Sons and Lovers David Herbert Lawrence,Helen Baron,Carl Baron,1994 Paul Morel s childhood and early manhood in the English midlands are deeply affected by his devotion to and concern for his dominating mother Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Secret Sharers Jennifer Spitzer,2023-02-21 Secret Sharers traces a genealogy of secret sharing between literary modernism and psychoanalysis focusing on the productive entanglements and intense competitive rivalries that helped shape Anglo American modernism as a field As Jennifer Spitzer reveals such rivalries played out in explicit criticism inventive misreadings and revisions of Freudian forms from D H Lawrence s re descriptions of the unconscious to Vladimir Nabokov s parodies of the psychoanalytic case study While some modernists engaged directly with Freud and Freudian psychoanalysis with unmistakable rivalry and critique others wrestled in more complex ways with Freud s legacy The key protagonists of this study D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf W H Auden and Vladimir Nabokov are noteworthy for the way they engaged with popularized and revised the terms of Freudian psychoanalysis while also struggling with it as an encroaching discourse Modernists read psychoanalysis misread psychoanalysis and sometimes refused to read it altogether while expressing anxiety about being read by psychoanalysis subjecting themselves and their art to psychoanalytic interpretations As analysts such as Freud Ernest Jones and Alfred Kuttner turned to literature and art to illustrate psychoanalytic theories modernists sought to counter such reductive narratives by envisioning competing formulations of the relationship between literature and psychic life Modernists often expressed ambivalence about the probing symptomatic style of psychoanalytic interpretation and responded with a re doubling of arguments for aesthetic autonomy formal self consciousness and amateurism Secret Sharers reveals how modernists transformed the hermeneutic and diagnostic priorities of psychoanalysis into novel aesthetic strategies and distinctive modes of epistemological and critical engagement In reassessing the historical and intellectual legacies of modernism this book suggests that modernist responses to psychoanalytic criticism anticipate more recent critical debates about the value of symptomatic reading and the hermeneutics of suspicion Re-Entering Old

Spaces Aleksandra Nikcevic-Batricevic, 2016-05-11 This book is a product of the XI International Conference on English Language and Literary Studies held in Montenegro in 2014 The old spaces were taken as a metaphorical tool for reintroducing a wide range of established topics with new approaches Space was thus understood as physical mechanical continuous linear as measurable and symbolic as subjective and relational and as aesthetic It was found on maps in architecture on theatre stages in books in hearts in one's identity in time and in theses and theories from the Aristotelian topos to Einstein's construct of space time Therefore the means of travel to these spaces and the forms the journeys take are also multifarious However so are the discursive strategies and their limitations when it comes to presenting the journeys and their destinations The contributors to this volume represent a range of nationalities and present research that either follows in the footsteps of other authors in a literal or secondary literary journey to real geographical places or observes the universal literary and old theoretical issues through new critical lenses Indeed they are often on both roads witnessing how inextricable human efforts are to finding identifying and aestheticising oneself in relation to a particular space Their contributions to this book expose how spaces were created and recreated through writing and symbolical representations in general They also show how the images of these spaces have been changing in consent to the intentions of their visitors and reveal that persistent and obstinate moment in a space that despite or in spite of changing perspectives itself refuses to be changed The book will encourage further contributions to this expanding field in the humanities In their numerous and distinct ways the contributions to this particular book maintain that understanding how spaces are conceived and conceptualised is of pronounced importance in the globalized world in which cultures are gradually losing authenticities while their spaces geographical tourist spiritual literary aesthetic are as reflective of the visitors as they are of the hosts
