Sixteen Times Round Cape Horn:

The Last Time Around Cape Horn William F. Stark, 2009-04-29 In 1949 a young Dartmouth student named William Stark left his study abroad program in Zurich for a berth as an Ordinary Seaman on a Finnish windjammer that would carry 60 000 sacks of barley 12 000 miles in 128 days from Australia to Europe around Cape Horn This is Stark's engrossing memoir of the end of a long tradition of young men going to sea in the Great Age of Sail and the final rounding by a commercial sailing ship of fearsome Cape Horn the veritable Mount Everest of sailing Stark vividly chronicles the Pamir's journey through the world's stormiest seas as he worked brutal four hour watches on decks awash with the huge swells of the Southern Ocean and scrambled up ice coated rigging to manhandle sails on masts that were up to twenty stories high Stark experienced the shipboard life of the seventeenth century in 1949 on a vessel longer than a football field Contrasting the romance and realities of life on the sea and poignantly evoking the passionate love affair he left behind Stark wrote a thrilling narrative that brings closure to the era of Cape Horn merchant sailors that began more than three centuries before Pages of memorable photographs are included

Forty-niners 'round the Horn Charles R. Schultz, 1999 Drawing upon more than one hundred unpublished diaries Schultz profiles the individuals who embarked on these journeys and demonstrates how markedly the gold rush voyages differed from general commercial trading and whaling ventures

BOOK JACKET

Food at Sea Simon Spalding, 2014-12-11 Food at Sea Shipboard Cuisine from Ancient to Modern Times traces the preservation preparation and consumption of food at sea over a period of several thousand years and in a variety of cultures The book traces the development of cooking aboard in ancient and medieval times through the development of seafaring traditions of storing and preparing food on the world's seas and oceans Following a largely chronological format Simon Spalding shows how the raw materials cooking and eating equipments and methods of preparation of seafarers have both reflected the shoreside practices of their cultures and differed from them The economies of whole countries have developed around foods that could survive long trips by sea and new technologies have evolved to expand the available food choices at sea Changes in ship construction and propulsion have compelled changes in food at sea and Spalding's book explores these changes in cargo ships passenger ships warships and other types over the centuries in fascinating depth of detail Selected passages from songs and poems quotes from seafarers famous and obscure and new insights into culinary history all add spice to the tale

From Whaler to Clipper Ship Michael Jay Mjelde, 2023-12-14 Captain Henry Gillespie 1857-1937 of Portland Maine went to sea as a young man of 17 serving as able bodied seaman on a New Bedford whaler Over the next 47 years he would advance to deck officer then master of sailing and steam ships He was commissioned as an officer in the US Navy during World War I commanding vessels operating in the war zone Following the war he returned to merchant marine service until his retirement in 1921 Maritime historian Michael Jay Mjelde has chronicled the colorful life and career of this down east man of the sea mining available first person accounts interviews with family members government records and maritime archives on both coasts The result is a narrative in clear highly engaging prose that puts readers on the tilting decks and noisy wharfs frequented by Gillespie Through Mjelde s retelling of a remarkable life the age of clipper ships the Cape Horn trade and oceangoing steamers comes into vivid relief affording a richly embossed assessment of Captain Gillespie s life and times From Whaler to Clipper Ship adds a layer of full bodied context to our understanding of this pivotal era in American maritime history The wealth of detail will appeal to scholars students and maritime history enthusiasts
