A Ranger's Life T. W. Strait,2011-05-12 T W Strait was employed by the Missouri State Park Board each summer from 1958 through 1962 He was a college summer day worker for the first year but became the Campground Supervisor for the next four summers Most of what you will read comes from many personal experiences and a bit of creative license He saw so many things happen through young eyes that have stuck with him for these many years Tom met his wife while working at the park and has had a fondness for all memories connected with that work experience He made many friendships while employed there and for that reason felt it important to share those experiences with you When Tom started working for the Park System at Lake Ozark State Park he arrived as a 210 pound over weight spoon fed son of an IBM Branch Manager who got the job for him during the Christmas break of 1957 Tom's junior year in high school Mowing his dad's yard and watching TV was his only summer interests during previous summers This summer was be different Upon arriving at the park Tom was quartered in the back room of the main park office with a bunk and with only a refrigerator and a hot plate for appliances There was no hot water heater so any showers were taken in very cold well water in the basement or by catching aride to the campground six miles away for a hot shower With no vehicle Tom depended on the other students with cars two to go to town to shop for groceries and other necessities This was a major difference in his past lifestyle Tom's duties that first year were to help clean all of the restrooms at the campground swimming beach and picnic shelter After doing that he helped haul garbage from each of the above locate ones and then hauled wood back to the campers Once done with those projects he and the other boys cut grass and whipped weeds for the rest of each day Once week he and his co harts got to runt he road picking up litter thrown out by thoughtless visitors That was a 6 mile run in very hot and humid weather Every once in a while he got the privilege of helping pump out the out house toilets in the campground and that was an enlightening experience Needless to say by summers end Tom had lost 35 pounds and had really gained some never before enjoyed muscle tone as well as had received a very good education of what life was really all about The next 4 years as Supervisor he assigned duty es to the then 6 extra students and he also collected camp fees During those 5 years he gained a real appreciate on for life and the feelings of others that has carried with him throughout his later career as a Marketing Manager After graduating from Indiana University School of Business in 1963 he married his park sweetheart and went to work for a major oil company for the next 4 years He attained the tattle of Senior Sales Representative before leaving to go back to Missouri to work with a smaller independent oil company as Sales Manager Here he stayed for the next 40 years helping build the company to a multimillion dollar concern He is currently semi retired working three days a week for that company and working the other two days with his son in a company they started in 1997 called T S Distributors L L C that sells installs and services automotive equipment Tom credits his park experience for much of his business success It was there he gained firsthand experience dealing with about every conceivable type of situation imaginable The wife beating attempted suicide accidents lassoing the wounded deer the lost camper the German shepherds the lost teeth the couple in the tent the Clydesdales and forest fires were all things in which Tom personally had to become involved None of the characters named in this book are real or reflect on anyone he worked with in the park The comradely however did prevail there throughout his tenure Tom's dealings with all park and Park Board personnel were handled in a very positive an dedicational manner and he is most grateful to the Board and Mr Joe Jaeger its Director at the time for giving him the chance of a life time and the job Tom also dedicates this book to his first

Superintendent Mr Ned Brown who died in a truck accident very much like the one his character JJ in the book experienced Tom hopes you enjoy these stories as much as he enjoyed experiencing or creating them Only Jody Knows Craig B. Ewald,2014-05 Only Jody Knows is based on a true story about a girl who disappeared after a series of events in her life in 1900 It is told by a young boy who lived through her disappearance and participated in events to find her Travel with him as you start at the Sheridan Wyoming County Fair in the late 1930s and flashback thirty years earlier when he lived the adventure A gold locket burning torches bloodhounds and much much more are part of this story about Jody Read it and enjoy it The River and the Railroad David Menary,2007 Folklife and Superstition Sandra

Rollings-Magnusson,2024-10-15 A captivating history of folk traditions beliefs and culturally diverse customs in the early homesteading era on the Canadian Prairies The homesteading era on the Canadian Prairies 1867 1914 was a dynamic period of history when hundreds of thousands of men women and children migrating primarily from northwestern and eastern Europe descended nascent provinces of Alberta Saskatchewan and Manitoba Some were lured by the promise of prosperity and land ownership while others were fleeing war famine and persecution Homesteaders have been studied and written about extensively often within the context of settling the Canadian West and the displacement of Indigenous populations These narratives while crucial to our understanding of Canada s national identity and colonial past tend to obscure the personal stories beliefs and mindsets of those individuals who came to this part of the world and made a life there Drawing on a treasure trove of archival sources historian Sandra Rollings Magnusson presents a vivid and deeply personal collection of Prairie folklife revealing stories full of humour superstition fear and hope She gives insight into homesteaders daily lives including instances of water witching signs of good and bad luck neighbourly practical jokes and popular pastimes Through adaptation hardship homesickness and a sense of adventure they built communities with others from different backgrounds creating a unique culture that blended the old with the new Shadow Dancer Steve Haskin,2021-06-08 Shadow Dancer by Steve Haskin The Priest and the Gondolier Mervyn Nel,2023-04-30 The Priest and the Gondolier is a fascinating new novel by Mervyn Nel Venice experiences a series of art heists Paintings are stolen from museums and art galleries Chief Superintendent Gina Rossi of the Italian Police and Harry Wilson an art expert who does freelance work for Interpol in the United Kingdom are commissioned to investigate As their investigation deepens Harry suspects that someone within Gina s department is providing the thieves with confidential information Though they are often in agreement on how to take the investigation further at times they see things differently They receive help from two unlikely sources The first is from Father Mancini an elderly priest who translated an ancient manuscript from Latin into Italian and the second is from a middle aged gondolier Sergio Alfano who in his youth was Europe s foremost art forger Together they devise an ingenious plan to trap the thieves Destined to be a literary classic The Priest and the Gondolier will take your imagination on a fascinating journey through the beautiful city of Venice The author will guide you through its intricate lanes and canals letting you see the real La Serenissima or as stated in his own words a means to experience Venice from a perspective that is anything but ordinary Mervyn Nel graduated from the University of Johannesburg with a national diploma in Personnel Management and Industrial Psychology He has since become a full time South African author who after the successful publication of his most recent novel Theft from Delos he left the corporate world to pursue his passion for writing Mervyn has penned several articles for mainstream magazines in addition to which between 2005 and 2012 he wrote short stories plays and poems for learners between the grades of two and twelve whose home language was not English but who wished to be taught in English as their first language When he is not writing Mervyn takes pleasure in being out in nature or enjoying time with his two beloved two cats in his garden in Weltevredenpark the place he calls home

Serengeti Story Anthony Sinclair,2012-11-22 Serengeti is arguably the most well known and highly treasured conservation area in the world In 1972 the United Nations meeting on National Parks and Protected Areas agreed to set up World Heritage Sites now supervised by UNESCO and at that meeting they voted Serengeti top of the list What makes this site outstanding What happens in Serengeti biologically How did it become a protected area What are the historical events that have shaped its present dynamics What will happen to it in future How has it become relevant to human society and conservation These are the questions that Anthony Sinclair answers First arriving in Serengeti in 1961 he has worked as a scientist in this ecosystem since 1965 and continues to do so today In the process he has documented not only the ecological events as the system has changed but also the political economic and social events that have driven these changes Including personal accounts of the dramatic events brought about by the vicissitudes of political turmoil he tells the story of Serengeti and its surrounding research Providing the historical background both the paleohistory going back 4 million years and the modern history of the region he examines the future of conservation considering the ominous threats facing the Serengeti today
