Songs of Silence Curdella Forbes, 2021-06-28 There have been many great and enduring works of literature by Caribbean authors over the last century The Caribbean Contemporary Classics collection celebrates these deep and vibrant stories overflowing with life and acute observations about society Falling in the spaces between knowing and not knowing between silence and not speaking Told from the perspective of Marlene Songs of Silence is a vivid collection of reflections and recollections that meander through life in rural Jamaica observing the lives and bonds of its colourful boisterous inhabitants Rich poetical and profoundly contemplative the recollections transcend the gossip and intrigue the unsaid thoughts and silences to ossify in a maturation of selfhood It is not the Bam Baddam of Papacita but rather the murmur of the river this inexplicable river and its cool morning misty silence that settles across this collection singing to it and to the reader in a thoughtful lull and soft hum

Shinha Sarder,2025-08-23 This book is the story of a voice born out of silence a journey where music became the only language capable of carrying heartbreak longing and survival It unfolds through the artist's haunting collection of songs No Stars Heard Our Pain Fading Love in Quiet Shadows Lost Between Love and Pride Love Whispered but You Left I Wait Where You Forgot We Spoke Through Broken Hearts Our Memories Hurt in Silence Only Silence Answered My Love Love Cries Behind Closed Eyes and Your Silence Broke My Heart each one a confession each one a witness to the fragile places where love begins falters and disappears The book does not present these works as mere lyrics or melodies but as lived experiences as echoes of nights spent waiting as testaments to the invisible weight of silence that shapes every human relationship Through lyrical prose and intimate storytelling the artist's life emerges not in tidy chapters but in flowing emotion the childhood shaped by unspoken words the discovery of music as a survival instinct the struggle between pride and vulnerability and the long nights spent writing verses that felt less like choices and more like necessities Each song is remembered not only as a creation but as a moment of truth the recognition that fading love can still burn that words spoken can contradict actions that waiting in forgotten places can break the heart yet still inspire beauty The description of these songs reveals more than the narrative of an artist it is a mirror for anyone who has loved lost or been silenced Every melody becomes a vessel carrying not only the personal pain of its creator but also the unspoken griefs of listeners who find themselves reflected in the lyrics What begins with cries unheard by stars evolves into the devastating silence that shatters love but within this trajectory lies resilience the insistence that even heartbreak can be transformed into something that survives This book is not a biography not a diary and not a simple lyric collection It is an unbroken meditation on what it means to be human when silence speaks louder than words It invites readers into the dimly lit spaces where songs are born into the rituals of late night writing into the tremors of live performances where personal sorrow becomes communal catharsis The artist s voice rises from these pages not as entertainment but as necessity as evidence that to sing is to endure In its entirety the work stands as a love letter to anyone who has ever whispered and been left waited and been forgotten spoken through heartbreak or wept in secret It is proof that while silence may wound music will always answer Catalogue of (printed) music.
