The Aerial Atlas Of Ancient Crete:

The Aerial Atlas of Ancient Crete J. Wilson Myers, Eleanor Emlen Myers, Gerald Cadogan, 1992 This marvelous and uniquely comprehensive book sets a new high standard of excellence in the study of Greek archaeology Ronald S Stroud University of California Berkeley Philistor Philip P. Betancourt, Eleni Mantzourani, 2012-09-30 Contributions by 37 scholars are brought together here to create a volume in honor of the long and fruitful career of Costis Davaras former Ephor of Crete and Professor Emeritus of Minoan Archaeology at the University of Athens Articles pertain to Bronze Age Crete and include mortuary studies experimental archaeology numerous artifactual studies and discussions on the greater Minoan civilization Archaeologies of the Greek Past Susan E. Alcock, 2002-08-15 Social memory the shared remembrances of group experience creates shared identity and provides people with both an image of their past and a design for their future But how are we to conceive the memories of past peoples such as for example the ancient Greeks This 2002 book makes a strong case for the use of archaeology particularly the evidence of landscape and of monuments to trace patterns in commemoration and forgetfulness Three detailed case studies early Roman Greece Hellenistic and Roman Crete and Messenia in Archaic to Hellenistic times focus on societies undergoing different types of social transformation Material evidence allows us to observe how groups responded to these challenges and how they made different uses of the past in the past The Tourists Gaze, The Cretans Glance Philip Duke, 2016-07 As researchers bring their analytic skills to bear on contemporary archaeological tourism they find that it is as much about the present as the past Philip Duke s study of tourists gazing at the remains of Bronze Age Crete highlights this nexus between past and present between exotic and mundane Using personal diaries ethnographic interviews site guidebooks and tourist brochures Duke helps us understand the impact that archaeological sites museums and the constructed past have on tourists view of their own culture how it legitimizes class inequality at home as well as on the island of Crete both Minoan and modern Barrington Atlas of the Greek and Roman World Richard J.A. Talbert, 2000-10-08 In 102 full color maps spread over 175 pages the Barrington Atlas re creates the entire world of the Greeks and Romans from the British Isles to the Indian subcontinent and deep into North Africa It spans the territory of more than 75 modern countries Its large format 13 1 4 x 18 in or 33 7 x 46 4 cm has been custom designed by the leading cartographic supplier MapQuest com Inc and is unrivaled for range clarity and detail Over 70 experts aided by an equal number of consultants have worked from satellite generated aeronautical charts to return the modern landscape to its ancient appearance and to mark ancient names and features in accordance with the most up to date historical scholarship and archaeological discoveries Chronologically the Barrington Atlas spans archaic Greece to the Late Roman Empire and no more than two standard scales 1 500 000 and 1 1 000 000 are used to represent most regions Since the 1870s all attempts to map the classical world comprehensively have failed The Barrington Atlas has finally achieved that elusive and challenging goal It began in 1988 at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill under the direction of the distinguished ancient historian Richard Talbert and has been developed with approximately 4 5 million in funding support The resulting Barrington Atlas is a reference work of permanent value It has an exceptionally broad appeal to everyone worldwide with an interest in the ancient Greeks and Romans the lands they penetrated and the peoples and cultures they encountered in Europe North Africa and Western Asia Scholars and libraries should find it essential It is also for students travelers lovers of fine cartography and anyone eager to retrace Alexander s eastward marches cross the Alps with Hannibal traverse the Eastern Mediterranean with St Paul or ponder the roads aqueducts and defense works of the Roman Empire For the new millennium the Barrington Atlas brings the ancient past back to life in an unforgettably vivid and inspiring way Map by Map Directory A Map by Map Directory to the Barrington Atlas is available online http://assets.press.princeton.edu/B_ATLAS/B_ATLAS.PDF and in a separate two volume print edition of close to 1 500 pages The Directory is designed to provide information about every place or feature in the Barrington Atlas The section for each map comprises a concise text drawing attention to special difficulties in mapping a region such as extensive landscape change since antiquity or uneven modern exploration a listing of every name and feature on the map with basic data about the period of occupation the modern equivalents of ancient placenames the modern country within which they are located and brief references to relevant ancient testimony or modern studies a bibliography of works cited The Map by Map Directory is an essential accompaniment to the Barrington Atlas As a uniquely rich comprehensive up to date distillation of evidence and scholarship it has no match elsewhere and opens the way to an immense variety of further research initiatives
