Pioneers of Modern Craft Margot Coatts, 1997 Pioneers of modern craft profiles key figures in the history of contemporary twentieth century crafts It focuses on the lives and times of prominent individuals who were or became influential throughout the pre and post war periods in Britain such as David Pye Gerald Benney Gerda Flockinger Edward Barnsley and William Staite Murray Rural Industries, 1925 The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864 Woodland Craftsmen Ivan George Sparkes, 1977 Much interest surrounds the story of woodland crafts and the men who worked amongst the trees making the domestic and agricultural implements that were once familiar to all but have now disappeared almost as completely as the dedicated craftsmen themselves All over Britain there were centres for rake makers bowl turners and chairmakers while in the Midlands the clogger played an essential part in industrial life The tools they used were in general common to all the woodland crafts but each trade had some kind of break or horse or special cutting tool that was designed for a particular task and was peculiar to that craft It is fortunate that over the years a number of writers have photographed and made detailed reports on these craftsmen and their products and that several museums such as the Salaman Collection at St Alban s and the Museum of English Rural Life at Reading founded collections of the tools before they completely disappeared These documents and artefacts are now of the greatest social importance for the woodland crafts with their economical use of natural materials provided an unlimited supply of essential objects for use in village life long before such objects were mass produced Resources for Teaching English: 14-16
