The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864 He Was Some Kind of a Man Roderick McGillis, 2009-05-19 He Was Some Kind of a Man Masculinities in the B Western explores the construction and representation of masculinity in low budget western movies made from the 1930s to the early 1950s These films contained some of the mid twentieth century s most familiar names especially for youngsters cowboys such as Roy Rogers Hopalong Cassidy and Red Ryder The first serious study of a body of films that was central to the youth of two generations He Was Some Kind of a Man combines the author s childhood fascination with this genre with an interdisciplinary scholarly exploration of the films influence on modern views of masculinity McGillis argues that the masculinity offered by these films is less one dimensional than it is plural perhaps contrary to expectations Their deeply conservative values are edged with transgressive desire and they construct a male figure who does not fit into binary categories such as insider outsider or masculine feminine Particularly relevant is the author's discussion of George W Bush as a cowboy and how his aspirations to cowboy ideals continue to shape American policy This engagingly written book will appeal to the general reader interested in film westerns and contemporary culture as well as to scholars in film studies gender studies children's literature and autobiography

Preacher's Justice/fury Of The Mt Man William W. Johnstone, 2010-04-19 Preacher's Justice He Fought For His Freedom In a land of towering mountains and howling winds a man has found a home away from other men and away from memories of the past A trapper by trade a fighter at heart he has earned the name Preacher and a legend of his own He Fought For His Life In the wilds Preacher has learned the rules of survival and he has killed in order to live But now something is forcing him out of his Rocky Mountain range for the so called civilized world It is the memory of a woman It is her blood calling out for revenge Now He'll Fight For The Truth In St Louis a girl from Preacher's past has been murdered For the man whose heart she once touched the time has come to leave the high wild country for truth justice and a new reason to kill Rage Of The Mountain Man Big As A Bear Sly As A Cougar Mean As A Rattlesnake His Name Is Smoke Jensen Mountain Man Smoke Jensen is the most powerful man on the Sugarloaf frontier and he's all that stands between a greedy group of Eastern slickers and their schemes for a criminal empire in the Rockies When Smoke heads back to Boston with his wife it gives his enemies the opening they'd been waiting for to kill the mountain man and take over the West But even on the unfamiliar turf of back alleys and teeming docks Smoke is more than most men can handle until his wife is kidnapped Now Smoke is in a fury and in this fight all the way from Boston back to Dodge City and up to Yellowstone where a brutal showdown with a gang of hired guns awaits and where in a blazing hail of bullets and blood the legend of the big man is about to grow even bigger

Radio Rides the Range Jack French, David S. Siegel, 2013-11-05 This is a comprehensive encyclopedia to the more than 100 radio programs portraying the American West in fact and fiction heard by generations of listeners from the Great Depression through the Cold War era The book includes both the popular and lesser known series as well as would be offerings that never made it past the audition stage Each entry describes the series the extent to which it was based on actual facts the audience it was written for and its broadcast history The descriptions also examine how the programs reflected society's changing social and cultural attitudes towards racial and ethnic minorities and the role of women The availability of surviving audio copies and original scripts is noted An extensive bibliography and several appendices provide additional sources of information about Western programming during the Golden Age of Radio
