Presbyterian Reformers in Central Africa Robert Benedetto, Winifred K. Vass, 2016-04-26 This volume contains 123 documents which illustrate the early history of the American Presbyterian Congo Mission and its struggle for human rights in the Congo from 1890 1918 The documents many of which have never previously been published are crucial to a full understanding of both the work of the Presbyterian Mission and its impact on the social political and religious life of the Congo The book is divided into four parts Part One documents the founding and early history of the Presbyterian Mission from 1890 to 1898 Part Two documents the deterioration of social conditions in the Congo under King Leopold and the reform campaigns initiated by the American Mission in Britain and the United States Part Three consists of documents related to the 1909 libel trial of William M Morrison and William H Sheppard the principal leaders of the American Mission Part Four documents the Mission's reaction to continuing human rights abuses particularly religious persecution under Belgian rule to 1918 The documents are annotated and the volume contains an introduction and an index The African Methodist Episcopal Church Dennis C. Dickerson, 2020-01-09 In this book Dennis C Dickerson examines the long history of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and its intersection with major social movements over more than two centuries Beginning as a religious movement in the late eighteenth century the African Methodist Episcopal Church developed as a freedom advocate for blacks in the Atlantic World Governance of a proud black ecclesia often clashed with its commitment to and resources for fighting slavery segregation and colonialism thus limiting the full realization of the church's emancipationist ethos Dickerson recounts how this black institution nonetheless weathered the inexorable demands produced by the Civil War two world wars the civil rights movement African decolonization and women's empowerment resulting in its global prominence in the contemporary world His book also integrates the history of African Methodism within the broader historical landscape of American and African American history The Presbyterian Quarterly ,1894

Kamudoni Nyasulu, 2017-09-21 Huge headlines across Africa have lamented the debilitating effects of corruption and fraud on the African economies and development. But is Africa ready for this fight? Do the antifraud practitioners possess strategies to equip Africa for this fight? This book highlights some of the major challenges facing developing and post-conflict African countries with regard to, among others: 1. policy, political will and legal framework in the prevention and deterrence of fraud and corruption; 2. strategies and coordination of institutional frameworks and institutions; 3. lack of human and infrastructural resources; and 4. the time and energy intensive nature of fraud detection, investigation and resolution. The leadership and citizens of these countries are aware of the effects of fraud and corruption but lack the strategies and sometimes the resources to prevent, deter, detect, investigate or resolve fraud and corruption incidences. This is compounded by huge deficits in compliance because laws are either ignored or deliberately contravened and regulations and ethical practices are circumvented. The book makes comments on some initiatives that have been tried at different levels of governance to stimulate debate in search of effective approaches to equip Africa fight fraud and corruption.

Funerals in Africa Michael Jindra, Joël Noret, 2011-09-01 Across Africa funerals and events remembering the dead have become larger and even more numerous over the years. Whereas in the West death is normally a private and family affair, in Africa funerals are often the central life cycle event, unparalleled in cost and importance for which families harness vast amounts of resources to host lavish events for multitudes of people with ramifications well beyond the event. Though officials may try to regulate them, the popularity of these events often makes such efforts fruitless and the elites themselves spend tremendously on funerals. This volume brings together scholars who have conducted research on funerary events across sub-Saharan Africa. The contributions offer an in-depth understanding of the broad changes and underlying causes in African societies over the years such as changes in religious beliefs, social structure, urbanization and technological changes and health.
