Devon's Smugglers A. Farquharson-Coe,1975 The Seventeenth-Century Customs Service Surveyed William B. Stephens,2016-03-03 In January 1682 William Culliford a loyal and experienced officer in the King s customs service began an extraordinary journey under Treasury orders to investigate the integrity and efficiency of the customs establishments of southwest England and south Wales as part of a drive to maximize the Crown s income from customs duties on which it relied for much of its revenue Starting at Bristol Culliford eventually completed this daunting task in Cornwall over two years later in the spring of 1684 His report on each of the ports he inspected the primary source for this book revealed widespread smuggling and fraud in the context of a customs service both lacking in efficiency and riddled with corruption The book documents the varied frauds and wide ranging abuses uncovered and their facilitation by customs officers only too ready to collude with smugglers dishonest merchants and seamen and to accept bribes to ignore tax evasion It describes too Culliford s assessment of the administrative practices of each port inspected and his judgment on the levels of probity and efficiency of individual officers detailing his recommendations for procedural improvements and the treatment of the corrupt and incompetent and incidentally of those suspected of political and religious dissent Additionally the book presents a body of statistical data on the customs revenue actually collected at individual ports in the 1670s and 1680s and surveys the extent and nature of the maritime trade of the ports Culliford examined It thus not only throws light on the history of the customs service but provides a rare insight into the interactions of economic social and political issues in the later seventeenth century and makes a valuable contribution to the particular histories of the ports and maritime districts visited by this energetic and tenacious investigator Smuggling Days in Devon ... Sex Trafficking Kimberly A. McCabe,Sabita Manian,2010-04-12 Global estimates of human trafficking range from 600 000 to four million victims each year with the majority being victims of sex trafficking This strikingly large range belies the difficulty in gathering defining and accountability of sex trafficking data Victims of sex trafficking may be forced into pornography prostitution for the military or militia spousal prostitution and prostitution for the sex tourism industry In response to the problem of sex trafficking many nations have either misunderstood the definition or failed to comprehend the magnitude that have occurs within their borders The United Nations has defined human trafficking as the recruitment transfer harboring or receipt of persons by threat or use of force Similarly the U S State Department s Trafficking Victims Protection Act 2000 describes severe forms of trafficking as a sex trafficking in which a commercial sex act is induced by force fraud or coercion or in which the person induced to perform such an act has not attained 18 years of age or b the recruitment harboring transportation provision or obtaining of a person for labor or services through the use of force fraud or coercion for the purpose of subjection to involuntary servitude peonage debt bondage or slavery In Sex Trafficking A Global Perspective sex trafficking is discussed in terms of its multiple purposes and its victims The essays provide information to build upon the limited knowledge base on the subject of sex trafficking and the legislative responses to human trafficking by the various highlighted countries This collection is unique because it serves the needs of those studying human trafficking from a global perspective by targeting the issue within every geographic region it provides a general profile of geographic regions in terms of demographic characteristics and political conditions that may support the growth of sex trafficking and it is written on a basic information supply level to provide readers with a fo

Protest, Politics and Work in Rural England, 1700-1850 Carl Griffin, 2013-11-28 Rural workers in eighteenth and early nineteenth century England were not passive victims in the face of rapid social change Carl J Griffin shows that they deployed an extensive range of resistances to defend their livelihoods and communities Locating protest in the wider contexts of work poverty and landscape change this new text offers the first critical overview of this growing area of study

Human Trafficking Under International and Tanzanian Law Nicksoni Filbert Kahimba, 2021-03-13 This book deals with the problem of human trafficking in Tanzania in the light of international law and considers human trafficking as both a criminal offence in Tanzania and a human rights violation within international law in general The book broadens the reader's understanding of the subject of human trafficking and Tanzania's legal approach to the issue and allows the reader to grasp Tanzania's anti trafficking piecemeal efforts from the 1970s onwards the reasons that made Tanzania ratify the Protocol to Prevent Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons Especially Women and Children supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and Tanzania's National Assembly's deliberations regarding the enactment of the Anti Trafficking in Persons Act of 2008 and the impact those deliberations have had on the current legal framework of Tanzania It provides a firsthand critical analysis of the Tanzania anti trafficking law pointing out its strengths weaknesses and areas for improvement in a comprehensive manner such as has never been attempted before The book shares many tips and even insights on how to read and apply Tanzania's 2015 Anti Trafficking Regulations in relation to the main law harmoniously It also offers complete instructions for common law practitioners court personnel researchers and other anti trafficking personnel on how to investigate and prosecute human trafficking prevent trafficking both lawfully and from occurring as well as assist victims of human trafficking and protect their human rights Nicksoni Filbert Kahimba is a doctoral researcher in the Faculty of Law of the Humboldt Universit t zu Berlin in Berlin

Germany The author also lectures at the School of Law of the University of Dar es Salaam in Tanzania Specific to this book Contains the only up to date critical analysis of the Tanzanian anti trafficking law in light of international law Equips common law practitioners court personnel researchers and other anti trafficking personnel with basic principles on how to combat human trafficking effectively while also protecting the victims thereof Simplifies a complicated picture of human trafficking and its myriad aspects in respect to the Tanzanian anti trafficking legal and institutional framework This is Volume 27 in the International Criminal Justice Series Human Trafficking John Winterdyk, Benjamin Perrin, Philip Reichel, 2011-12-05

Human trafficking is a crime that undermines fundamental human rights and a broader sense of global order It is an atrocity that transcends borders with some regions known as exporters of trafficking victims and others recognized as destination countries Edited by three global experts and composed of the work of an esteemed panel of contributors Slow Travel: North Devon & Exmoor Hilary Bradt, 2019 This new thoroughly updated edition of Bradt's award winning North Devon Exmoor remains the only dedicated general guide to this compelling area North Devon's relative inaccessibility has been a deterrent to ugly development and Exmoor National Park is one of the smallest least well known and utterly delightful of all national parks The rugged western cliffs around Hartland Point are the most dramatic in Devon and the cliff top walking some of the best New to this edition are several nature reserves which didn't make it into the first edition and more in depth descriptions of the far western part of Devon abutting the Cornish border Also included are the Gnome Reserve and the Bakelite Museum just two of several quirky places in the region and expanded information on the island of Lundy in the Bristol Channel as well as unique coverage of the whole of Exmoor National Park straddling Devon and Somerset Particularly intriguing are the many descriptions of country churches the storerooms of history The North Devon and Exmoor region is arguably the most scenic in the southwest No other has this blend of wild rugged coastline deep river valleys heather covered moorland family friendly sandy beaches great surfing and enchanting villages Some of the prettiest villages in the southwest are found here with cream teas aplenty Much information is unique to this guidebook blending descriptions of little known places and country pursuits with portraits of local characters past and present The guide also places special emphasis on car free travel walking local food pubs and unusual or special accommodation Whether you like to spend time exploring National Trust properties discovering gardens wildlife watching Exmoor is home to Britain's largest mammal the red deer or indulging in more active pursuits such as coasteering kayaking or just a gentle pony trek Bradt's North Devon Exmoor is the ideal companion for a successful visit The History of Smuggling and the Preventive Service M.
