Lost Endeavour Charles Watkins,2023-11-05 Charles Watkins sailed for the Dardanelles in 1915 with the 1 6th Battalion Lancashire Fusiliers War he said was a welcome escape from hard labour in a Lancashire cotton mill Fifty years later he wrote his memoir a hotch potch of Gallipoli memories In perpetrating this literary outrage some apology is due I could give many plausible excuses for recording moments of this disastrous campaign but the real truth is the selfish pleasure I find in recalling one crowded hour of glorious life It was my very good fortune to serve with a Lancashire Territorial Division To the memory of those contumacious argumentative sentimental and lovable Lancashire lads Salud No better comrades ever trod the field of battle Students of military strategy and tactics had best throw this book away for they ll learn nothing from it In fact I know even less of strategy and tactics than did the High Ups who conducted the campaign What s more a lowly private soldier sees very little of the larger picture of war his own grubby little nose is always buried too deeply in his own particular patch of the dung heap The Gallipoli Campaign is not short of operational histories but few accounts get into the mind of the private soldier so successfully The trouble says Watkins is that most old soldiers develop a reluctance to talk except perhaps after a few drinks and when we seem then to get a little boastful and silly At best and when we are stone sober we feel we are merely a little boring to a new and unsympathetic generation So we clam up We leave it to the cold clinical dissection of historians to record the battles the victories and the defeats The live and vivid experiences of the soldiers themselves are seldom if ever recorded which is a pity for without these how can the atmosphere of the times themselves ever be made to come to life Lost Endeavour was published for limited and private circulation in 1970 then again in 1982 For this modern edition the editors have added a short biography of Watkins as an appendix alongside several articles he wrote for the Gallipoli Association s journal The Gallipolian For background and context the editors include their notes on individuals places and events mentioned by Watkins in the text The reader will also find detail on the 6th Lincs Fusiliers at Helles the battalion s establishment drafts and battle casualties a timeline for May to December 1915 eight maps and a Gallipoli roll of honour

His new mission will take him to Andromeda to get a close up look at the constellation which will eventually crash into the Milky Way and give humanity a heads up about the challenges which are coming A mission which will take him five million years to complete Not only is Hackett exploring unknown space but he will return to a vastly different time Mela's world is coming to an end Erosion is eating away at the edges of every landmass first at a rate of ten metres a year but fast accelerating displacing people and animals as the rising Tide destroys everything in its path Putting more and more pressure on the people and resources which remain She and her people have always known that this long predicted end to their home one of the Thousand Earths is coming but that makes their fight to survive to protect each other no less desperate and no less doomed A beautiful page turning story which interweaves the tale of these two characters separated by both space and time in a hopeful exploration of humanities future this is Stephen Baxter at his best

Theosophon 2033 Richard Leviton,2015-08-20 Its September 29 2033 and the Earth and humanity have entered a cathedral of Light 1 000 light years tall and wide One Saturday morning in June 2040 Boston editor Edward Burbage is visited by an enigmatic traveller calling himself Blaise Hes been off the planet for 20 years helping to orchestrate a unique event called the Theosophon Now hes here to tell his story and what happened in 2033 when Earth reality changed This Blaisehes clearly a human age about 90 yet hes not in a human body anymore at least not a physical one He claims to have spent much of the last 20 years commuting from his home planet in the Celaeno system in the Pleiades to Earth Why the Pleiades Because thats where the prime designers of the Earth reside and the Theosophon a kind of galactic musical event a song fest of the gods is the next step in the perfection of this design for consciousness The only reason Burbage believes him is that he has had a bit of a wild adventure himself Copies of his newly published book describing this sit on his coffee table Hes seen this intriguing Blaise a few times in the past and in fact hes edited two of his posthumous books Burbage notes It wasnt that Blaise had a mystery to reveal to me he was the mystery Everything about him As the narration ripens over the next three years Burbage is astonished to learn he was a key participant in the event even though up until this moment he had no memory of it Blaise changes all that The Theosophon he says was like a subtle slow motion psychic earthquake rumbling just beyond the border of normal perception like a band of angels were shaking the Earth It lasted a day in terms of peak intensity but it is still happening years later
