The Alienation Of Modern Man An Interpretation Based On Marx And Tonnies:

Alienation Modern Man Fritz Pappenheim,1959 This intriguing work deals with the plight of the alienated individual estranged from humanity and the surrounding world It examines such questions as Why do writers like Kafka Thomas Wolfe Rilke and the existential philosophers who portray the individual as a stranger in the world have such a strong appeal Is estrangement limited to individual cases or has it become a universal fate Is alienation a consequence of the triumph of the machine Is it characteristic of the human condition or is it a specific development of modern society Should humanity resign itself to alienation or can it be overcome conquered

The Alienation of Modern Man Fritz Pappenheim,1968 The Alienation of Modern Man Fritz Pappenheim,1959 Marx and Alienation Sean Sayers,2011-07-12 The concepts of alienation and its overcoming are central to Marx's thought They underpin his critique of capitalism and his vision of future society Marx's ideas are explained in rigorous and clear terms They are situated in the context of the Hegelian ideas that inspired them and put into dialogue with contemporary debates

Three Authors of Alienation M. Ian Adams,2014-01-09 As a philosophical and social concept alienation covers a broad range of mental states both normal and abnormal Correspondingly a wide range of literary forms has been employed to deal with this important theme In Three Authors of Alienation an exploration of the literary expression of alienation M. Ian Adams discusses the works of three contemporary Latin American authors The fiction of María Luisa Bombal Juan Carlos Onetti and Alejo Carpentier reflects alienation disgust with life and a feeling of nothingness arising from the conditions of modern society However each author treats the theme differently In La última niebla María Luisa Bombal uses poetic imagery to create the emotional life of the protagonist Juan Carlos Onetti portrays the schizoid extreme of alienation with a complex of symbols based on changes of vision caused by the mental states of his characters In Los pasos perdidos Alejo Carpentier presents the problem of the modern alienated artist who attempts to rid himself of his social alienation by changing times and cultures In his close analysis of the works discussed Adams considers each literary element in its context and also in terms of its relation to the larger artistic vision of the author. In addition, he places the works of the three authors in the greater perspective of modern social problems by discussing the concepts of social alienation proposed by Erich Fromm and Erich Kahler. His conclusion is that although disgust with life and feelings of meaninglessness are at the heart of the experiences of the characters of all three authors, only in Alejo Carpentier's Los pasos perdidos are social conditions the major cause of alienation. In the works of Bombal and Onetti, alienation is a result not of social conditions but of factors unique to the characters' personalities and circumstances. Three Authors of Alienation is a solid contribution to criticism of contemporary Latin American narrative. Adams's projection of a social problem into the realm of aesthetic experience yields intriguing interpretations of both the problem and the literature.

The Evolution of Alienation Lauren Langman, Devorah Kalekin-Fishman, 2006. The Evolution of Alienation: Trauma, Promise, and the Millennium presents a collection of essays that examine the prevalence of alienation in the contemporary world. Although the authors share a critical approach to society, their views of alienation vary. While some feel that alienation is inescapable under the conditions of late modernity, others see that especially at this time there are opportunities to overcome alienation. Testing their approaches, the authors touch on highly diverse domains of life. The book is divided into four sections, each with a focus on how alienation is produced and perhaps overcome. Part I presents theoretical approaches to shifting views of alienation. Here the authors discuss how alienation is disclosed in social science, in technology, and in biological constructions of the human being. Part II deals with political consequences of alienation. The three chapters focus on how alienation can lead to fascist beliefs, how it functions in the development of authoritarian personalities, and how alienation is disclosed in teen-age violence but also in the justice meted out to desperate teens without compassion. Part III includes examinations of alienation in identity, culture, and religion. Here researchers discuss how the alienating conditions of globalization create alienated identities that are carnivalized in shock music and in exploitative television shows. The last chapter of this section sees in these developments evidence of our inability or unwillingness as social scientists to deal with transcendental values. Part IV focuses on phenomena from everyday life showing how alienation undermines the advantages of community and the intimacies of dialogue. Although the very concern with alienation shows awareness of trauma, there are throughout the book hints of promise in technology, in loving and creative domesticity, in activism, and through grass roots initiatives in education. Through an interest in the cosmos, human beings may yet discover the way out of alienating labyrinths.

Martin Buber's Social and Religious Thought Laurence J. Silberstein, 1990-12. Moore focuses on Buber's central message about what it means to be a human being, a person of faith, and what mankind can do to overcome the eclipse of God. Shofar, solid, well-researched, and sympathetic, might well spur a person to go back and read Buber. Commonwealth
