The African City:

The African City Bill Freund, 2007-03-05 Publisher description The African City Anthony O'Connor, 2013-01-11 This book explores various characteristics of tropical African cities with special reference to change in the post independence period It stresses the diversity of urban forms and urban experience to be found within the region distinguishing the more general features from those peculiar to individual cities Much has been written about urban Africa but nearly all relates to particular cities this book provides a context for such studies This review provides an essential foundation both for theoretical clarification of the processes of urbanization and for practical planning decisions The topics covered range from rural urban migration and national urban systems to the urban economy housing and the spatial structure of cities The sharp contrasts between indigenous and colonial urban traditions are emphasized but so also is the evidence for convergence today as indigenization takes place in the colonial cities while Westernization proceeds in those of indigenous origin This book was first published in 1983 Cinematic Imaginaries of the African City Danai S. Mupotsa, Polo B. Moji, Natasha Himmelman, 2023-08-30 This volume addresses questions at the intersections of cinematic form and the African city It examines the contribution of cinema and audiovisual media to our understanding and experience of contemporary cities from an African perspective Reading the African city as form this volume problematizes the circulation of terms such as Afropolitanism Afro polis Afro modernity and Afro urbanity which often define the kinds of sentiments invested in or associated with the African city Situated within an interdisciplinary matrix that reads the urban African cinematic form through affect theory and the city as a matrix of feeling critical black geography and the racialized construction of city spaces the urban as a temporal consciousness and representations of social inequalities and urban geographies of exclusion this edited volume frames the city and screenscapes as co constitutive foregrounding the diegetic and extra diegetic elements that inform the African urban Chapters engage thematic areas such as aesthetics and African cinematic urban form visuality and the infrastructures of the African city audiovisual narratives social inequality and urban geographies of exclusion Cinematic Imaginaries of the African City is a significant new contribution to African Studies and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African Studies Media and Cultural Studies Visual Studies and Sociology The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Social Dynamics A Journal of African Studies Sustainable Intercultural Urbanism at the Service of the African City of Tomorrow Esoh Elamé, 2022-06-03 Most African cities are human settlements that lack the systems needed for effective land use planning In fact the disorganization that prevails has become so complex that the concept of urbanism itself has been called into question This book highlights the need to restore urban planning in African cities through sustainable development and interculturality Furthermore it addresses the balance of power between urban planning and sustainable development and explores the historical and postcolonial aspects of urban planning in African cities A case study focusing on the development of sustainable cities and neighborhoods in the M Zab Valley is also included as well as topics such as urban greening climatic threats and the problem of state agro industrial land transactions which compete with sustainable urban planning Sustainable Intercultural Urbanism at the Service of the African City of Tomorrow is a valuable reference for researchers and practitioners interested in urban issues in African cities These cities in particular sub Saharan cities have long been excluded from any discourse on sustainable cities and urban planning this book places the focus on these cities and acknowledges their varied urban realities The intention is to spark a new debate on sustainable urban planning in African cities based on intercultural sustainable urbanism which is key to thinking about and building ecological intercultural compact intelligent and postcolonial cities

Making an African City Jennifer Hart,2024-03-05 In Making an African City Jennifer Hart traces the way that British colonial officials Accra Town Council members and a diverse group of technocrats used regulation to define what an acceptable city looked like Unlike cities elsewhere on the continent Accra had a long history of urbanism that predated British colonial presence By criminalizing some activities and privileging others colonial officials sought to marginalize indigenous practices of Accra residents and shape the development of a new modern city Hart argues however that residents regularly pushed back protesting regulations refusing to participate in newly developed systems reappropriating infrastructure demanding rights to city services and asserting their own informal vision for the future of the city While urban plans and regulations ultimately failed to substantively remake the city their effects were and are still felt by urban residents who are often subject to but not served by urban infrastructure Making an African City explores how the informalization of Accra s development was a historical process not a natural and self evident phenomenon which connects the history of the city with the history of urban development and the growth of technocracy around the world Neighbours and Nationals in an African City Ward David Parkin,2022-05-13 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1969 Slavery and the Birth of an African City Kristin Mann,2007-09-26 As the slave trade entered its last illegal phase in the 19th century the town of Lagos on West Africa s Bight of Benin became one of the most important port cities north of the equator Slavery and the Birth of an African City explores the reasons for Lagos s sudden rise to power By linking the histories of international slave markets to those of the regional suppliers and slave traders Kristin Mann shows how the African slave trade forever altered the destiny of the tiny kingdom of Lagos This magisterial work uncovers the relationship between African slavery and the growth of one of Africa s most vibrant cities

Durban, a Cogent African City Anna Irene Del Monaco,Jian Liu,Yashaen Luckan,Belula Tecle Misghina,2018-04-30 The city of Durban is one of the most intriguing for architects and urban designers due to its cultural and economic diversity on one the hand and its political evolution since its colonial formalisation apartheid influences and its post apartheid evolution on the other It is a city that expresses complex narratives in architectural form and expression seemingly chaotic yet within and upon a cogent overall structure Perhaps it is that very cogency in urban structure which facilitated its complex evolution or perhaps not This paradox forms the crux of the studies and applied research part of this book and which defined the sites of focus for a collaborative studio workshop Durban is a modern city which expresses the complex dynamics of an African city emerging from a historically colonial foundation This provided an interesting context for engagement of the UNESCO Chair for Sustainable Urban Quality and Culture notably in Africa The institutional agreement between the UNESCO Chair Sapienza University of Rome and the Durban University of Technology DUT was formalised in the year 2013 prior to an international workshop in China and the UIA 2014 in Durban South Africa The focus of the Chair and the curriculum outcomes of DUT with regard to urban culture and the evolution thereof created a mutually opportune association with the possibility for contribution to the UIA 2014 conference in Durban After deliberations and the necessary paperwork the UNESCO Chair in Association with DUT were granted official space on the UIA Programme for presentation at the conference This was received with much enthusiasm which drew further interest and participation from students and Professors of Sapienza University of Rome and Tsinghua University of Beijing in China Further representation of academics from Manipal University in India School of Architecture University of Florida and Hosei University in Japan added much value to the collaboration in Durban

Food, Culture, and Survival in an African City K. Flynn, 2016-09-27 A rich ethnographic portrait of food provisioning processes in a contemporary African city offering valuable lessons about the powerful roles of gender migration exchange sex and charity in food acquisition Based on anthropologist Karen Coen Flynn's study of Mwanza Tanzania this work draws on the personal accounts of over 350 market vendors low middle and high income consumers urban farmers as well as those including children who live on the streets This strikingly original work offers interdisciplinary appeal to a broad audience of both students and professionals interested in anthropology African studies urban studies gender studies and development economics

Postcolonial African Cities Fasil Demissie, 2013-09-13 The book focuses on contemporary African cities caught in the contradiction of an imperial past and postcolonial present The essays explore the cultural role of colonial architecture and urbanism in the production of meanings in the inscription of power and discipline as well as in the dynamic construction of identities It is in these new dense urban spaces with all their contradictions that urban Africans are reworking their local identities building families and creating autonomous communities made fragile by neo liberal states in a globalizing world The book offers a range of scholarly interpretations of the new forms of urbanity It engages with issues themes and topics including colonial legacies postcolonial intersections cosmopolitan spaces urban reconfigurations and migration which are at the heart of the continuing debate about the trajectory of contemporary African cities The collection discusses contemporary African cities as diverse as Dar Es Salaam Dakar Johannesburg Lagos and Kinshasa offering new insights into the current state of postcolonial African cities This was previously published as a special issue of African Identities
