Songs And Other Verse:

Songs and Other Verse Eugene Field, 2019-12-03 In Songs and Other Verse Eugene Field presents a vibrant collection of poetry that marries whimsy with profound human emotion. His literary style is characterized by rich imagery, playful language, and a childlike wonder that resonates with readers of all ages, celebrating the beauty of life's simple moments. Contextually, this work emerges from the late 19th century, a period marked by a growing interest in nostalgia and sentimentality, allowing Field to craft poems that both capture the zeitgeist and transcend time through universal themes of love, loss, and the fleeting nature of childhood. Eugene Field, a prominent American poet and journalist, was deeply influenced by his own experiences of joy and melancholy, particularly his affection for children and childhood lore. His background in journalism and literature provided him with a unique perspective on the human condition, while his own relationships and life events shaped his ability to express deep sentiments in an accessible way. Field's playful yet poignant approach reflects a multifaceted understanding of both simplicity and depth in poetry, echoing his personal experiences with family and the world around him. Songs and Other Verse is highly recommended for readers seeking a poetic escape into the whimsical and reflective realms of emotion. Field's ability to connect with audiences through the innocent lens of childhood makes this collection a timeless treasure. Whether you are a lover of classic poetry or a newcomer, this work invites you to explore the imaginative landscapes of its lyrical beauty and emotional resonance.

Featuring innovative research by emergent and established scholars, The Fin de Siècle Poem throws new light on the remarkable diversity of poetry produced at the close of the nineteenth century in England. Opening with a detailed preface that shows why literary historians have frequently underrated fin de siècle poetry, the collection explains how a strikingly rich body of lyrical and narrative poems anticipated many of the developments traditionally attributed to Modernism. Each chapter in turn provides insights into the ways in which late nineteenth century poets represented their experiences of the city their attitudes toward sexuality their responses to empire and their interest in religious belief The eleven essays presented by editor Joseph Bristow pay renewed attention to the achievements of such legendary writers as Oscar Wilde John Davidson Ernest Dowson Lionel Johnson and W B Yeats whose careers have always been associated with the 1890s This book also explores the lesser known but equally significant advances made by notable women poets including Michael Field Amy Levy Charlotte Mew Alice Meynell A Mary F Robinson and Graham R Tomson The Fin de Siecle Poem brings together innovative research on poetry that has been typecast as the attenuated Victorianism that was rejected by Modernism The contributors underscore the remarkable innovations made in English poetry of the 1880s and 1890s and show how woman poets stood shoulder to shoulder with their better known male contemporaries Joseph Bristow is professor of English at the University of California Los Angeles where he edits the journal Nineteenth Century Literature His recent books include The Cambridge Companion to Victorian Poetry Oscar Wilde Contextual Conditions and the variorum edition of Oscar Wilde s The Picture of Dorian Gray
