English Dramatick Opera, 1661-1706 Andrew R. Walkling, 2019-03-19 English Dramatick Opera 1661-1706 is the first comprehensive examination of the distinctively English form known as dramatick opera which appeared on the London stage in the mid 1670s and lasted until its displacement by Italian through composed opera in the first decade of the eighteenth century Andrew Walkling argues that while the musical elements of this form are crucial to its definition and history the origins of the genre lie principally in a tradition of spectacular stagecraft that first manifested itself in England in the mid 1660s as part of a hitherto unidentified dramatic sub genre to which Walkling gives the name spectacle tragedy Armed with this new understanding the book explores a number of historical and interpretive issues including the physical and rhetorical configurations of performative spectacle the administrative maneuverings of the two patent theatre companies the construction and deployment of the technologically advanced Dorset Garden Theatre in 1670-71 the critical response to generic technical and ideological developments in Restoration drama and the shifting balance between machine spectacle and song and dance entertainment throughout the later decades of the seventeenth century including in the dramattick operas of Henry Purcell This study combines the materials and methodologies of music history theatre history literary studies and bibliography to fashion an entirely new approach to the history of spectacular and musical drama on the English Restoration stage This book serves as a companion to the Routledge publication Masque and Opera in England 1656-1688 2017 Developing Educators for The Digital Age Paul Breen,2018-02-21 Evaluating skills and knowledge capture lies at the cutting edge of contemporary higher education where there is a drive towards increasing evaluation of classroom performance and use of digital technologies in pedagogy Developing Educators for the Digital Age is a book that provides a narrative account of teacher development geared towards the further usage of technologies including iPads MOOCs and whiteboards in the classroom presented via the histories and observation of a diverse group of teachers engaged in the multiple dimensions of their profession Drawing on the insights of a variety of educational theories and approaches including TPACK it presents a practical framework for capturing knowledge in action of these English language teachers in their own voices indicating how such methods processes and experiences shed light more widely on related contexts within HE and may be transferable to other situations This book will be of interest to the growing body of scholars interested in TPACK theory or communities of practice theory and more widely anyone concerned with how new pedagogical skills and knowledge with technology may be incorporated in better practice and concrete instances of teaching Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith,Francis Walton,1920 The Outlook Lyman Abbott,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Ernest Hamlin Abbott,Francis Rufus Bellamy,1921 Friends' Intelligencer and Journal ,1898 Friends' Weekly Intelligencer ,1898
