse treatment which evolved in response to client and evaluation feedback a program for Native American families which uses a culturally oriented curriculum emphasizing traditional values beliefs and practices a coalition of neighborhood agencies organized to provide a comprehensive array of school and community based prevention services which impacted gang membership in inner city Latino youth a prevention program specifically designed to serve the diverse needs of Asian American youth from five different Asian ethnic communities a model substance abuse prevention program implemented to provide counseling mentoring and academic support to Hispanic and African American students in an urban public middle school the nationally recognized FAST program which strengthens the family and brings parents and schools together in building up protective factors for high risk elementary students a program that combines several complementary strategies to develop personal and communal empowerment in Native American communities Substance Abuse Prevention in Multicultural Communities illustrates the wealth of information generated by demonstration programs Unlike a standard research protocol that imposes and tests a rigid single focused intervention under carefully controlled circumstances these programs do science in real life situations documenting and measuring effects of multiple interventions

Substance Abuse Prevention Kar Snehendu, 2020-06-10 In thirteen chapters twenty four authors share their analyses concerns and conclusions in several domains including the meaning and dynamics of multiculturalism affecting prevention intervention relative risks and knowledge gaps across ethnic groups social trends affecting health risks and substance abuse lessons learned from substance abuse research and prevention role of the media promises and limits of the new public health paradigm for assessment policy development assurance of preventive services and social action and empowerment for prevention in partnership with the public Encyclopedia of Substance Abuse Prevention, Treatment, and Recovery Gary L. Fisher, Nancy A. Roget, 2009 This collection provides authoritative coverage of neurobiology of addiction models of addiction sociocultural perspectives on drug use family and community factors prevention theories and techniques professional issues the criminal justice system and substance abuse assessment and diagnosis and more Substance Abuse Intervention, Prevention, Rehabilitation, and Systems Change Edith Freeman, 2001-09-26 This book is the first to utilize the empowerment approach of social work practice with substance abusing clients bridging clinical community and social policy approaches in order to place individual addiction in its sociopolitical context As Lorraine Gutierrez points out in her foreword the book challenges us to transform our thinking about substance abuse and move beyond our existing focus on individual deficits Arguing that pathology focused definitions of substance abuse tend to transform people into their problems Freeman instead advocates for strengths centered policies and regulations as the means to empower clients communities and society as a whole Freeman outlines basic empowerment principles and practices then details the service delivery processes offers a context for power policy and funding decisions and examines the needs of special populations Case examples supplement each chapter and the final part examines four exemplary programs that demonstrate the empowerment process in action
