Sufi Martyrs Of Love The Chishti Order In South Asia And Beyond:

Sufi Martyrs of Love Carl W. Ernst, Bruce B. Lawrence, 2002 Sufism is a mystical branch of Islam and one of the largest systems of religious affiliation in the Islamic world Sufi Martyrs of Love C. Ernst, B. Lawrence, 2016-04-30 Sufism is a religion which emphasizes direct knowledge of the divine within each person and meditation music song and dance are seen as crucial spiritual strides toward attaining unity with God Sufi paths of mysticism and devotion motivated by Islamic ideals are still chosen by men and women in countries from Morocco to China and there are nearly one hundred orders around the world eighty of which are present and thriving in the United States The Chishti Sufi order has been the most widespread and popular of all Sufi traditions since the twelfth century Sufi Martyrs of Love offers a critical perspective on Western attitudes towards Islam and Sufism clarifying its contemporary importance both in the West and in traditional Sufi homelands Finally it provides access to the voices of Sufi authorities through the translation of texts being offered in English for the first time

Sufi Civilities Annika Schmeding, 2023-11-28 Despite its pervasive reputation as a place of religious extremes and war Afghanistan has a complex and varied religious landscape where elements from a broad spectrum of religious belief vie for a place in society It is also one of the birthplaces of a widely practiced variant of Islam Sufism Contemporary analysts suggest that Sufism is on the decline due to war and the ideological hardening that results from societies in conflict However in Sufi Civilities Annika Schmeding argues that this is far from a truthful depiction Members of Sufi communities have worked as resistance fighters aid workers business people actors professors and daily workers in creative and ingenious ways to keep and renew their networks of community support Based on long term ethnographic field research among multiple Sufi communities in different urban areas of Afghanistan the book examines navigational strategies employed by Sufi leaders over the past four decades to weather periods of instability and persecution showing how they adapted to changing conditions in novel ways that crafted Sufism as a force in the civil sphere This book offers a rare on the ground view into how Sufi leaders react to moments of transition within a highly insecure environment and how humanity shines through the darkness during times of turmoil Sufism in Punjab Surinder Singh, Ishwar Dayal Gaur, 2023-12-01 This anthology is a collective endeavor of scholars from India and Pakistan devoted to Sufi mystics literature and shrines with a detailed introduction The essays explore the methods adopted by the Punjab Sufis to popularize the mystic ideology and praxis in the medieval socio cultural milieu These writings also delve into the different genres of Sufi literature both in the elite and vernacular languages intending to appreciate the nuances of Punjab Sufism Apart from the architectural features of the Sufi shrines the anthology attempts to illumine the organic linkages between these institutions and the Punjabis and thus underscore the Sufi non communitarian devotion as a primary ingredient of the Punjabi cultural fusion This title is co published with Aakar Books Print editions not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan India before Europe Catherine B. In Unknowing and the Everyday Seema Golestaneh examines how Sufi mystical experience in Iran shapes contemporary life Central to this process is ma rifat or unknowing the idea that as it is ultimately impossible to fully understand the divine humanity must operate from an engaged awareness that it knows nothing Golestaneh shows that rather than considering ma rifat an obstacle to intellectual engagement Sufis embrace that there will always be that which they do not know From this position they affirm both the limits of human knowledge and the mysteries of the profane world Through ethnographic case studies Golestaneh traces the affective and sensory dimensions of ma rifat in contexts such as the creation of collective Sufi spaces the interpretation of Persian poetry formulations of selfhood and non selfhood and the navigation of the socio material realm By outlining the relationship between ma rifat and religious aesthetic and social life in Iran Golestaneh demonstrates that for Sufis the outer bounds of human thought are the beginning rather than the limit
