Carnival Caricatures Fabiana Lopes da

Cunha,2024-08-06 This work analyzes carnival in Rio de Janeiro through the irreverent view disclosed by the illustrated Brazilian magazines Fon Fon and Careta For such purpose texts and illustrations elaborated by great names in caricature and literature were used as well as by journalists who remained anonymous due to the fact that their chronicles and articles did not carry their signatures The way in which carnival was dealt with in said publications was intimately related to the world view which intellectuals enjoyed the Belle Epoque and to the readers of these magazines the urban middle classes and part of the elite To understand both the view and the type of humoristic approach used songs and the works of chronicle writers memorialists and historians who worked on the theme were also investigated At the end what could be verified through the study of these publications was the importance that carnival enjoyed in the lives of those men of letters and brushes and how relevant was the counterpart which they made possible not only to readers but also to us historians Through these publications it is possible to redeem and reconstruct part of the history of carnival as well as understand the context of the period political problems stylishness innovations and changes in the lives of Rio de Janeiro carioca dwellers So much attention to the theme from the illustrated press denotes the importance of carnival to the financial health of newspaper companies since the subject and its well humored approach pleased readers besides showing that not only did those writers and artists write about the festivities in an irreverent manner but they also actively participated in them as carnival merrymakers and therefore they were themselves artificers of that history

Carnival William W. Johnstone, 2016-03-29 The locals were ecstatic when the carnival pulled into Holland Nebraska They shrieked in delight on the lightning fast rides They gasped in shocked fascination at the chilling collection of freaks and human oddities But all the while piercing red eyes glared out at the townies from the shadows of the midway Eyes that burned with vengeful hatred Eyes that lusted for blood Only Mayor Margin Holland and his beautiful teenaged daughter Linda could feel the air of wrongness that hovered over the fairgrounds Then the killings began and their worst nightmares quickly came to life Night after night a new victim was found his insides smoldering his face contorted in a gruesome death mask of hideous agony Soon for Martin for Linda for the entire plagued community there was nowhere to run and nowhere to hide Nebo's Carnival of Dread had come to town And the horror show was just beginning
