L M Montgomery's books were unworthy of serious study. Examining all of Montgomery's fiction, Epperly argues that Montgomery was much more than a master of the romance genre and that through her use of literary allusions, repetitions, irony, and comic inversions, she deftly manipulated the normal conventions of romance novels. Focusing on Montgomery's memorable heroines from Anne Shirley to Emily Byrd Starr, Valancy Stirling, and Pat Gardiner, Epperly demonstrates that Montgomery deserves a place in the literary canon not just as the creator of Anne of Green Gables but as an artist in her chosen profession. Since its publication more than twenty years ago, The Fragrance of Sweet Grass has become a favourite of scholars, writers, and Montgomery fans. This new edition adds a preface in which Epperly discusses the book's contribution to the ongoing research on the life and writing of L M Montgomery, reflects on how Montgomery studies have flourished over the past two decades, and suggests new ways to approach and explore the Canadian writer's work.

The Gospel watchman, 1880     The Christian Treasury, 1860     Christian Work, 1899     Christian Treasury, 1860     Baba's Love, Bill, 2018-01-03. Baba's Love is a story about a family's journey of adoption. Baba is referred to as father in some parts of Africa. By surrendering to the will of God, they learned of a father's love. Walking by faith through the emotional process, they laughed and cried together. It is a true story of suffering, perseverance, and love. Relationships with the beautiful people in Central Nigeria are of valued gifts given to the authors. While living in a different culture, they learned about their own culture and to embrace them both. It is a story about trusting God and having courage to take one step at a time while not knowing the outcome. It is written for the purpose of encouraging you, the reader, in your own journey. Giving is a thread that you will see woven throughout the pages of this story. It speaks of what was given, how it was given, and why it was given. Time is a precious gift to give. It is the authors' desire that you take time to read this story of love and be encouraged in your life, as well as encourage others through sharing your story.
