C. P. Snow and the Struggle of Modernity John de la Mothe, 2013-09-06 The condition of modernity springs from that tension between science and the humanities that had its roots in the Enlightenment but reached its full flowering with the rise of twentieth century technology It manifests itself most notably in the crisis of individuality that is generated by the nexus of science literature and politics one that challenges each of us to find a way of balancing our personal identities between our public and private selves in an otherwise estranging world This challenge which can only be expressed as the struggle of modernity perhaps finds no better expression than in C P Snow In his career as novelist scientist and civil servant C P Snow 1905 1980 attempted to bridge the disparate worlds of modern science and the humanities While Snow is often regarded as a late Victorian liberal who has little to say about the modernist period in which he lived and wrote de la Mothe challenges this judgment reassessing Snow s place in twentieth century thought He argues that Snow s life and writings most notably his Strangers and Brothers sequence of novels and his provocative thesis in The Two Cultures and the Scientific Revolution reflect a persistent struggle with the nature of modernity They manifest Snow s belief that science and technology were at the center of modern life

T. Dent,2020-03-16 In Above the Snow Line Mountaineering Sketches Between 1870 and 1880 C T Dent crafts a compelling collection of personal narratives that encapsulate the exhilarating yet perilous experiences of late 19th century mountaineers Written in a meticulous yet vivid prose style Dent s work not only captures the physical challenges of high altitude adventures but also delves into the aesthetic and philosophical dimensions of nature during a time of burgeoning exploration The sketches reflect a Romantic sensibility blending ornate descriptions with introspective musings while situating the reader within the roaring challenges posed by the untamed alpine environment C T Dent an avid mountaineer and adventurer drew from his own extensive experiences in the mountains to create this volume His background in both literature and natural history provided him with the unique lens through which to observe and document the evolving relationship between humans and the sublime landscapes they sought to conquer Dent s insightful observations and reflections are informed by the era s shifting attitudes towards exploration and nature highlighting both the thrill of adventure and the risks involved For those intrigued by the intersection of adventure nature and literary expression Dent s book is a treasure trove of historical and cultural significance It not only serves as a memoir of a bygone era but also invites readers to contemplate their own relationship with the mountains urging a reverence for nature that resonates timelessly I highly recommend this volume to anyone passionate about mountaineering history or the enduring allure of the natural world

Ingratitude erin Khuê Ninh, 2011-03-28 2013 Winner of the Asian American Studies Association's prize in Literary Studies Anger and bitterness tend to pervade narratives written by second generation Asian American daughters despite their largely unremarkable upbringings In Ingratitude erin Khuê Ninh explores this apparent paradox locating in the origins of these women's maddeningly immaterial suffering not only racial hegemonies but also the structure of the immigrant family itself She argues that the filial debt of these women both demands and defies repayment all the better to produce the docile subjects of a model minority Through readings of Jade Snow Wong's Fifth Chinese Daughter Maxine Hong Kingston's The Woman Warrior Evelyn Lau's Runaway Diary of a Street Kid Catherine Liu's Oriental Girls Desire Romance and other texts Ninh offers not an empirical study of intergenerational conflict so much as an explication of the subjection and psyche of the Asian American daughter She connects common literary tropes to their theoretical underpinnings in power profit and subjection In so doing literary criticism crosses over into a kind of collective memoir of the Asian immigrants daughter as an analysis not of the daughter but for and by her
