The African American Church Past Present Future:

The Black Church in the African American Experience C. Eric Lincoln, Lawrence H. Mamiya, 1990-11-07 A nongovernmental survey of urban and rural churches of black communities based on a ten year study The African American Church Harold A. Carter, 1991 The Negro, Past, Present, and Future John Ambrose Price, 1907 African American Church Leadership Paul Cannings, 2013 How can African American church leaders maximize their leadership potential What are current models for effective leadership in the African American Christian community This book answers those questions and more with up to date research and current best practices regarding leadership principles and strategies African American church communities and those who interact with and work with these communities will find this book particularly useful ParkerBooks are written to equip and encourage African American ministry leaders The Commercial Church Mary Hinton, 2011-05-19 In this new book on the rise of commercial black mega churches Mary Hinton examines the rich legacy of the historic black church from the dual perspectives of theology and religious education She explores the new religious models emerging from the tradition of the historic black church and questions whether they are continuing to operate and practice according to the wisdom of this unique form of American religion Two mega church ministries those of T D Jakes and Creflo Dollar are examined in detail with regards to how they align with black church religious history Hinton concludes by proposing that the fastest growing religious phenomenon within and outside of the black community in the United States the mega church should no longer be analyzed based on size alone Instead Hinton urges readers to consider the ecclesiastical structures of churches in making appropriate assessments in determining should and should not be classified as a commercial church Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill, 2012-11 Schweitzer s goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle Catholic Theological Ethics, Past, Present, and Future James F. Keenan, 2011 Theological ethicists confront key questions and issues from around the globe to provide a state of the art volume in 21st century moral theology The Past, Present, and Future of Theologies of Interreligious Dialogue Terrence Merrigan, John Friday, 2017-03-17 The Past Present and Future of Theology of Interreligious Dialogue brings together several of the most widely regarded specialists who have contributed to theological reflection on religious diversity and interreligious encounter The chapters are united by the consistent theme of the obligation to engage with the challenges that emerge from the tension between the doctrinal traditions of Christianity and the need to reconsider them in light of and in response to the fact of religious otherness As a whole these reflections are motivated by the desire to bring together a significant selection of different theological approaches that have been developed and appropriated in order to engage with religious difference in the past and present as well as to suggest possibilities for the future This confluence of perspectives reveals the complexity of theological reflection on religious diversity and gives some indication of future challenges that must be acknowledged and perhaps successfully met in the ongoing attempt to address a universal reality in light of traditional doctrinal particularities and cultural concerns      Nurturing Faith and Hope Anne E. Streaty Wimberly, 2010-02-01

Wimberly's latest work presents pastors church lay leaders and scholars with a new lens to think critically and joyously about how Christian education undergirds and supports the worship experience in nurturing faith and hope in black parishioners David L Wallace Sr Dean Johnson C Smith Theological Seminary The Interdenominational Theological Center Atlanta Georgia This highly recommended work provides a thoughtful yet comprehensive framework of the black Christian worshipping community as the context where faith and hope are nurtured Marsha Snulligan Haney Associate Professor of Missiology and Religions of the World The Interdenominational Theological Center Atlanta Georgia This is a must read for all pastors and worship designers who desire to make worship relevant for African American Congregations Cecelia M Long former General Secretariat of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women in the United Methodist Church Innovative dynamic thought provoking and inspiring A must read for pastors church leaders Christian educators and anyone interested in revitalizing Christian education in the 21st Century Yolanda Y Smith Assistant Professor of Christian Education Yale University Divinity School and author of Reclaiming the Spirituals New Possibilities for African American Christian Education Dr Wimberly has seized upon the heretofore unspoken wisdom of the black church Local church laity and clergy will easily access this fine work for local churches Lynne Westfield Assistant Professor of Christian Education Drew Theological School Madison New Jersey Wimberly understands comprehensively the ways education is embodied in congregational life Indeed she invites us to nurture faith and hope Jack L Seymour Professor of Religious Education and Academic Dean Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary Evanston Illinois Anne E Streaty Wimberly is Professor of Christian Education at The Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta Georgia She is the author of several books including Soul Stories African American Christian Education 1994      Subversive Habits Shannen Dee Williams, 2022-03-21 In Subversive Habits Shannen Dee Williams provides the first full history of Black Catholic nuns in the United States hailing them as the forgotten prophets of Catholicism and democracy Drawing on oral histories and previously sealed Church records Williams demonstrates how master narratives of women's religious life and Catholic commitments to racial and gender justice fundamentally change when the lives and experiences of African American nuns are taken seriously For Black Catholic women and girls embracing the celibate religious state constituted a radical act of resistance to white supremacy and the sexual terrorism built into chattel slavery and segregation Williams shows how Black sisters such as Sister Mary Antona Ebo who was the only Black member of the inaugural delegation of Catholic sisters to travel to Selma Alabama and join the Black voting rights marches of 1965 were pioneering religious leaders educators healthcare professionals desegregation foot soldiers Black Power activists and womanist theologians In the process Williams calls attention to Catholic women s religious life as a stronghold of white supremacy and racial segregation and thus an important battleground in the long African American freedom struggle
