Engaging the Spirit Robert Boak Slocum, 2018-02-20 For too long the Holy Spirit has tended to be either disregarded or the object of fanatical exclamation in the life of the church especially in western Christianity writes general editor Robert Boak Slocum in his introduction to this stimulating collection of eighteen essays from a broad spectrum of noted authors The essays in this collection give attention to many ways of the Spirit's life and activity for salvation and healing for making Christ present in our lives and in the church for empowering our prayers and liturgies for our inspiration and gifting for transformation of the way we live for the redemption of the world and the ultimate coming of God's kingdom for the unity of our relationships with each other and God As we recognize the Spirit's activity in our traditions and doctrines our prayers and liturgies and in all aspects of the life we live we may be better attuned to the leading of the Spirit into the future of faith and our life in God Engaging the Spirit was first published as a special Summer 2001 edition of the Anglican Theological Review and is dedicated to the late Charles P Price theologian and professor at Virginia Seminary A posthumously published essay by Dr Price is a fitting and unique addition to the collection

License to Spill Rachel Plotnick, 2025-04-29 How everyday wetness from finger smudges sweat and spilled drinks to showering and swimming collides with consumers media devices designed to stay dry License to Spill investigates the everyday moments activities and spaces where media technologies and liquids collide from disastrous spilled drinks that corrode laptops and drops in the toilet that drown smartphones to the greasy finger smudges and sweat droplets that sully screens and glitch smartwatches Putting historical and present day case studies in conversation Rachel Plotnick considers how people's experiences with media devices inevitably encounter wetness and yet consumers not the companies who make the devices take the blame when leaks spillages and overflows occur Along with thinking about preventive measures and device caretaking License to Spill examines how water resistant and waterproofed technologies through their design and marketing imagine the brawniest and hardest of users meant to punish and abuse their tough devices granting them unfettered permission to get wet Examining a long history of torture testing and hyperbolic claims of imperviousness the book demonstrates how protective designs relate to broader cultural ideas about media use as sporty luxurious excessive or messy This context is especially relevant given that the market for water resistant bags cases coatings and seals has flourished over the past decade with new rhetoric about wetness as natural and digital technologies as ever present The book pushes us to attend to both the ideals and problems that arise when designing resilient devices ranging from the right to repair movement and lawsuits over ingress protection IP ratings to obsolescence culture and work from home activities in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic

Spectacles of Waste Warwick Anderson, 2024-03-13 The modern bathroom is an ingenious compilation of locked doors smooth porcelain 4 ply tissue and antibacterial hand soap but despite this miracle of indoor plumbing we still can't bear the thought that anyone else should know that our bodies produce waste Why must we live by the rules of this intense scatological embarrassment In Spectacles of Waste leading historian of medicine Warwick Anderson reveals how human excrement has always complicated humanity's attempts to become modern From wastewater epidemiology and sewage snooping to fecal transplants and excremental art he argues that our insistence on separating ourselves from our bodily waste has fundamentally shaped our philosophies social theories literature and art even the emergence of high tech science as we understand it today Written with verve and aplomb Anderson's expert analysis reveals how in recent years humanity has doubled down on abstracting and datafying our most abject waste and unconsciously underlined its biopolitical signature across our lives
